long illness. She had lived in Kings Mountain for seven years and made her home with a niece, Mrs. Ruth McDaniel at 2 E. Ridge st. Surviving are: one son, Clyde Hudson of Detroit Michigan; one sister, Mrs. Mammie Moore of Grover; five grandchildren; several nieces and nephews. Funeral services will be held Friday at Pine Grove Baptist church in Blacksburg, S. C. at 2:30 o'clock. Burial will follow in the church cemetery.

"The average person is generally a well behaved, courteous and considerate individual at home or among his friends," Mr. Outlaw said. "But sometimes, he becomes a heel behind the wheel when he stomps the accelerator. That sort of driving is costly in lives of innocent people, certainly defeating the purpose of the thoughtful 'Eager Beaver' drive. Whoever said that 'Haste Makes Waste' certainly hit the nail on the head."

Mr. Outlaw pointed out that the trucking industry is waging an unceasing campaign to keep drivers of trucks conscious that "Safety and Courtesy on the roads are necessary tools of the professional."

"Our drivers are learning that courtesy is contagious," he continued. "They find that a decent driving act by one motorist will be returned and passed on to others. This matter of making Courtesy a Code of the Road is spreading, and it is the aim of the trucking industry to keep it spreading."

Those receiving gold basketballs were Joyce McDowell, Freedom Moore, Margaret Turner, Lorraine Adams, Charles M. Mitchem, Roy Quinn, Harold Roberts and Bobby Bell. Joyce McDowell and Lorraine Adams were selected the best girl players, and Charles Mitchem and Roy Quinn the best boy players.

The class motto was "Opportunity Plus Ability Equals Success." The class colors were pink and green, and the class flower was pink carnation. The senior advisor is Mrs. T. M. Brooks.

He leaves to mourn him a father, a son, two sisters, three brothers, and a host of relatives and friends. Music was furnished by the Junior choir. The deceased lived in Detroit, Mich.

Miss Mae Ellen Burris, a former graduate, and a member of the class of 1947, of Compact high school gave the school a 15 volume set of Richardson's Topical encyclopedias. She is now a registered nurse at the Asheboro hospital, in Asheboro. The entire community wishes to express its appreciation to her for this gift.

The annual Class Day exercise was held Tuesday at 2 p. m. The program was given in the form of a radio broadcast. Alberta Adams was the announcer. There were selections by the senior class quartet and the senior class trip. The members of the quartet were Bobby Bell, Roy Quinn, Harold Roberts, and Charles Mitchem. The members of the trio were Eleanor Jackson, Lorraine Adams and Bethel Smith. Two very good monologues were rendered by Joyce McDowell and Bobby Bell.
