Parent-Teacher Group To See 3R Film Wednesday

"Sippy and the 3 R's", a 16 mm motion picture portrayal of how first graders learn to read, write, and do arithmetic, was shown to parents and teachers at both the East school PTA meeting Tuesday and at the West school PTA meeting yesterday.

The film will also be shown at the Central school Parent-Teacher meeting next Wednesday, January 27 at the school auditorium.

"Sippy and the 3 R's" will do much to dispel the fears of many parents concerning the progress of their children in learning reading, writing, and arithmetic fundamentals, a spokesman for the school said this week. The film shows, she added, that today's teachers have a plan of instruction which is based on scientific knowledge and skill.

Mrs. H. R. Parton and her sisters, Mrs. L. G. Welch, of New Jersey, and Mrs. B. R. Davis, of Waynesville, left Monday for a ten-day trip in Florida. Mrs. Welch and Mrs. Davis visited here over the weekend.
