ting following the church rehearsal for the Lee - Yarborough wedding in the Baptist church of Boiling Springs.

Miss Lee wore a gray taffeta dress with white sequin trim and shoulder corsage of pink carnations, gift of the hosts, which was presented to her on her arrival.

The refreshment table, overlaid with a white imported linen cloth, was centered with a threetiered white wedding cake and flanked by triple silver candelabrum, which held white lighted tapers. Ivy and white gladioli decorated the brides' table and the table which held the punch bowl. An arrangement of allwhite carnations and bridegroom figurines in a white satin-covered bow! was used in decoration the entrance hall.
