Wedding Party Feted At Friday Cake Cutting

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett E. Ross entertained at a cake-cutting complimenting members of the Ross-Crawford wedding party Friday evening following the church rehearsal for the wedding at their home on Linwood road.

Miss Ross wore an aqua blue dress of silk shantung with three-quarter length sleeves and trimmed in beads and rhinestones at the neck. She wore at her shoulder a bronze orchid corsage.

The refreshment table, overlaid with a white cutwork cloth, was centered with a wedding cake and flanked on each side by a three-branched candelabra holding white lighted tapers. A miniature wedding cake topped with bride and groom figurines was set at one end of the table, and trays of salted nuts and homemade mints were placed on the table.

After the bride and groom had cut the first piece of cake, Mrs. J. E. Mauney cut and served the cake to the guests.

Mrs. T. J. Ellison poured punch from a silver punch bowl set on a side table, overlaid with a white cloth, and decorated with fern and ivy. Mrs. Wesley Riddle, Mrs. Plato Heavner, Miss Doris Riddle, Mrs. D. C. Payseur, Jr., Mrs. Bill McGinnis, Mrs. Wallace Shockley, Mrs. Bobby Ware, and Mrs. Joe Hendrick assisted in serving refreshments.

An arrangement of chrysanthemums and fern was used as a centerpiece for the mantel. Three candles in silver candleholders were used at each side of the mantel.

Other floral arrangements were used on the buffet, and an arrangement of tulips and gladioli was used on the register table, where Mrs. Andy Huffstetter kept the guest register.

Forty-two guests, including members of the two families, the wedding party, and out-of-town relatives and friends attended.

Birthday Dinner Sunday Complimented Frank White

Mrs. Frank White entertained at a surprise birthday dinner Sunday complimenting her husband, who was celebrating his 34th birthday anniversary.

Dinner was served at 12 o'clock in the dining room of the home, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. A birthday cake was used as a centerpiece for the dinner table.

Places were set for Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Murphy and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hullender and Bobby Hullender, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hullender and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ledford and children, Mrs. Ralph Hullender and son, H. H. White, Mrs. W. C. Ledford, and Mr. and Mrs. White.

Mr. White was the recipient of many nice and useful gifts, which he opened and displayed to his guests.

Mrs. Jimmy Willis Bridge Club Hostess

Friday Afternoon Bridge club members met last week with Mrs. Jimmy Willis as hostess at her home.

Guests invited to play, in addition to club members were Mrs. L. E. Abbott and Mrs. Howard Jackson.

Mrs. Bruce Thorburn was high score winner in bridge for the afternoon, and Mrs. Bruce McDaniel won the club's second-high award.

During progressions, the hostess served a dessert course with coffee. Bowls of jonquills and other spring flowers were used in decoration throughout the home.

Two Are Hostesses At Party Saturday

Mrs. Ray Childers, of Kings Mountain, and Mrs. Clarence Wright, of Grover, entertained at the home of Mrs. D. A. Wright in Grover Saturday evening at a household bridal shower paying compliment to Mrs. Bobby Bowen of Grover, a recent bride.

Games were directed throughout the evening, and prizes presented to winners in games. Refreshments consisting of open-faced sandwiches, cake, peaches topped with whipped cream, and coffee, were served.

Mrs. Bowen was presented with a shower of household gifts from the guests attending the party. She is the former Miss Betty Gilliams of Kings Mountain.

Training Courses Taught At Presbyterian Meeting

Leadership Training courses were taught Women of the Church of First Presbyterian church here in meeting last Tuesday night.

Mrs. R. L. Ellis of Spindale conducted a course for historians. Mrs. P. D. Patrick was teacher of a course on "World Missions", and Mrs. Paul Mauney and other workers taught special courses.

Mrs. E. T. Plott, president of the church woman's organization of First Presbyterian church, offered the opening prayer and welcomed the group.

Following the meeting, a social hour was enjoyed in the church Fellowship Hall. Coffee and cookies were passed by members of the hostess church.

Torok - White Vows Exchanged

Miss Marian Torok of Lansing, Michigan and Fred A. White, USN, of Charleston, S. C., and Kings Mountain were united in marriage in a simple ceremony at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Hudie Randolph, in Gaffney, S. C., Saturday evening at 7 o'clock.

The Reverend William P. Gerberding, D. D., pastor of Saint Matthews Lutheran church, heard the couple pledge vows of the single-ring rites before an improvised marriage altar in the living room of the home.

Houston Smith, of Kings Mountain, attended the groom as best man.

For her wedding, the bride wore a two-piece navy blue suit with navy and winter white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with a white purple-throated orchid showered with white satin streamers.

Mrs. D. L. White, the groom's mother, wore a black suit with black and white accessories. Mrs. J. P. Miller, of Kings Mountain, Mrs. Marvin Davis and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bailey, the groom's grandparents, all of Gaffney, S. C., attended the ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Torok of Lansing, Michigan, is a graduate of Lansing city schools and is employed in the offices of Farm Insurance Bureau, in Lansing.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. White of Kings Mountain, attended Kings Mountain high school and has served with the US Navy for the past three years. He is stationed temporarily at the Charleston Naval Base, Charleston, S. C., where the couple will be at home.

American Legion Auxiliary Held Meeting On Thursday

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary met Thursday night at the home of Mrs. D. E. Tate on Wells street with Mrs. Sam Collins and Mrs. C. L. Black as co-hostesses.

A devotional was led by Mrs. Black, chaplain, at the beginning of the meeting, and Mrs. Clarence L. Jolly, president, conducted the business session.

Regular "poppy sale" conducted by the Auxiliary will be conducted, Mrs. Jolly announced, on May 29. Auxiliary members voted to purchase 2,000 poppies to sell. Mrs. Eugene Steffy was welcomed by the group as a new member.

Mrs. F. R. McCurdy, program chairman, had arranged a quiz program on "Flag Etiquette" and "The Constitution."

During the social hour, the hostesses passed dessert plates of cherry pie and tea.

Two Are Hostesses At Shower Thursday

Mrs. Joe McDaniel and Mrs. M. A. Hill were hostesses Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Hill at a bridal party and shower paying compliment to Miss Frances Lee of Bolling Springs, whose marriage to Tommy Yarborough of Kings Mountain took place Sunday.

The bride-elect wore a purple velvet dress with matching accessories and a shoulder corsage of pink split carnations, gift from the hostesses.

Games were enjoyed throughout the evening and prizes presented to winners in the games. Yellow jonquills and bowls of snapdragons were used in decoration throughout the home.

Decorated cake squares, ice cream in ginger ale, salted nuts, and potato chips were served, and Miss Lee was presented a shower of household gifts from the 36 guests making up the party list.

Hostesses' gift to the honoree was a gift of household linen.
