Mrs. Howard Jackson Thursday Bridge Hostess

Mrs. Howard Jackson entertained members of the Ace of Clubs and additional guests Thursday afternoon with a delightful party held at the Country Club.

A color scheme was emphasized in the party rooms with marigolds, zinnias, asters and croton leaves.

Covers were laid after several progressions of bridge and a shrimp salad and dessert course was served with tea.

The bridge games were resumed and prizes awarded Mrs. Jimmie Simpson and Mrs. Sam Davis for compiling the two highest scores.

Those playing other than members were Mrs. Jimmie Simpson, Mrs. Sam Davis, Mrs. Paul Nelsler, Mrs. Paul Hendricks, and Mrs. Johnnie Smithers.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Mauney Entertained Couples Club

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Mauney entertained members of the Couples Club Friday evening in their home on North Piedmont avenue.

Artistic arrangements of tube roses and calladiums were used on the porch where tables were placed for bridge. When guests had assembled, Coca Colas and nuts were served.

Several progressions of bridge were enjoyed.

Guests attending the social event, other than members, were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. William Herndon and Mr. and Mrs. John Plonk, Jr.

When cards were laid aside, the hostess served a salad plate and ice tea.

Mrs. W. B. Logan Honors Miss Barbara Matthews

Among the social courtesies shown Miss Barbara Matthews who leaves Thursday to make her home in Miami was a dinner given Tuesday night at the New South restaurant by Mrs. W. B. Logan.

The table held a very unique center piece composed of yellow chrysanthemums and an airplane. A three course dinner was served. Those attending the dinner were Miss Hilda King, Miss Louise Gladden, Miss Evelyn Cline, Miss Martha Cox, Miss Betty Davis, Miss Melba Tindall and Mrs. Eugene Matthews.

The honoree was showered with gifts from those present and presented a corsage of white rose buds upon her arrival.

Mrs. Frank Hoyle, Jr. Party Honoree Friday

Mrs. Harold Crawford and Mrs. Coman Falls entertained with a drop-in party Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock in compliment to Mrs. Frank Hoyle, Jr., who left Monday to make her home in Hendersonville.

The Crawford home was lavishly decorated with colorful flowers. In the living room crepe Myrtle and roses were utilized. Decorations in the dining room were especially note worthy. Original and unique arrangements of the table appointments created a festive setting for the occasion.

A lovely green cloth overlaid the table, Ice Cokes were served from a large crystal bowl, the base of which was encrusted with magnolia foliage and ivy. The floral design was red sage and zinnias. Refreshments consisted of assorted sandwiches, cookies and candies. An interesting bouquet of Mexican moons was used on the buffet.

Callers were welcomed at the entrance by Mrs. W. L. Ramsour and Mrs. Harold Coggins. Mrs. Crawford and the honoree, Mrs. Hoyle received informally in the living room. Mrs. Coman Falls directed callers to the dining room.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY — Little Kathleen Rhea, attractive little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie Rhea celebrated her first birthday anniversary Saturday, August 22. Her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Moore, her paternal grandmother is Mrs. Grady Rhea.

Of focal interest in the den was an arrangement of sunflowers in a crockery pitcher on the desk. Other arrangements of marigolds were used about the room. Small tables were scattered around, each covered with a green cloth, centered with a dainty vase of red petunias, here the guests were seated to enjoy the refreshments and chat awhile.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Wilson Crawford and Miss Jeannette Falls. Mrs. Harry Page and Mrs. O. P. Lewis entertained in the den. Around thirty close friends of the honoree called during the party hour.

Miss Dorothy Moore Bride Of Lt. J. M. Shields, Jr.

Miss Dorothy Dean Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lamar Moore of Kings Mountain and Lieut. James Milton Shields, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Shields of Nashville, Tenn. were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Methodist church in Auburn, Ala. The Rev. Joel D. McDavid was the officiating minister.

The Setting

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Vernon Lapp and Frances Norton. White flowers and lighted tapers, arranged against a background of huckleberry greenery, fashioned the nuptial setting. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white Chantilly lace and nylon tulle fashioned with an illusion yoke and long full skirt. Her headress was of matching lace and she carried a spray of white orchids and carnations on a prayer book.

Miss Patsy Potts of Atlanta, Ga. was a bridesmaid. The honor attendants were Miss Jeannie Mason of Montgomery, Ala., and Mrs. William C. Ray, Jr. of Birmingham. They were dressed in pink organdy and carried bouquets of pink asters.

The bridegroom had his father as bestman. Ushers were John L. Moore, Charles W. Moore, Robert P. Shield and William K. Blake. For her daughters wedding, Mrs. Moore had chosen a mauve crepe de chene dress and navy accessories with a white orchid corsage.

Reception

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Lambda Chi Fraternity House. The bride's table was overlaid with a handsome lace cloth. The tiered wedding cake, white carnations, and lighted tapers in a silver candelabra completed the appointments.

Mr. and Mrs. Shields both attended Polytechnic Institute where Mrs. Shields has been employed recently.

Wedding Trip

For their wedding trip to Florida, the bride had selected a nutmeg grown tweed suit and candy brown accessories. They will live in Maryland where Lt. Shields is stationed with the U. S. Army.
