Missionary Spoke Sunday To Temple Baptist Meeting

Mrs. Walter Crumpler, native South American, spoke to members of the Woman's Missionary Society of Temple Baptist church Sunday night at the church. A missionary, she spoke of the WMU organizations in South America and was dressed in a typical Spanish costume. Mr. Crumpler was guest minister at Temple Baptist services Sunday. Mrs. Crumpler was introduced by Mrs. Robert Grigg, Jr. Mrs. Herbert Dover, WMU president, presided over the business session.

Mrs. Virginia Hamrick Fetes Aunt With Party

Mrs. Virginia Hamrick entertained a group of friends at her home on Linwood Road Saturday night at a birthday party honoring her aunt, Mrs. Esther M. Nodine of Anderson, S. C., formerly of Kings Mountain.

The house was decorated throughout with lovely fall flowers. A huge birthday cake formed the centerpiece on the dining room table with candelabra containing white candles on each side.

After gifts were opened, a delicious salad course was served. The refreshments were molded in the shape of flowers and yellow and green was the color theme.

Out-of-town guests attending the party were Charles Owens of Anderson, S. C., Mrs. Lila Small of Gastonia, and Mrs. Neely Ady of Shelby.

Mrs. Ella J. McDaniel underwent an operation at Charlotte's Mercy hospital Tuesday. She is expected to be discharged from the hospital Sunday.

MRS. ALAN LELAND CLEM

Miss Mary Louise Burke Wed Saturday To Alan Leland Clem In Church Rites

Miss Mary Louise Burke of Charlotte and Washington, D. C., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Joseph Burke, of Kings Mountain, and Alan Leland Clem of Lincoln, Nebraska, and Washington, D. C., son of Colonel, The Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Clem of Salina, Kansas, pledged marriage vows Saturday morning at Christ Cathedral in Salina, Kansas.

The priest was Colonel, The Rev. Mr. Clem, rector of St. John's Military School, and father of the groom. All white flower arrangements decorated the cathedral altar.

The bride was dressed in a suit of blue faille with navy shirred-velvet hat. Her other accessories were in navy. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls, gift of the groom. She carried a white prayer book topped with white baby orchids and satin streamers.

The couple entered the church unattended. Following the marriage, the Right Rev. Shirley H. Nichols, bishop of Salina, celebrated a nuptial mass. A wedding breakfast honored members of the immediate families.

Background

The bride is a graduate of Central high school in Charlotte and the Charlotte Center of the University of North Carolina. She is presently employed as secretary to Charles Raper Jonas, North Carolina Congressman from the tenth district.

The groom attended St. John's Military School, Salina, Kansas, and the University of Nebraska, from which he was graduated in 1950. He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega and Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity. He is employed as Press Secretary to Carl T. Curtis, Nebraska Congressman from the first district.

Following a wedding trip to New Orleans and the Gulf Coast, Mr. and Mrs. Clem will be at home in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Charles Vick and Mrs. Ed Gordon of South Hill, Va., and M. E. Herndon, of Charlotte, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Herndon this week. They came to attend funeral services for J. T. Martin in Blacksburg, S. C. Monday.

Mrs. Jimmy Simpson Fetes Bridge Club At Glenbrook

Mrs. Jimmy Simpson entertained members of the Duplicate Bridge club and invited guests at Glenbrook Monday afternoon.

Dried arrangements with colorful fall leaves were used to decorate the home. Three tables were set up in the living room for bridge and following the games Mrs. George Houser and Mrs. John L. McGill tied for high score.

The hosts assisted by Mrs. Howard Jackson served a dessert course during progressions.

Invited guests attending the bridge meeting were Mrs. J. W. Crosland of Bennettsville, S. C., house-guest of her daughter, Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mrs. Amos Dean, and Mrs. J. L. McGill.

Woman's Club Fine Arts Department Held Meeting

The Fine Arts Department of Kings Mountain Woman's club met Monday night with Mrs. Luther Cansler and Mrs. Herman Campbell as hostesses at the Cansler home on Canterbury Road.

Twenty-three members attended, and six new members were welcomed into the Woman's club department division.

Mrs. Aubrey Mauney and Mrs. O. W. Myers, program chairmen, arranged for the October meeting a musical and poetry program using poetry and musical selections entered by Woman's club winners in state competition.

Mrs. Martin Harmon was pianist and Mrs. Juanita Warren, soloist for the musical program, and Mrs. P. G. Padgett was poetry reader.

Mrs. W. G. Grantham, department chairman, presided over the business session. Following the meeting, guests enjoyed a social period and viewed the Cansler school-room and kitchenette of the new home.

Church Woman's Group Observing Prayer Week

Central Methodist church Woman's Society of Christian Service will hold a Quiet Day service in observance of the week of Prayer and Self-Denial Thursday (today).

The three-hour service begins at 5 o'clock p. m. Supper will be served at 6 p. m.

Miss Margaret Stern, teacher of Bible in Kings Mountain city schools, is directing the service.

Miss Ollie Jo Turner Feted At Bridal Shower

Miss Rachel Wehant entertained last Thursday night at a miscellaneous shower and party at her home in the Oak Grove church community paying compliment to Miss Ollie Jo Turner, December bride-elect.

Miss Turner wore a dress of baby blue faille with black accessories.

Pink dahlias and mums were used as decorations throughout the home. Following games and contests, shower gifts were presented and displayed.

Winners in bridal contests were Mrs. Manuel Ross, Mrs. T. R.

Moore, Mrs. Garvis Ross, and Miss Jeanette Anthony. Twenty guests attended.

Refreshment plates consisting of sandwiches, cakes, potato chips, and coles were passed.
