Methodist Youth Attended Camp

Camp Tekoa, the Methodist Youth camp near Hendersonville, has just completed its sixth session. Delegates from Central Methodist church, Kings Mountain, were Kay McCarter and Sherry Kelly. Tommy Smith, also of Central Methodist church, is attending Camp Tekoa this week.

Ben Moomaw, supervisor of the Kings Mountain National Military Park, will be Thursday's featured guest at 4 o'clock on Station WAYS-TV, Charlotte, in a 45-minute program, "Miss Favorite Channel".

The show, which features towns and cities throughout North Carolina, is featuring Kings Mountain this week after an invitation from the station was accepted for the community by Mayor Glee A. Bridges.

Appearing Friday, rendering several vocal selections, will be a trio including Melba Tindall, Evelyn Cline, and Dolores Davidson.

The program will be concluded Saturday with the interview of Chief Hugh A. Logan, Jr., and the appearance of "The Sunshine Pantomime Quartet", and W. A. Jackson and his "Kings of Harmony Quartet".

The program began Monday with an interview of Mayor Glee A. Bridges and B. S. Peeler, Jr., accompanied by Franklin Pethel, presented several vocal numbers.

On Tuesday, Mrs. P. G. Padgett, president of Kings Mountain Little Theatre, and two members of the "Sword of Gideon" cast, appeared in connection with the drama.

Wednesday afternoon, Drama Director Bill Trotman, Assistant Director Larry Ostlin, Publicity Director Keen Oliver and Charles Hales appeared in connection with the "Sword of Gideon". W. A. (Willie) Jackson and his "Kings of Harmony Quartet" also were featured guests.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

By Mrs. Howard Ware

REVIVAL BEGINS

Our pastor began Sunday a series of three pre-revival sermons on "Why You Should Desire a Personal Revival." The topic last Sunday was, "The Terrific Results of An Experience With God." Next Sunday's topic is entitled, "The Advantage of a Growing Religious Faith," and the August 1st topic is, "What it Means to Be A Part of the Christian Movement." All this is to prepare us for our revival which begins August 15.

Tonnie Funderburke of Wake Forest college will preach the revival.

RIDGECREST

Some 40 of our young people and counsellors leave Thursday for the Baptist Training Union Assembly at Ridgecrest for a week of inspiration.

BOYS' NIGHT

The Brotherhood will have its regular meeting Monday night. They are to meet at the church at 6:30. Each member is asked to bring a boy with him. They are going to the Boy Scout camp for a wiener roast. The Boy Scouts and RA's of the church have charge of the program.

Mrs. B. O. Weaver was hostess to the Adult Training Union social Tuesday night. The children were invited and ice cream was served.

We will broadcast at 11 o'clock over direct wire the Sunday morning preaching hour.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Thursday: 1:00—Training Union leaves for Ridgecrest. 7:30—Phebean class meets at the home of Mrs. Grady Yelton. Saturday: 3:00—Altar choir practice. Sunday: Four star-filled hours. Tuesday: 3:00—Stella Austin Girl's Auxiliary meets. 8:00—Cornelia Leavell circle cottage prayer meeting at the home of Mrs. Rufus Oates. Wednesday: 7:30—Prayer meeting.

Roberts Joining College Faculty

John E. Roberts, for the past three years a teacher at Arlington Junior high school in Gastonia, has been named associate director of public relations at Gardner-Webb College.

He will assume his new duties August 1. A native of Shelby, Roberts grew up in the El-Bethel community near Kings Mountain, and graduated from Bethware High school. He is married to the former Miss Helen Goodwin of Greenville, S. C. They have two sons, Wayne and Mark.

He graduated from Gardner-Webb in 1949, and from Furman University in 1951. He also holds the M. A. degree from George Peabody Teachers College, Nashville, Tenn. He has been an English teacher in Gastonia, and this summer is working as a reporter for The Gastonia Gazette.

Dr. Philip L. Elliott, president of Gardner-Webb, has announced that the office of church and community development has been combined with the office of public relations. Lawson Allen is director of the combined offices, and Roberts is associate director in charge of publicity.

The former director of public relations, John W. Long, of Gastonia, resigned to accept pastorate of a Baptist church in Morganton.

Radarman Spears Back In States

SAN DIEGO, Calif., July 13 (PHTNC) — Harold D. Spears, radarman seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Goldman L. Spears of Route 2, Kings Mountain, N. C., returned to the United States today after seven and one-half months in the Far East aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Essex.

The Essex docked at the Naval Air Station this morning after steaming over 57,600 miles during her third Far Eastern cruise since being recommissioned in 1951.

Central Methodist CHURCH NEWS

By Mrs. Baxter Payseur

You are invited to the Union Service Sunday night at Central Methodist church. By making attendance at the Union Service a Sunday evening habit we make the services more meaningful to ourselves and others, and serve notice in a quiet way that the Church of Christ is one in spirit and one in hope.

Rev. Shore delivered the sermon at the union service Sunday at the First Presbyterian church.

The Senior M. Y. F. held their vesper service Sunday at City Lake. This Sunday they will hold Vespers at 6:30 o'clock on the church lawn.

Each Wednesday at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon the Children's Story Hour is held for all boys and girls of the Children's Division.

The W. S. C. S. held their Spiritual Life & General Meeting Monday night.

The Fourth Quarterly Conference was conducted Wednesday evening at the church by the Rev. C. W. Kirby.

Youth Activities Week will take place the second week in August, being August 8-14, and plans are being made for study
