Cash receipts from the sale of cattle and calves in North Carolina during 1953 showed a 10 per cent gain over the previous year.

North Carolina soils need about 4,000,000 tons of lime for top production; another 1,000,000 tons will be required annually.

COMMISSIONER—June F. Scarborough, of Statesville, is the commissioner of the twelfth highway division, which embraces Cleveland and five neighboring counties. Mr. Scarborough was in Kings Mountain Friday conferring with citizens on highway matters.

Iredell Citizen June Scarborough Heads Six-County Highway Division

RALEIGH — As commissioner of the Twelfth State Highway division, June F. Scarborough directs the state's road maintenance and construction program in Alexander, Catawba, Cleveland, Gaston, Iredell, and Lincoln counties.

A year ago Governor Umstead named Scarborough along with thirteen other business men to serve a four-year term in the newly created fourteen-division State Highway Commission. Umstead appointed A. H. (Sandy) Graham chairman of the Commission.

Since his appointment a year ago, he has traveled extensively in his division. In an effort to bring the state's road program closer to the people, Scarborough has regularly met with various groups of city and county commissioners in his division. He has held many public meetings and hearings where road needs and problems are aired.

He is familiar with the duties of public service as he has been Chairman of the Iredell County Board of Welfare since 1952. In 1950, he was honored by his fellow citizens when he was named "Man of the Year" by the Statesville Civitan Club. Scarborough is past-president of the Statesville Kiwanis Club.

The Commissioner was born June 6, 1903, in Star. He is the son of Lillie Leach and the late George N. Scarborough. He was graduated from Biscoe high school and then studied at old Trinity College (Duke) in Durham. July 15, 1939, he was married to Alice Elizabeth Lentz, of Salisbury. They have a teenage son, J. Fielding Scarborough, Jr., and a stepson, Franklin F. Smith, Jr.

The Scarboroughs are members of the Broad Street Methodist church in Statesville. The Commissioner is a well-

Compact Principal Heads Fraternity

GASTONIA — The Epsilon Chapter of the Omega Psi Phi fraternity has announced the winners of its 1954 scholarships, made available to deserving high school seniors in five North Carolina high schools. Winners are Ellazon Sanders Campbell of the John Chavis High School, Cherryville, valedictorian of his class; Joan Delrose Miller, class valedictorian of the Lincoln Heights High School, Wilkesboro; Bobbie Alene Roberts, valedictorian of her class at Lincoln Academy, Kings Mountain; Clara Bell Johnson, valedictorian of her class at the Kings Mountain High School.

This year marked the fourth year of scholarship awards by Epsilon Upsilon Chapter, with the total value of this and previous years amounting to $875.00. In addition the chapter has given more than $300 in special awards and prizes in connection with its annual talent hunt program. The chapter has concentrated its efforts on securing scholarships for worthy students because it feels that the talented and gifted students in our high schools need encouragement and stimulation in order that they might develop to the extent of their abilities. The chapter also feels that, for the most part, the matter of scholarship aid for worthy students is a neglected area on the local level. Therefore the group is doing its part to contribute to the welfare and future of these young people.

AT HIGH SCHOOL SATURDAY — Cecil Campbell, with Roy Lear and his Tennessee Ramblers, will appear in a TV show at Central school auditorium Saturday night. Doors open at 7:15, and the show is sponsored by the Methodist Youth Fellowship of Grace Methodist church.

Accident Deaths In Summer Now Total 8,600

"During July and August about 8,600 people are killed in the United States in automobile and water accidents," Dr. Charles Cameron, Chief, Accident Prevention Section, North Carolina State Board of Health, of Raleigh, said today.

That's 135 a day or one every ten minutes according to National Safety Council estimates.

About three-fourths of these deaths are due to motor vehicle accidents and nearly a fourth result from drownings.

To guard against the hazards of heavy vacation travel and recreational activities, Dr. Cameron offered these tips to summer vacationers:

1. Plan your trip so that you can make it in short, easy stages. Start early. Don't drive when you're tired. Stop in time to get a good night's rest. Stop occasionally during the trip to stretch and relax.
2. Drive carefully. Because they may be different than those you are used to, watch highway signs and obey them. Adjust your speed to conditions — slow down in wet weather and after dark. Never pass on curves or hills.
3. Take your swimming, sunning and boating in easy doses. Vacations are for recreation, not for muscle cramps, sunburn and heat exhaustion.
4. Swim near the shore in patrolled areas.
5. If the area is not patrolled, find out about water purity, depth and under water obstructions. Never dive into unknown waters.
6. Don't take a boat out in threatening weather.
7. Don't overload a boat or change positions in deep water. Horseplay in a boat is taboo.

Grain sorghum, or Milo, is a good drought-resistant summer feed crop and is often used in North Carolina as a catch crop following failure of early seeded crops.
