"For we are laborers together with God"—Faul. Willis Smith, Negro, and Nath-aniel Sweat, Negro, plead not guilty in Recorders court Monday afternoon, Smith not guilty to speeding 80 miles an hour in a 35 mile zane, and Sweat not guilty to aiding and abetting in speeding. Smith was caught speeding while driving a vehicle belonging to Sweat, Judge Jack White found the defendant White White found the defendant Willis Smith guilty as charged, and Nathaniel Sweat not guilty as charg-ed. Sweat stated on the witness stand that he asked Smith to stop when he realized that officer's were signaling for them to stop. Willis Smith was given a 4 months sentence, suspended on condi-tion that he pay a $35 fine and cost of court. The defendant's drivers license were also revoked by the state.

A new warrant for public drunkenness against J. B. Burris, Negro, who was to be tried on two similiar counts, was issued by Judge White. Burris appeared intoxicated in court to answer the counts. Judge White also sentenced the defendant to 5 days in city jail for contempt of court to be served immediately.

Rowland Moss plead not guilty to the count of violating prohibition laws for beverage purposes. The defendant said on the witness stand that he was in the Horseshoe Grill when someone handed him a pint bottle to inspect and that he did not drink any of the contents and after inspecting the bottle handed it back, Judge White continued prayer for judgement for 30 days,
