Lovely Garden Party
Saturday At Dogwood

A large and handsomely appointed event of Saturday afternoon was the garden party given by Mrs. Joe Neisler at her lovely suburban home, "Dogwood", paying special courtesy to Mrs. Ladd W. Hamrick, Jr., of Durham, a recent bride.

Colorful arrangements of mixed blossoms and fruit were used both in the home and on the terrace.

Guests were greeted on the front terrace by Mrs. W. L. Ramseur and Mrs. Hunter Neisler. Greeting informally were Mrs. C. E. Neisler, Mrs. C. T. Miller of Richmond, Va., Mrs. J. W. Timberlake of Gastonia and Mrs. M. L. Plonk.

Just inside the door were Mrs. J. W. Timberlake, Jr., Mrs. Rush Hamrick, Jr., of Shelby, and Mrs. Dan Finger. Inviting callers through the hall and introducing them to the receiving line were Mrs. H. R. Webb and Mrs. G. E. Still. The receiving line was composed of Mrs. Neisler, the hostess, the honoree Mrs. L. W. Hamrick, Jr., and her mother-in-law, Mrs. L. W. Hamrick, of Shelby.

Greeting at the door into the terrace were Mrs. G. F. Lattimore and Mrs. C. G. Dilling.

At the terrace steps on the left were Mrs. M. A. Ware and Mrs. W. M. Gantt inviting callers to the lower lawn were Mrs. Harry Page and Mrs. Robert Miller.

Presiding at the refreshment table were Mrs. Sam Davis and Mrs. J. B. Simpson. The long glass table with the huge arrangement of mixed flowers and corresponding nosegays held trays of French pastries, assorted cakes and cheese tarts.

Mrs. Arnold Kiser and Mrs. G. H. Mauney directed to the punch bowl. Assisting in serving punch were Mrs. William Herndon, Mrs. Ben Hudson, Miss Jane Thompson, Miss Lib Dover, Miss Polly Page and Miss Annie Mobely Dill. The large glass punch table, the huge cut glass bowl with the evanescent vapors from the punch, and the coral vine across one end, with the entwining sprays underneath, made a picture long to be remembered.

Directing guests on the right lawn were Mrs. Craig Jones, of Shelby, and Mrs. H. S. Blackmer. Mrs. Carl Mauney and Mrs. Howard Jackson directed callers to the register. Presiding here were Mrs. George Houser and Mrs. Vernon Crosby. The fruit arrangement on the glass table holding the register was very outstanding.

Good byes were said by Mrs. H. C. Mayes, Mrs. Hugh Ormand and Mrs. John McGill. Around three hundred guests called from Charlotte, Gastonia, Shelby, Roanoke and other points during the party hours.

The numerous flower designs and the beautiful growing plants around the spacious lawn created a picture of outstanding beauty. The chairs about the refreshment table in the cool shade made guests loiter to enjoy the beauty of the gardens and the cool breeze from the immense trees.
