First Baptist YWA
Held Meeting Thursday

Members of the YWA of First Baptist church met at the church Thursday night for their regular monthly meeting. Miss Lynn Baker offered the opening prayer. Miss Pat Henderson, vice-president, called the meeting to order and presided over the business session in the absence of Miss Norma Lee Sipes, president. Miss Lyvonne Lindsay, program chairman for the meeting, was in charge of the program, which was entitled, "The Duties of Each YWA Member." She also gave the devotional. Miss Kay Henderson gave the "Duties of the Secretary and Treasurer" and Miss Pat Henderson discussed, "The Duties of Vice-President." Miss Joan Thomasson discussed, "The Duties of the Community Missions Chairman," and Mrs. James Watson, leader of the group, discussed other phases of GA work. The group voted to give monthly to the Sunbeam organization, and members closed their meeting with prayer. Thirteen members and three visitors attended the meeting. Miss Pat Freeman was welcomed as a new member. During the social hour, Miss Joan Thomasson and Miss Melba Tindall passed cookies, colas, and nuts. Miss Baker will be hostess at the May meeting of the group.

Mrs. L. C. Parsons
Circle Hostess Monday

Mrs. L. C. Parsons was hostess to members of Circle No. 5 of First Presbyterian church when the group held its regular monthly meeting Monday afternoon. Mrs. H. N. Moss, circle chairman, presided over the meeting and presented the Bible study from the Book of Acts in the absence of the Bible teacher, Mrs. P. D. Patrick. A program for the meeting was given by Mrs. E. A. Harrill, program chairman for the meeting, and during the social hour following the meeting, Mrs. Parsons was assisted in serving a dessert course. Seven members and one visitor, Mrs. O. C. O'Farrell, attended the meeting.

Junior Woman's Club Held Meeting Monday

Members of the Kings Mountain Junior Woman's club met Monday night for their regular meeting at the Woman's club house, reviewed club projects for last year, and heard a program on "Public Welfare." Mrs. Franklin Pethel, program chairman, presented the program, and Mrs. Denver King, club president, presided. Year projects of the club, as reviewed by the president, were contributions to support of: 1) Caswell Training School; 2) Children's Home Society; 3) Bible teacher in city schools; and 4) Restoration of Independence Hall. Club members conducted a house-to-house canvass for the March of Dimes, sold stamps for wounded veterans, and collected clothing to be distributed by the Welfare department. Nine members of the club were appointed delegates to attend the State convention of Junior clubs to be held at the Biltmore Hotel in Asheville April 27-30. Mrs. King, Mrs. Clyde Bridges, Mrs. James Jones, Mrs. D. W. Blanton, Mrs. G. C. Yelton, Miss Diana Gamble, Mrs. W. R. Hudspeth, Mrs. Furman Wilson, and Mrs. J. B. Falls are to attend the three-day session. Plans were made to complete club scrapbooks to enter in contest at the convention in Asheville and plans were completed for a cake sale to be conducted by the club on Saturday, April 17. A committee was appointed to assist the Woman's club at the District meeting of all woman's clubs to be held at the Kings Mountain club in September. The May meeting of the club is to be held at the Hotel Barringer in Charlotte. Mrs. Ralph Harkey is guest speaker. Hostesses for Monday night's meeting were Mrs. E. R. Goter, Mrs. W. R. Hudspeth, and Mrs. W. M. Eldon. Mrs. Frances Hord Petty was welcomed as a new member, and Mrs. DeVere Smith was a visitor.

Members of Circle No. 4 of First Presbyterian church met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Paul Mauney on Grover rd. Thirteen members attended the meeting. Mrs. Paul Mauney, Bible leader, presented the Bible study from the Book of Acts, and Mrs. W. T. Harrison, program chairman for the meeting, gave a program on "Evangelism." Miss Helen Hay, circle chairman, presided over the business session. Routine business was discussed. Spring flower arrangements were used throughout the home. Miss Pauline Mauney, of Salisbury, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mauney.

Members of Circle III of Central Methodist church held their regular monthly meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Pat Tignor on East King street. At the beginning of the meeting, a social hour was enjoyed and the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Florence Hill in serving a salad and sweet course with Russian tea. A miniature basket of Easter eggs decorated each plate. Mrs. E. B. Olive gave the devotional on "Christ's Farewell Sermon" before a program presented by Mrs. M. H. Biser. Mrs. Olive, circle chairman, presided over the business session. Members adjourned their meeting with prayer. The home was decorated with arrangements of spring flowers.
