

Grover Circles Held Meetings; School PTA Meeting Held Monday

By MRS. M. C. HARDIN
Telephone: Grover 3242

GROVER — The Livingstone circle of the First Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. James Blalock. Mrs. Arthur Davis, chairman, presided over the meeting. Miss Ethel Marth conducted the devotional. Mrs. John Gold had charge of the program and presented Mrs. J. B. Ellis, Mrs. James Blalock, Mrs. D. A. Moss, Mrs. A. F. Collins, and Mrs. Arthur Davis.

Mrs. Blalock served open-face sandwiches, potato chips, fruit cake with whipped cream, and Russian tea.

The Lottie Moon circle met at the beautiful new home of Mrs. Harry Roark. Mrs. Roark, chairman, presided over the business session.

Mrs. Mattie Greene was a visitor and conducted the devotional. Mrs. J. F. Westmoreland, Mrs. Hood Watterson, Mrs. Harry Roark and Mrs. Greene took part on the program.

Mrs. Roark served frozen fruit salad, cookies, and Russian tea.

Linda Ponder entertained a group of young boys and girls at a party at her home on Saturday evening, honoring Velda Joy Prince on her birthday. Fourteen attended the occasion. Out-of-town guests were Wayne Humphries and Ray McCraw of Gaffney.

The Annie Armstrong circle met at the home of Mrs. James Byers on Tuesday evening with Mrs. Bob Hambricht as co-hostess.

Mrs. Grady Ross, chairman, presided over the business session. Mrs. Franklin Monroe was a new member.

Mrs. Al Herndon presented the program.

Mrs. Byers and Mrs. Hambricht served delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Westmoreland and Mrs. Mattie Greene visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henderson of Charlotte on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Roark and children who have been living in Gaffney for sometime have moved back to their home here.

Misses Christine McSwain and Barbara McSwain, of Kings Creek, S. C., spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Randall.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Huffstetter of Clover, S. C., visited Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Randall on Saturday.

Mrs. Bud Herndon and son, David, visited Mrs. Violet Hillebrand and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bowers of Kings Mountain on Sunday.

Miss Marie Herndon of Kannapolis spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. J. L. Herndon.

Several from here are on the sick list. Those that are confined to their homes are as follows, C. A. Mullinax, Miss "Mag" Wells, Miss Edith Hambricht and Mrs. C. F. Hambricht.

J. F. Goforth and the Rev. Park Moore attended the Kings Mountain Presbytery at the First church of Gastonia on Tuesday.

Mrs. Lola Dillingham, who is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Ermon Bain and Mr. Bain of Phil Campbell, Alabama, has been sick and was hospitalized for five days, but is able to be at home with her daughter again.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob White and Mr. Ed Randall were dinner guests of Mrs. J. L. Randall and Miss Annie Randall on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hope and

Girl Scout News

Brownie Troop 32 met at the Presbyterian church January 14th. All members and leaders were present.

Each member came dressed as a mother and brought their favorite doll. Gall Morrison won the prize for being dressed most like a mother. Sue Hunnicutt won the prize for the best baby doll. Her doll was a life size baby doll.

Mrs. Page and Mrs. Neill served cokes, cookies, and candy.

Everyone had a good time at the dress-up party.

Marlan Plonk, reporter daughters, Jackie and Vickie, visited Mrs. A. F. Spake of Cherryville on Sunday.

John Houser, USN, of Norfolk, Va., spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Houser.

Mrs. Clyde Rhea underwent surgery at the Shelby hospital on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kindrick and daughter of Shelby visited Miss Mag Wells on Sunday.

The regular monthly meeting of the PTA was held at the Grover school on Monday evening. Mrs. W. B. Harry, president, presided over the meeting.

Mrs. C. F. Harry, Jr., was guest speaker for the occasion. She told of the marvelous things the patients are doing at the Polio Foundation at Warm Springs, Georgia.

The social committee served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyree Keeter attended funeral rites for Mrs. Della Weathers at Lexington on Sunday.

United States exports of grain are expected to continue downward during 1954 as a result of large supplies in major importing and exporting countries.

NEWS of SERVICEMEN

CHANEY GRADUATES
MUNICH, Germany. — Cpl. Jack D. Chaney, whose wife, Helen, lives at 211 Lackey st., Kings Mountain, N. C., recently graduated from the Seventh Army Non-Commissioned Officer Academy at Munich, Germany.

A gunner assigned to the 866th cossack completed a five-week course emphasizing leadership of small units, public speaking, map reading and other military subjects.

Corporal Chaney entered the Army in February 1951 and has been awarded the UN and Korean Service Ribbons and the Army of Occupation Medal for duty in Germany.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chaney, of Kings Mountain, he arrived overseas last October.

ABOARD "MISSOURI"
PORTSMOUTH, Va. (FHTNC) — Holland P. Smith, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Presley R. Smith of Kings Mountain, N. C., has reported for duty aboard the battleship USS Missouri.

The Missouri, whose deck was the scene of the surrender of the Japanese to the Allied forces in World War II, is now undergoing an extended upkeep and repair program at the Norfolk Naval Shipyard. She has had almost two years of active cruising including a tour of duty in Korean waters and two Midshipman training cruises.

ELLIS IN KOREA
45TH DIV., KOREA—Pvt. Elondus Ellis, 20, whose wife, Betty Lou, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ellis, live in Bessemer City,

Sisk Quartet Gets Merit Recognition

"Country Songs Roundup," a national magazine, gave recognition of merit in its January issue to the Sisk Quartet, religious singing group.

Members of the singing group are Hage Sisk, baritone, Ralph Francis, first tenor; Charles Sisk, second tenor; and Alto Sisk, bass.

George Deal is pianist for the group and Mack Murray, of Kings Mountain is in charge of public relations.

Expected shortly, under the label of Blue Ridge Recording Company, North Wilkesboro, N. C., will be a new record release by Sisk Quartet.

The group, carried over many southern stations, are heard locally at 12:45 p. m., on Sundays, over WOHS, and at 1:05 p. m. and 3:30 p. m. Sundays, over WKMT, Kings Mountain.

Sisk Quartet will make a personal appearance on the Gospel Concert program being held at Moriah School, near Casar, Saturday, January 23, 8 p. m., by the PTA of the school.

N. C., recently arrived in Korea for duty with the 45th Infantry Division.

The First National Guard division to see combat since World War II, the 45th was federalized in 1950 and arrived in Korea during December 1951. It is now receiving intensive post-trainee training.

Ellis entered the Army last May and completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C.

John Gladden To Represent Legion Post 155

John W. Gladden will represent American Legion Post 155 at the post officers conference of the state department, beginning January 22 in Durham.

The post voted at the regular January meeting to send Mr. Gladden, long an active Legionnaire, to represent the organization. He is also a member of the state child welfare committee, which will also meet during the conference.

Mr. Gladden was awarded a "Go-Getters" medal for signing over 100 members during 1953 and this year is to be awarded a medal for signing over 50 Legionnaires.

Post 155 now has a 1954 membership of 177, as compared to 224 for 1953.

Bur-Mill Adding Boys Sock Line
GREENSBORO — Burlington Mills is bringing out a branded line of boys' socks, under the "Bur-Mil Jr." label, according to J. C. Sowan, Jr., president of the textile concern, which maintains executive headquarters here.

The Burlington Men's Hosiery Division has for some time manufactured boys' socks, but this is the first time they have been put

MYAF Group Meet Set At Maylo Church

The Methodist Young Adult Fellowship of Gaston County will meet at the Maylo Methodist church on Friday evening, January 29 at 7:30.

The Reverend Rollin P. Gibbs of the Hickory Grove Methodist church of Charlotte will be the main speaker of the evening. Mr. Gibbs is conference president of Young Adults. Over a period of years he has made a special study of family life and has been a leader in this field in national conferences on family life. He will speak and lead a discussion in family life and the peculiar problems of young adults.

Sam Stallings of Kings Mountain is president of the Gaston County Fellowship and the Reverend Jerome Huneycutt, of Dailons, is the counselor.

Post 155 now has a 1954 membership of 177, as compared to 224 for 1953.

out under a brand name. The boys' line includes fancy cotton, ribbed nylon stretch, spun nylon, and nylon and cotton socks.

At the same time it was announced that the range of Bur-milized nylon stretch socks has been increased from four to 12 styles and the knee-high group has been expanded to seven styles. All stretch socks are in three sizes.

The company's Sarfert label has also been retained, Mr. Sowan explained, "for multiple distribution purposes."

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Rites Conducted For J. B. Queen

Funeral services for John Benjamin Queen, 86, who died last Thursday at 5 p. m. at Kings Mountain hospital after an illness of three weeks, were conducted Saturday at 2 p. m. from the home at 409 Wilson street.

Rev. A. D. Holt, pastor of First Nazarene church, officiated, assisted by Rev. C. E. McKenzie, Interment was made in Mountain Rest cemetery.

Mr. Queen was a member of First Nazarene church here. His wife, Mrs. Sarah Morrison Queen, survives.

Surviving, in addition to his wife, are four sons, P. E. Queen and Marvin Queen, both of Shelby, W. A. Queen, Bessemer City, and Wesley Queen of Clover, S. C.

A daughter, Mrs. Jesse Carpenter of Kings Mountain, 15 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren also survive.

Grandsons of Mr. Queen served as active pallbearers.

North Carolina ranks 45th among the states in percentage of corn acreage planted to hybrid varieties.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Approximately 54 million head of swine were on United States farms in 1953, compared with 63 million in 1952.

Continuing . . . AFTER-INVENTORY SALE

STARTS THURSDAY, JANUARY 14, 9 A. M.

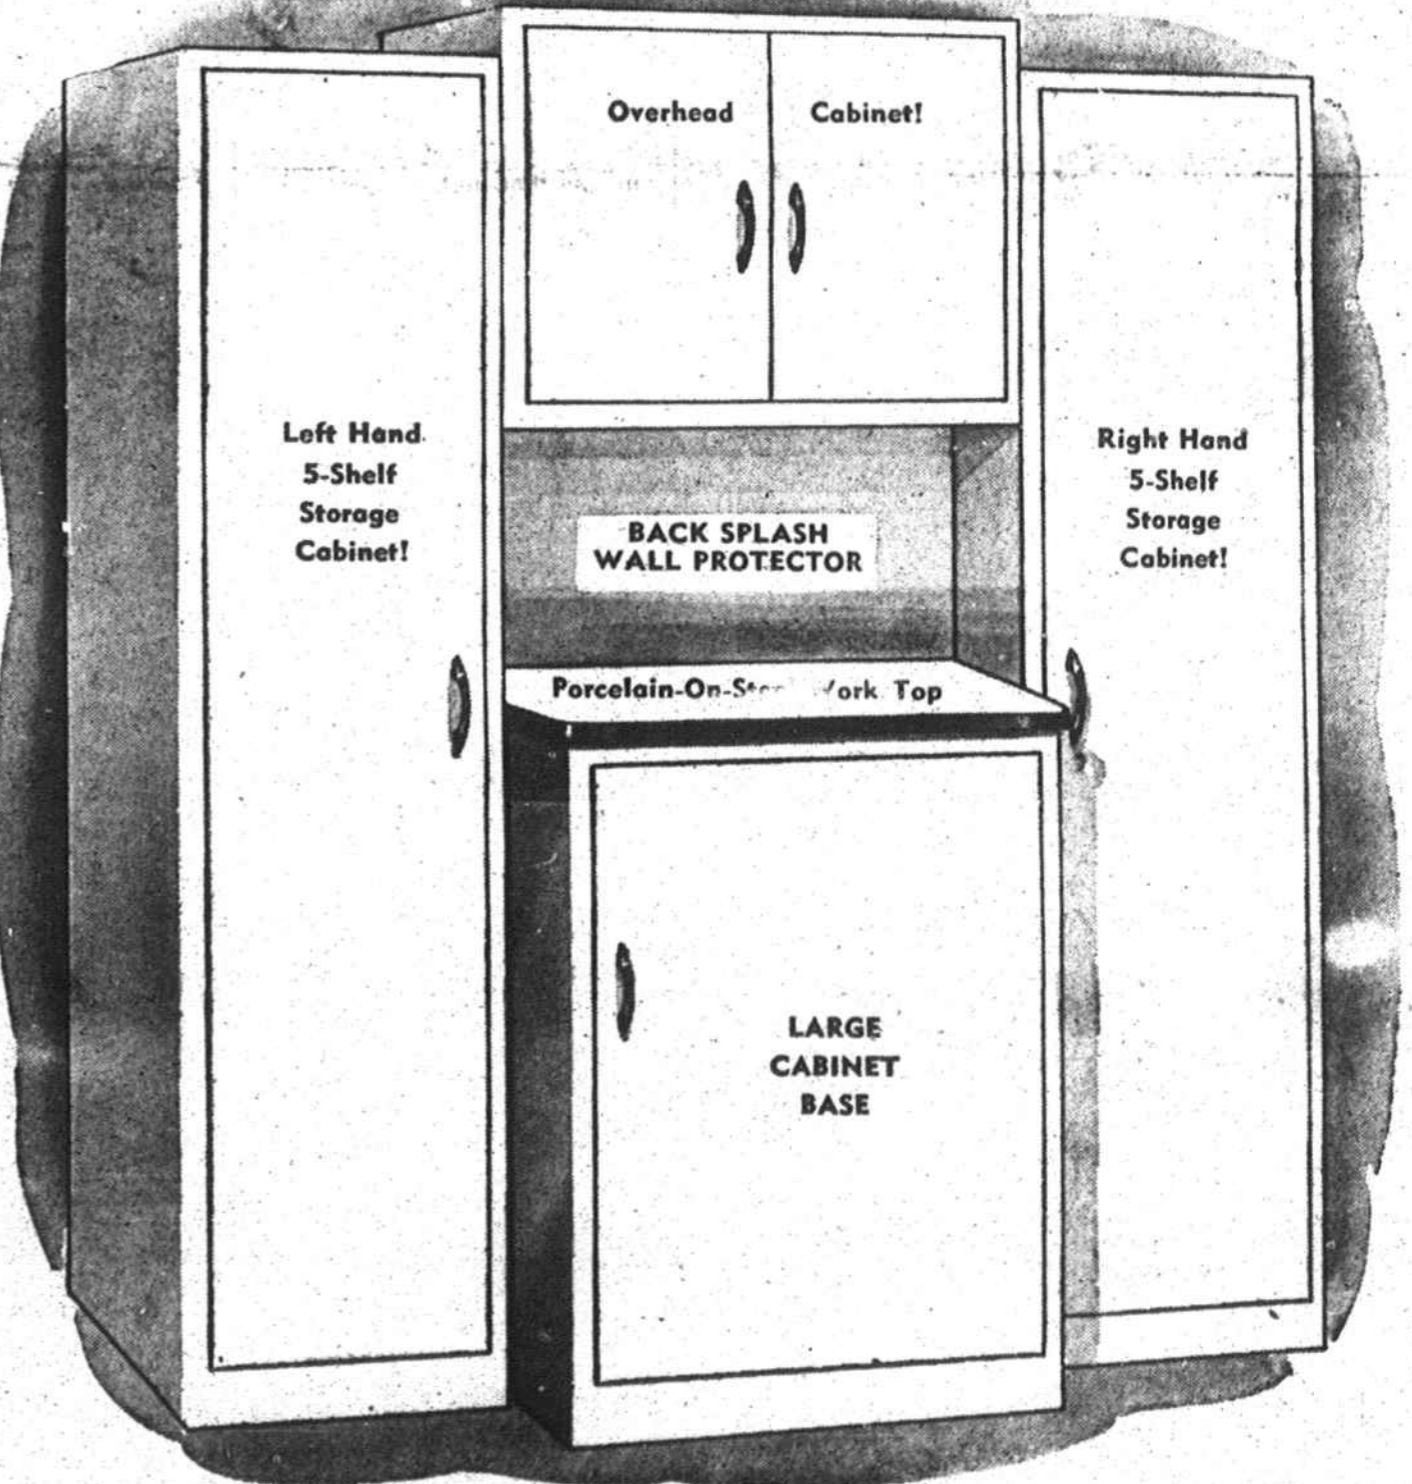

VALUES GALORE AT BELK'S

TABLE REMNANTS Priced low to start with NOW 1/2 Price	COTTON CRINKLE BED SPREADS Double-bed Size $1.98	WOMEN'S SUEDE DRESS SHOES Splendid selection NOW ONLY 1/2 Price	Hanes Winter Weight UNION SUITS For Men $1.98
80-SQUARE NEW PRINTS New patterns, fast colors 39c yd.	GROUP WOMEN'S WINTER DRESSES Good selection. All sizes 1/2 Price	WOMEN'S SLIPS and HALF SLIPS Cotton with deep embroidered Trim—SPECIAL $1.79 2 for $3.50	MEN'S TIES $1 and $1.50 values 59c 2 for $1.00
MEN'S Undershirts and T-Shirts A Bargain 39c	COSTUME JEWELRY Good Assortment 1/2 Price	GROUP LADIES' Winter HATS $1.00	TABLE Women's SHOES Values to $5.95. SALE— $1.98
HOSE Reigning Beauty, Full-Fashioned, first quality. $1 Hose — SPECIAL— 69c pair	MEN'S OXFORDS by Peters. Values $7.95 & $9.95. Now— $4.77	Men's Shorts Sizes 28-40. If perfect would be 79c. Sale Price 59c— 2 for $1.00	GROUP MEN'S ARROW Dress Shirts Fancy patterns. $3.98 value $2.77

Sterchi's January Special! Save $10 Now

On This Sparkling White

5-pc. All Metal Kitchen Ensemble!

- There's Room for Everything!
- Has Noiseless Doors!
 - It's Mouse and Rat Proof!
 - Modern Styling Matches Appliances!
 - Easy-to-Clean Rust Proof!
 - Snow White Enamel Finish!

was $69.95, now $59.95

$1. DOWN!

EXTRA! Matching Medicine Cabinet with every purchase of this ensemble FREE!
Regularly $4.95 value

IT COSTS LESS AT—Sterchi's
THE SOUTH'S LARGEST HOME FURNISHERS
PHONE 348 • MOUNTAIN ST.

Belk's Department Store

Home of Better Values