Ladies Honored By Woman's Club

Members of the American Home and Education Department of Kings Mountain Woman's club entertained at an informal afternoon Christmas party Tuesday at the Woman's club.

The party complimented "Golden Age" citizens of the community. Forty members of the group attended the party in addition to charter members of the organization and members of the host club.

The Woman's club lower floor was decorated with Christmas arrangements and throughout the club lounge and entrance hall, decorations of red and green were used.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. R. D. Arrowood and Mrs. J. T. Latham, co-chairmen of the department, at the front entrance to the club. Christmas corsages were pinned on each guest by Mrs. H. C. Mayes, Mrs. J. L. McGill, and Mrs. J. H. Arthur.

Address of welcome was given by Mrs. H. C. Mayes in the dining room, where guests were seated. Mrs. Franklin Pethel led the group in carol singing before a program presented by Mrs. P. L. Shore, Jr., who read "My Son" as a recitation. Robert Morris, Jr., sang as a solo, "Silent Night."

The program was closed by a group song, "Joy To The World." Mrs. J. H. Arthur and Mrs. B. N. Barnes poured tea from a refreshment table overlaid with a green satin cloth, flanked on either side by silver candelabra hold-

Second Baptist Church Held Meeting Tuesday

Mrs. H. H. Smith was hostess to members of the Rachel Humphries circle of Second Baptist church when the group met for their December meeting Tuesday night.

Eight members were present and the group participated in a program entitled "Christmas And On Earth Peace." Mrs. Emmett Benfield read a devotional and the Christmas story passage from Luke II and a prayer opened the meeting.

Mrs. Henry Carroll closed the meeting with prayer. Others assisting in the program were Mrs. S. O. Kirby and Mrs. Farmer.

During the social hour, the hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. B. R. Tate. The January meeting of the circle will be held at the home of Mrs. S. O. Kirby.

ing red lighted tapers. Bases of the candelabra were entwined with arrangements of frosted fruits.

Mrs. C. F. Thomasson, Mrs. P. E. Hendricks, Mrs. Boyer Murray, Mrs. David Saunders, and Mrs. J. L. McGill assisted in passing decorated sandwiches, cookies, and party donuts.

Charter members recognized at the event were Mrs. C. E. Neisler, Mrs. J. E. Aderholdt, Mrs. H. T. Fulton, Mrs. S. A. Mauney, Mrs. H. N. Moss, Mrs. B. M. Ormand, Mrs. E. L. Campbell, all of Kings Mountain, and Mrs. George Patterson of Gastonia.

Lily Austin Circle

Held December Meeting

Members of the Lily Austin Circle of Second Baptist church held their December meeting Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Archie Burton with Mrs. Ila Fipps as co-hostess.

Mrs. Jack Stone opened the meeting with prayer followed by a devotional reading by Mrs. I. W. Ledford. Mrs. Fipps presented a short talk for the program entitled, "Christmas," and Mrs. Burton read "The Blessedness of Christmas." A silent meditation period and a directed prayer led by Mrs. Marvin Wright closed the program.

The living room of the hostesses' home was decorated with Christmas decorations. One end of the room held a Christmas manger scene decoration with the other end made to resemble a commercialized Christmas scene. Gifts were exchanged during the social period and the hostesses served a salad plate with accessories. Mrs. Lloyd Alexander, Mrs. Wesley Kiser, Mrs. Howard Allen, and Mrs. Audley Tignor were welcomed into the group as new members.
