Saturday Bridge Party Honors Weekend Guests

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Willis were hosts at bridge Saturday evening at their home on West Mountain street.

The party complimented Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Butterworth, Jr., of Alken, S. C., who were weekend guests of their parents here.

Bridge was played at three tables with prizes awarded to Mrs. C. T. Carpenter, Jr., high for ladies, and Mrs. H. A. Logan, Jr., second high for men with L. E. Abbott receiving second high award.

A dessert course with coffee was passed. Rooms of the home were decorated with arrangements of pot plants, other bowl flowers, and seasonal decoration.

Margrace Woman's Club Held Regular Meeting

Margrace Woman's club members held their regular monthly meeting Friday night at the Margrace Woman's club house.

Mrs. Paul Mauney was in charge of a devotional period at the beginning of the meeting. Eighteen members and one visitor, Mrs. Randolph Carter of Atlanta, Ga., house - guest of her mother, Mrs. B. R. Smith, attended.

After a business session, conducted by Mrs. C. W. Falls, club president, a salad course with coffee was served.

Dixon Church Circle Held January Meeting

Mrs. Wayne Wells was hostess to members of Circle No. 1 of Dixon Presbyterian church when the group held its January meeting Saturday night.

Mrs. Thomas Humphries, circle chairman, called the meeting to order and presided over the business session. Plans were discussed for the circle's work during the year and committees appointed.

Mrs. P. D. Patrick, Bible leader, brought the Bible study.

Following the meeting, the hostess was assisted in serving refreshments. Two visitors, Mrs. D. L. Sanders and her mother, Mrs. Whitney Wells, were welcomed by the circle.

Erskine Alumnae Chapter Held Meeting Here Monday

The Kings Mountain Chapter of the Erskine Alumnae met Monday evening in the home of Mrs. W. K. Crook.

After the singing of the Alma Mater, Mrs. John Gamble offered a prayer for Erskine college.

Miss Elizabeth Anthony presented a very interesting program on "Negroes in General and Their Contribution to Education and Art." In her discussion she included some of the outstanding accomplishments of Booker T. Washington, George Washington Carver, and Mary Bethune. She also told of the contribution that Negroes had made in folk music, and in poetry writing.

Frank Sellers, student at Erskine college, was a special guest of the Alumnae. He delighted the members with a group of Negro spirituals. He was accompanied by Mrs. N. F. McGill.

Mrs. E. W. Neal concluded the program with the poem, "Creation", by Jane Weldon Johnson.

Mrs. J. C. McGill announced that $188.50 had been contributed to the Scholarship Fund, the project of the chapter.

A social hour followed the program. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. I. G. Patterson, Mrs. J. L. McGill, and Mrs. John Gamble served a dessert course with coffee.

Boycott Memorial YPCU Hosts At Buffet Supper

College students and servicemen were honor guests at a dinner given last Wednesday by members of the Young People's Christian Union of Boyce Memorial ARP church.

The recreation room of the Educational building was attractively decorated with a color scheme of red and white. Potted plants added to the attractiveness of the scene.

About thirty members and guests gathered at 7 o'clock and enjoyed a turkey dinner with accessories. The dinner was served buffet style, and guests found their places by attractive hand-made place cards.

After the dinner, the group enjoyed a program of informal entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hamm are adult advisors for the YPCU group.

Mrs. Marshall Heavner underwent a major operation at Gaston Memorial hospital, Gastonia, Monday. She will be hospitalized for a week or ten days, members of her family said Tuesday.
