Lions Members Are Continuing Broom Selling

Members of the Kings Mountain Lions club are continuing this weekend their annual Broom Sale for the benefit of the blind.

The Lions are offering for sale brooms, at $1.50, and rubber doormats, at $2.50, both items manufactured by blind persons at Greensboro.

Proceeds are used by the Lions here to further their work in sight conservation, including purchase of glasses for the indigent and aid to totally blind persons as well.

J. W. Webster, chairman of the sale, said results the first weekend selling were quite good.

"However, we still have a big inventory and we want to sell everything we have on hand," Mr. Webster added.

C. E. Warlick Insurance Agency is the broom and mat warehouse.

The Flue-Cured Tobacco Cooperative Stabilization Corporation received 10.73 per cent of 1953-crop tobacco from all belts.

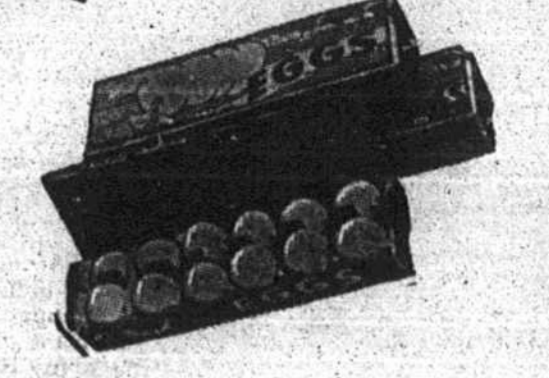

D. B. Blalock was in Greensboro several days this week on a business trip.

GOOD ADVICE From the North Carolina Merchants Association

"—Experience has shown that average, down-to-earth advertising carefully planned and carried on a regular basis outpulls the so-called brilliant advertising run in a haphazard, spasmodic manner."*
