

Central Quint Dumps Lincolnton To Tie For First Place

Hand Wolves Second Loss By 47-41; Sextet Drops Opening Game 90-45

Kings Mountain high school's boys handed Lincolnton its second loss of the season at Lincolnton Friday night to go into a first place tie with the Wolves in South Group, Western AA Conference standings. The score was 47-41 in the torrid feature, but Lincolnton gained a split in the twin bill as its undefeated sextet took the opener 90-45.

The Mountaineers went into the lead early in the boys scrap and, although tied six times during the next 8 minutes, "scratched off" to an 8-point advantage, 23-15, at the half and were never headed.

Ollie Harris, big gun for Kings Mountain with 20 points for the evening, started the scoring with a free throw but Don Chapman stole the ball and passed in to John Dysart for the first field goal of the game to put the losers ahead at 12.

Darrell Bost stole the ball again and passed in to Emmett Michael for a drive-in basket to put Lincolnton out front 14-4. The losers were playing a zone press defense and used it to good advantage in the opening minutes.

Harris added another free toss and Milton Hope hit a push shot from outside to pull Kings Mountain even at 4-all. Harris' third straight charity toss put the Mountaineers out front for the first time at 5-4.

The next 8 minutes of action was torrid, with Kings Mountain breaking away on an 8-point scoring spree during the latter half of the second period while holding the Wolves scoreless.

Dysart intercepted a pass after Harris had controlled a Lincolnton rebound but Harris again came down with the ball off the losers' backboard, Bost intercepted another pass but the Mountaineers' defense held. Hope fouled Dysart, who made his second shot on a one-and-one to tie it up at 5-all.

Richard George put Kings Mountain back in business but Dysart bucketed a rebound after three Lincolnton misses to run the count to 7-all. Bost matched Hope's field goal with his favorite shot, a two-handed jump push from the side, to do it up at 9-all. Harris' fourth straight free throw gave Kings Mountain a 10-9 advantage at the end of the first quarter.

Harris added the second of two free shots but fouled Clifton Link a few seconds later, Link sinking both shots to run the string to 11-all. Ronnie Layton hit a goal but Dysart followed with a long hook to move the score to 13-13. George's set-shot goal was matched by Bost's two free throws to knot the count at 15-all and set the stage for Kings Mountain's game-winning effort.

George, who had 11 points in the game, started the scoring streak with a foul shot. Layton took down a rebound on a long set-shot miss by Ernie Lippard and took a pass from Harris for a drive-in goal. Layton intercepted a Lincolnton pass and Bost fouled George, who made both shots. Hope made his second shot on a 1-and-L. Harris controlled a rebound off the Lincolnton board and took a pass from Hope on a rebound play under the Kings Mountain board to add the final goal of the first half.

In the second half, Kings Mountain ran up an 11-point advantage but Lincolnton Coach Frank King pulled out Dysart, his big center,

Central Teams Drop 3 Games At Lincolnton

Kings Mountain high dropped a triple-header at Lincolnton last Thursday, the boys "B" team losing 56-51, the "B" girls falling short at 55-33 and the boys freshman team taking a 50-32 licking.

Ronnie Cole paced the "B" boys effort with 18 points, Pete Falls had 12 and Jerry McCarter 11. Kings Mountain jumped off to a quick lead, 15-8 at the first turn, and was ahead at the half 32-20. The winners came back in an hour-long second half to win, after trailing at the end of the third period 43-35.

Butchie Houser hit the cords for 17 points to pace the "B" girls but the potent Lincolnton sextet proved too much as the winners started out with a 20-8 advantage at the end of the first eight minutes.

John McGinnis paced the fresh-

Davidson Wins Two From Cleveland High

Bethware Girls Win In Double Overtime

Bethware's girls took a double overtime thriller from Polkville at the Bethware gym February 16 by a score of 49-47 as the visiting boys won by one point, 43-42, to gain a split.

Polkville's lassies closed strong to catch up with Bethware, who had led for the first three periods and the count at the end of the regulation game was 39-41.

In the first overtime, the two teams swapped goals and closed at 43-41. Laura Morris hit the winning basket for Bethware near the end of the second overtime to nail down the win.

Morris had 31 points for the evening, Jeanelle Anthony had 14 and Lib Bolla, four.

Polkville led most of the way in the boys game, Bethware catching up late in the final period but failing to hold. Ken Yarboro, lanky sub center, paced the scoring with 16 points and Jack Barrett had 8.

BETHWARE CAGER — Ralph Hord, above, was a mainstay on the Bethware boys varsity team this season. The club finished the season at Shelby Community Center last Thursday night, losing a county loop tournament game to Fallston by 57-31. Hord will be back for another season. Bethware finished with two wins in 22 starts but should be strong next season. (Herald photo by Carlisle Studio.)
