Allison-Moss Vows Exchanged

Miss Vera Mae Allison of Gaffney, S. C., and Forrest Earl Moss, Jr., of Kings Mountain were married Saturday evening at 7 o'clock at the parsonage of the East Side Baptist church in Gaffney.

Vows of the double-ring ceremony were exchanged. The couple entered the room unattended.

For her wedding, the bride wore a white street-length dress, lace trimmed, with white hat and fingertip veil of silk bridal illusion. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and showered with white ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Moss is the daughter of A. J. Allison of Gaffney, S. C., and the late Mrs. Allison. Mr. Moss is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Moss of Kings Mountain.

Only the immediate families attended the ceremony. After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will be at home on Morris street here.

Miss Helen Penson Wed Sunday At Noon To Charles Guyton In Church Ceremony

Miss Helen Penson of Bostic and Charles Guyton of Kings Mountain pledged marriage vows in an impressive ceremony before the altar of the Baptist church of Bostic Sunday at 12 o'clock noon.

The Reverend Coit E. Auten, pastor of the bride, heard the couple exchange vows of the double-ring ceremony before a background of Oregon fern and two floor baskets of all-white gladioli.

Family pews were bow-marked with white satin ribbons.

A program of nuptial wedding music was presented prior to and during the exchange of vows by Mrs. Ruby Doggett of Forest City, organist, and Mrs. Gene Guffey of Spindale, vocal-soloist.

Mrs. Guffey sang two selections, "Through the Years" by Youmanns and as a benediction, "The Lord's Prayer," by Malotte. The Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin" by Wagner was used for the processional, and Mendelssohn's wedding march from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" was played for the recessional.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina-length wedding gown of white chantilly lace over satin, designed with strapless bodice and lace bolero with long sleeves ending in calli-lily points over the hands. A panel of chantilly lace formed at the hip-line and extended to the hem-line in both front and back, and her fingertip veil of silk bridal illusion, trimmed with lace medallions, was attached to a Juliet cap appliqued with medallions and trimmed in seed pearls.

Mrs. Hoyt Toney of Jacksonville, N. C., was her sister's matron-of-honor and only attendant. She wore a light blue ballerina-length gown of nylon net over taffeta with matching headpiece and carried a nosegay of pink roses.

Don Bumgardner of Kings Mountain was best-man for the groom, and Don McDonald of Bostic, cousin of the bride, and Don Flowers of Kings Mountain were usher-groomsman.

Mrs. J. L. Penson, the bride's mother, wore a navy blue dress with matching accessories, and Mrs. Coley Guyton, mother of the groom, wore white with navy accessories. Each of the mothers wore a corsage of talsman roses.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Penson of Bostic, is a graduate of Cool Springs high school and prior to her marriage was employed in the offices of Laurel Mills in Rutherfordton.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Coley Guyton of Kings Mountain, was graduated from Kings Mountain high school and is employed at Barkley's Grocery here.

After the ceremony, the couple and their wedding party received guests in the church vestibule and later left for a wedding trip.

Among guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gault, Jr., Mrs. Wilma Sellers, and Miss Etha Hawkins, all of Kings Mountain; Mr. and Mrs. Louis K. Fox of Asheville; Mrs. C. M. Ewing and Miss Alleen Ewing, all of Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jonas and Miss Pearl Bennett of Forest City, and Miss Martha Putnam of Cherryville.

When Mr. and Mrs. Guyton return from a wedding trip, they will be at home in Kings Mountain.
