Warlicks Scored Third In Winners' Game Tuesday

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Warlick of Kings Mountain were third place winners in the special winners game held last Tuesday at Gaston Country Club. The Howell movement was used. Silver trophies were awarded to Dr. A. C. Current, Jr. and B. C. Morrow, both of Gastonia, and other bridge winners were Mrs. H. V. Andrews and Mrs. J. W. Stott, Charlotte, second, Mrs. Mart S. Reid and Harry Falls, fourth, and Mrs. J. M. Gayle and Mrs. Edward Summerrow, Jr.

Mrs. J. D. Montgomery and three children of Criti, Nebraska, are visiting several weeks in the home of Mrs. Vergie Blackwell here.

National Antiques Show To Be Held In Gastonia

The Eighth National Antiques Show and Sale sponsored by the Gastonia Pilot club will be held in three-day session this year from April 26-28 at the Armory in Gastonia.

Announcement was made by The Russells of Lenoir, who originated the show and who are in charge of exhibits. Mrs. Everette Jones is in charge of ticket sales for the event. Reduced priced complimentary tickets are available and season tickets will be sold at the door as well as regular admission tickets.

Doors will open at 11 a. m. each day and will close at 10 each evening. Door prizes will be presented each evening.

Eastern Star Chapter To Observe Anniversary

Miss Jo Ann Smartt Wed Wednesday To Robert O. Hord In Home Rites

Miss Jo Ann Smartt of Cleveland, Ohio, and Robert O. Hord of Kings Mountain and Cleveland, Ohio, pledged marriage vows in an impressive ceremony at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hord, here Wednesday evening, April 14, at eight o'clock.

The Reverend Richard W. Hord, brother of the groom and pastor of Mount Vernon Baptist church of Vale, officiated, and heard the couple exchange vows of the double ring ritual. Vows were spoken before an improvised marriage altar in the living room of the home. All-white arrangements of tulips, snapdragons, candy tuff, dogwood, and bridal spira were used in decoration in the ceremony and throughout the home.

For her wedding, the bride wore birthday anniversary of the club and all chapter members are urged to attend the birthday party. Time of the meeting is 7:30.

It's Time Now To Prepare Woolens For Summer Storage

With the weather warming up, you may not feel like talking or thinking woolens; but according to Mamie Whisnant, State College home management specialist, now is the time to plan storage of woolen blankets and bedding.

If you're washing wool blankets this spring or other woolen clothing, for that matter—try using the easy soak method for getting them clean. According to Miss Whisnant, this simple procedure will save you both time and energy, and it will save shrinkage of those woolen materials.

Here is the blanket-washing method developed by United States Department of Agriculture specialists which will save shrinkage: submerge blanket in water in which a detergent is dissolved and allow to soak for 15 to 20 minutes. Then turn blanket over once or twice, spin off water and refill machine for rinsing. The rinse, too, is done simply by soaking—no operation of the machine. Soak in rinse water for
