Local DAR Chapter Sets Monday Program

Members of the Colonel Frederick Hamrick Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will present a 15 minute discussion of the proposed Bricker-American Bar Association Amendment over Radio-Station WKMT, Monday, January 18.
 The radio discussion will be broadcast at 10 o'clock Monday morning.
 This Amendment of the Constitution, proposed to safeguard the supremacy of the United States over treaties, will be voted on by Congress during the current session.
 All Americans who are concerned with the preservation of the freedoms they now enjoy should understand the need for this Amendment, a member of the local DAR chapter said Wednesday in making the announcement.
 Monday's broadcast will be the fourth in a series of patriotic programs presented over the local radio station by the DAR chapter here.
