Eastern Star Chapter Held Meeting On Friday

An initiation service featured the regular meeting of the Kings Mountain chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Friday night at Masonic Hall.

Twenty-five members and three visitors attended the meeting. Mrs. Rowell Lane, worthy matron, presided over the business session, and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn White and Mrs. Leona Atkinson were welcomed as visitors.

Four members of the chapter, Mrs. Lane, Mrs. F. A. McDaniel, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Kincaid attended a district luncheon meeting at Hotel Charles in Shelby Saturday, and ten members of the chapter went to Shelby for the district school Saturday afternoon.

Hostesses for the Friday night meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Ross and Mrs. Boyce Gault.

Mrs. Erwin Hughes Dixon Circle Hostess

Circle II of Dixon Presbyterian church met Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Erwin Hughes. Eight members attended.

Ken Boyer, summer pastor at Dixon and First Presbyterian churches, was Bible leader for the meeting, and he continued a study of the book of Acts and spoke on "Paul's Missionary Journeys."

Miss Joyce Childers read a devotional after the group opened their meeting with a hymn.

Mrs. Ray Childers assisted the hostess in serving refreshments. The August meeting of the circle will be held at the home of Mrs. J. G. Darracott.

Mrs. Charles Neisler, Mrs. Henry Neisler, and Mrs. Paul M. Neisler, Sr., have returned from a stay at Crescent Beach, S. C.

Bennett-Seawright Vows Said July 3

Mrs. Betty Stafford Seawright of Shelby and Jack Bennett of Kings Mountain were married Saturday, July 3, in Gaffney, S. C. Magistrate W. R. Douglas heard the exchange of vows.

The bride wore a white faille dress with white and navy blue accessories and an orchid corsage. They were unattended.

Mrs. Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Stafford of Shelby, was graduated from high school in Greenville, S. C., where the family formerly lived, and was formerly employed at the Diana Shoppe in Shelby.

Mr. Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bennett of Kings Mountain, was graduated from Kings Mountain high school and is a veteran of World War II. He is employed at Waldensian Bakery.

After a wedding trip through the mountains of Western North Carolina, the couple will be at home near Shelby.

Vickie Jane Thornburg Honored On Birthday

Vickie Jane Thornburg celebrated her sixth birthday Thursday, July 8, with a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Thornburg at 318 Waco road.

Twenty-three children enjoyed the games and contests under the direction of Miss Jane Byars. After the play period, refreshments were served by Mrs. Thornburg, Mrs. Hilda Heavner, and Mrs. Thelma Houser.

The honoree received many nice and useful gifts.

Miss Lucy Van Dyke of Gastonia visited several days last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Van Dyke.

LET'S TALK IT OVER

By: Grace & Selma
One day not long ago we spied a husky six-foot citizen leading a dog which was about the size of an overfed chipmunk. This prompted us to do a little research regarding "man's best friend".

Actually, it seems that big people often choose small dogs, such as Pekes and Chihuahuas, and undersized men tend to lean toward a preference for the more ferocious specimens in the canine kingdom. Many dog owners are said to resemble their pets — and are quite happy about it, although the dogs have never been sounded out for their opinion.

The tweedy type of person goes for the casual, but dignified, retrievers, bird dogs and Irish setters. Gals who go for a fashionable appearance prefer the poodles, which are pretty smart pooches despite their Gorgeo George hairdos. The outdoorsy type of person finds the boxer a good companion.

If you happen to be in the market for a tail-wagger, friends, take a peek in the family strongbox before you drag home a St. Bernard or Great Dane. These are great dogs, but they have appetites like a platoon of starving field hands and might reduce the rest of the family to a bread and water diet!

By the way, you're not barking up the wrong tree when you call on ALLEN'S FLOWER SHOP, 624 King St., for the finest floral arrangements in town. Check your list carefully, friends, and if there is a birthday or anniversary to be observed, ALLEN'S FLOWER SHOP can fashion a fitting remembrance. (Adv.)
