

Fortnighters Club Held Meeting Friday

Members of the Fortnighters club met Friday afternoon at freshment plates consisting of as-Prior to bridge progressions a were passed. dessert course with coffee was

Mrs. George Houser won high score prize for the evening. Seasonal fall flowers and dried arrangements were used as deco-

Miss Peggy Mauney of Rocky Mount and Gene Mauney, student at Lenior-Rhyne college, Hickory, spent the Thanksgiving holiday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Mauney.

RECORDS

20% Discount

on any purchase of six records or more! All speeds Needles Supplies

LOGAN Supply Co.

SKILL SAWS

800 Cleveland Ave. PHONE 1014

December Bride-Elect Feted At Shower-Party

Miss Betty Lou Peterson, bridelect of December, was complimented at a miscellaneous house. John Herbert Gamble, Jr. were shaped bouquet of red roses tied hold shower Friday night by Mrs. Charles Peterson, the honoree's wedding ceremony of beauty and mother, and Mrs, Lois Watts, her sister, at the home of the latter. Bridal games were directed Shelby last Friday evening at throughout the evening and pri- six o'clock. zes presented to winners. Re-

A shower of gifts from the twenty-eight guests were presented to the bride-elect, who opened them and displayed them. Miss Peterson wore a grey er. Hostesses gift to the honoree was a chenille corded bedspread.

Temple Baptist WMU Conducting Courses

Members of the Woman's Missionary Society of Temple Baptist church are conducting the courses Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

The meetings are being held at he church and have been desigof Prayer and Self-Denial For Foreign Missions."

Monday evening the course was led a program entitled, "His Star Overcoming Communism."

Thursday at 3 p. m. Mrs. Geore Thornburg will lead a discussion on "The Star — The Cross," Friday's topic at 10 a. m., "His Star Over All the Nations" will be directed by Mrs. E. B. Cooke. and the group will conclude the program on Friday evening at

Members of the church and the public are invited to attend the services, a spokesman for the WMU, said this week.

Harold Dean Pearson, student at Gardner-Webb college, Boiling Springs, spent the Thanksgiving Mrs, Olland Pearson. holiday with his parents, Mr. and

Roberts-Gamble Vows Exchanged Friday Mrs. John C. McGill Fetes Home Arts Club In Formal Church Ceremony At Shelby Miss Betty Sue Roberts and waist-line. She carried a heartbouquets of red roses.

of the bride, was flower girl and wore a dress made like those of the adult attendants, carrying a satin basket filled with rose pe-

Billy Williamson of Charlotte, attendants and were seated by William Dodge of Miami, Fla.

was best-man for the groom, and

Warren Gamble, Sam Jones, and

Sam Wilson, Jr., all of Shelby, Ted W. Gamble of Kings Mountain, Howard Gamble of Greens-were usher-groomsmen.

boro, and Harry Miller of Marion

Mrs. Maurice H. Roberts, the bride's mother, wore a rose lace

bert Gamble, was gowned in aqua blue lace and crepe with a similar corsage pinned to her dress.

ed pews prior to the service.

united in marriage in a formal with red satin ribbons, reverence before the altar of white net over taffets with bour-Elizabeth Baptist church near fant skirts ending in wide ruffles

Dr. Zeno Wall, pastor of the club met Friday afternoon at freshment plates consisting of as-Kings Mountain Country club sorted sandwiches, cookies, mint vows of the double ring service with Mrs. Harry Page as hostess. candles, and nuts with cold drinks before a background altar of greenery, smilax and fern with seven lighted tapers in floor candelabrum grouping three arches of potted palms and fern,

Single white tapers were used in each window ledge of the plaid skirt with red blouse sweat church and choir rails were decorated with greenery. Special pews of the church were marked with satin bows tied with satin ribbon streamers. Mrs. Aubrey Clay of Waco was organist for the program of wedding music prior to and during the service, and Paul Gold of Charlotte was vocal soloist. The bride, given in marriage by final in a series of mission study her father, wore a wedding gown of white slipper satin and Chantilly lace styled with contour bodice, oval neckline filled in with the church and have been designated as an observance of "Week ves ending in calla-lily points over the hands.

The gown neckline and sleeves were edged with lace medallions conducted by Mrs. Robert Grigg, embroidered with seed pearls, and Jr. on a program arrangement the back of the full skirt was dress with a purple shoulder or on a program arrangement the back of the bustle effect exchid corsage, and the bride leading Darkness." Tuesday morn-tending into a floor-length train. ing the group discussed under Her fingertip veil of bridal illuthe direction of Mrs. Annie Mae sion fell from a scalloped lace Dover the topic, "His Star cap of seed pearls and sequins, Through Papal Gloom," and Wed- and she carried a bouquet of tubenesday night Mrs. D. N. Morris roses centered around a white purple-throated orchid showered with tuberoses and satin ribbons. The bride had designed and made her wedding garment and those worn by her attendants.

Miss Joan Roberts of Shelby attended her sister as maid-of-honor, and Miss Sara Sue Roberts and Miss Rachel Roberts, the bride's cousins, Miss Cora Ray Beam of Gastonia, Miss Betty Kiser of Kings Mountain, Miss Ann Falls and Miss Beth Putnam served as bridesmaid attendants.

The maid-of-honor was gowned in a dress of white Chantilly lace and net over taffeta with skirt of ruffles of lace and net from waist to floor. The strapless bodice was topped with a stole tied in back with a large bow at the at her home on Crescent Hill. Christmas arrangements were Bridesmald attendants wore used throughout the home to achieve holiday decoration, Mrs. Clarence Plonk, Jr., preat the hemline and strapless bo sented the program on "Christdices topped with stoles. They mas Symbols and Legends". Members of the club told of inwore white net mitts and carried teresting customs and traditions Cathy Gold of Charlotte, niece used throughout the world. New officers for the year were elected, and new books were presented for club approval. At the close of the meeting the ostess was assisted in serving a congealed salad plate with fruit the bride's nephew, was ringbearcake and coffee. er and carried the rings on a white heart-shaped satin pillow. Mrs. Fulton Cline, Miss Patrina Belle Land, Catherine Lowery cia Cantor of North Wilkesboro, of Wilmington, and Mr. and Mrs. fee were passed by the hosiesses. Mrs. Charles Fisher of Miami, Fla., and Mrs. James Guin of Bill Page attended the Army-Navy game in Philadelphia over useful gifts from her guests, She Lowell were honorary bridesmaid the weekend. They were guests attendants and were seated by of Midshipman Robert C. May, ushers in white satin-bow mark Jr. of the N. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland.

Mrs. Price Falls Honored Saturday

Mrs. Price Falls was complimented at her home here last Saturday afternoon and evening the party list. at a surprise birthday party cele-bration planned by her daugh-

The honoree was 80 years old Honored Floyd W. Gates Saturday. Approximately 50 relatives called during the day, in addition to members of her immediate fami-White and gold chrysanthemums in bronze containers decorated the Falls' living room, and throughout the house arrangements of mixed fall flowers were used.

Refreshments were served Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. May from a table in the dining room. of Greenville, N. C., Misses Ver. Individual cakes iced in yellow and served with mints and cof-The honoree received many opened and displayed them during the evening.

Out-of-town relatives attending were opened and the celebration were Mrs, Hunter lowing the meal.

Ware and Mrs. James Wentz, of | Macedonia Girls Group Wilmington, Miss Stella Patterson and Miss Madeline Patterson. of Rock Hill, S. C., and Mrs. Carl-Other relatives and friends from Kings Mountain made up the party list. Sunday Birthday Party

Mrs. Floyd Gates entertained at a dinner party Sunday complimenting her husband, who was celebrating a birthday anniverdining room table, and places dining table.

and Gene Reeves, of Belmont, and Kirkus. Everette Adcock of Lowell.

Fall flower arrangements, dish gardens, and potted plants were isted in home decoration, Gifts sus." were opened and displayed fol-

Held Saturday Meeting

Members of the Girls Auxiliary of Macedonia Baptist church held heir regular meeting Saturday morning in the church. Program for the meeting had ben arranged in Thanksgiving meditation form with recitations.

oems, and songs given. Program leaders were Barbara Lynn who read a recitation on "Prayer Is Confident Asking" Libby Medlin, "Prayer Is Trust ing God"; Brenda Hardin, "Prayer is Cooperation With God"; A two-tiered white birthday "Prayer Changes Us", Nancy cake decorated in yellow and Denny; Mickie Lynn, "Frayer L green candied roses centered the Letting Jesus Into Our Hearts"; ining room table, and places Martha Hardin, "Prayer Is Ex-were set for eight guests at the pecting God To Answer Us"; and Brenda McDaniel, "Prayer"; and Covers were laid for Mr. and the program concluded by a pray-Mrs. Gates, Billie Sue and Nora er of Thanksgiving by Mrs. Ja-Anne, Mr. and Mrs. John Reeves mes Bolin, counsellor, and Gail

> Group songs included "We've A Story To Tell To the Nations" and The Light of the World Is Je-

SUBSCRIBE TO THE HERALD

PRACTICAL HARDWARE GIFTS FOR HIM

$29.95 up HAND SAWS $2.25 up

HARDWARE STORE

THE NEW LOOKI

Pre-Christmas SUITS

Following the wedding, a reception was given at the home of he bride's parents on Duke st., in Shelby. The receiving line, composed of the bridal pair, their parents, and members of the COATS wedding party was set up in the living room of the home, which was decorated in red and white.

A long refreshment table centered the dining room against a background of carnations and daises in pink and white. A white cutwork lace cloth was draped over the dining table, flanked on either side by triple silver candelabrum holding white lighted tapers tied with white maline and tuberoses, A crystal punch bowl was mounted on the extreme end of the table, and compotes of salted nuts, mints, and white bride's cakes topped with red hearts, had been placed on the cloth and were erved and passed.

Other decorations in red and white were used throughout the nome with tapers lighted in each

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice H. Roberts of Shelby, is a June graduate of Appalachian State Teacher's college, Boone, and received her vocational home economics certificate from Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, during the past summer. She is teacher of home economics in the Bethware county school system here.

Mr. Gamble, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Herbert Gamble, Sr., of Miami, Fla., attended Gardner-Webb Junior college, Boiling Springs, and served with the Army in Japan for two years. He has recently completed academic work at Appalachian State Teacher's college, Boone, and will be a member of the Kings Mountain city schools faculty during the winter quarter. He is to receive his degree from ASTC in Febru-

Following the reception, the couple left for a wedding trip. When they return, they will be at home in Kings Mountain.

MYF Senior High Group Held Meeting On Tuesday

Members of the Youth Council of the Senior High Methodist Fellowship of Central Methodist church met Tuesday at the home of Miss Betty Prince with Miss ane Ormand as co-hostess.

Eddie Goforth, president, called the meeting to order, and Jane Ormand presented a devotional meditation, Rev. P. L. Shore, Jr., led the group in prayer.

During the business session, plans for a spaghetti supper to be held Thursday night at 7:30 p. m. were completed. The supper will benefit an orphan at the Children's Home, A campaign to sell additional tickets was launched by Hoyle McDaniel, advisor. Tickets are priced at $1 for adults and 50 cents for children,

Program leaders for the coming month were appointed, and the group made tentative plans for Christmas carolling, Evangeism was also discussed

During the social hour, the hostesses served colas and cookies. The MYF benediction, in a friend-ship circle, concluded the meet-

The home was decorated with Christmas scenes of a madonna and child, candles, and a minia-ture Christmas tree.

Eastern Star Chapter To Conduct Plant Sale

Members of the Kings Moun-tain chapter 123, Order of the Eastern Star, are conducting a sale of plants, an annual chapter

Orders for pansies, stock, sweet william, or baby breath plants may be placed by telephoning 925 or may be purchased from any member of the Eastern Star chap-

Curlee Now $39.88 $39.95 Curlee Wydown Now

$29.88

$45 CURLEE Topcoats Now $39.95

ALL CURLEE Sport Coats Regularly $27.50 $22.50

$39.95 CURLEE Topcoats Now $34.95

ALL SALES CASH OR LAYAWA