Lee-Yarborough Vows Exchanged Sunday In Church Ceremony In Boiling Springs

Miss Frances Lee of Boiling Springs and Tommy Yarborough of Kings Mountain pledged marriage vows in an impressive double-ring ceremony Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock before the altar of First Baptist church of Boiling Springs.

The Reverend John S. Farrar, pastor of the bride, officiated before an altar background of Oregon and plumosus fern and five floor - candelabrum holding white lighted cathedral tapers. Three altar baskets of white spider chrysanthemums and white snapdragons were used at each side of the altar, and family pews were bow-marked with sprays of plumosus fern tied with white satin ribbon.

A program of nuptial wedding music was presented prior to and during the exchange of vows by Miss Virginia Huggins, organist, and Mrs. Bobby White, vocal-so-

Daughters Of Wesley Held Meeting Friday

Members of the Daughters of the Wesley Central Methodist church met Friday for a business meeting at the home of Mrs. W. R. Craig, Jr., with Mrs. J. R. Davis and Mrs. D. L. Saunders as co-hostesses.

Mrs. C. T. Carpenter, vice-chairman, presided in the absence of Mrs. C. L. Jolly, president. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved and routine business discussed.

During the social hour, the hostess passed a salaaj plate with sandwiches, cherry tarts, and tea. Twenty-three members attended the meeting.

with orange blossoms, and she carried a white Bible topped with a white purple-throated orchid and showered with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Tommy Willis of Richmond, Va., sister of the bridegroom, attended the bride as matron-of-honor, and Miss Ann Jones and Miss Sarah Rollins, both of Boiling Springs, Mrs. Reid Bell, and Mrs. Joe McDaniel, both of Kings Mountain, were bridesmaids.

Rita Bell of Kings Mountain served as flower girl, and Ronald Hamrick of Boiling Springs was ring-bearer and carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

The attendants wore dresses of lace and net over taffeta styled with bouffant skirts and strapless lace bodices with bolero jackets. The matron of honor wore pink and the bridesmaid attendants and flower girl were gownned in lilac. They wore long mitts to match their gowns and carried muffs of matching ruffled net and carried nosegays of pink roses tied with lilac ribbons. The ringbearer wore a white dress suit.

Haywood Yarborough of Kings Mountain attended his nephew as best-man, and usher - groomsmen included Eddie Yarborough, cousin of the bridegroom, and Reid Bell, both of Kings Mountain. Robert Evans and Jim Fayssoux, both of Gastonia.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lee had selected a dress of aqua silk with matching accessories and a cluster of roses worn at her shoulder.

Mrs. Tom Yarborough, mother of the bridegroom, wore a rose crepe gown with matching accessories and a shoulder corsage of white rosebuds.

After the ceremony, the couple received their guests in the church vestibule.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lee of Boiling Springs, is a graduate of Boiling Springs high school and is employed in Kings Mountain by Mauney Hosley Mills, Inc.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Yarborough of Gastonia, former residents of Kings Mountain, served with the Armed Forces for two years in Korea and has made his home here since his discharge from service, with Mr. and Mrs. Haywood Yarborough. He is employed in Gastonia by the A and P Food Stores.

After a Florida wedding trip, the couple will be at home on Shelby road, in Kings Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Arthur and Mrs. Winston D. Miller, the latter of Burlington, leave Friday for New Orleans and Baton Rouge La., where Mrs. Miller will visit relatives for several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur plan to return home via Florida, where they will visit friends.

Miss Pearl Hicks, Veteran Eagle Clerk, Honored At Party By Store Personnel

Miss Pearl Hicks, veteran sales clerk at Eagles Stores, Inc., was honored at a dinner party last Thursday evening in the private dining room of New South Restaurant.

Miss Hicks is retiring after 30 years of service with Eagles' Stores.

Decorations in the dining room were in yellow with the honor-ee's place marked with a corsage of yellow split carnations. A basket of yellow snapdragons, jonquils, acacia, and fern was used as a centerpiece for the table.

Before the chicken dinner, pictures were made. L. C. Miller, district superintendent, gave the invocation.

F. H. Shook, of the Charlotte office of Eagles Stores, presented Miss Hicks with a Bible of the Kings James Version, a clock radio, a string of pearls with matching pin from the Eagle's store here, and other gifts, which he presented on behalf of the chain of Eagles Stores.

Program speakers were Mr. Miller, Mr. Shook, I. J. Terry, manager of Eagle's Stores, in Shelby, A. V. Marshall, manager of Eagle's stores, in Belmont, and Mrs. Sue P. Young, manager of the local store, who complimented Miss Hicks on her outstanding, loyal, and faithful service throughout the years she had been a member of the sales force at Eagle's store here.

Covers were laid for Miss Pearl Hicks, F. H. Shook, A. V. Marshall, I. J. Terry, L. C. Miller, Miss Sylvia Burton, Miss Barbara Smith, Miss Joyce Dalton, Miss Helen Nicholson, Mrs. Ann Moss, Miss Doris Hope, and Mrs. Sue P. Young.
