

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

By Mrs. Howard Ware

RIDGECREST

At Ridgecrest Sunday morning, there were over 3500 in Sunday School. These were from all over the Southern Baptist convention. A number of our church members went to Ridgecrest for a day of inspiration.

Our boys and girls are having a wonderful time on top of the mountains, as they meet for their classes to study, as they play ball in the afternoon, or as they gather at the lake side for daily devotions. Those who have once attended such a conference can see why our leaders go there for inspiration.

In the absence of our pastor, who is at Ridgecrest, Sunday night services were led by one of our own boys who is studying for the ministry, Demuth Blanton. He said, in his message, that it was just six years ago at Ridgecrest that he dedicated his life to full-time Christian service. He spoke on "Why A Revival."

RA CAMP
Those attending the Royal Ambassadors camp at Fruitland this week are Steve Henderson, Le Camp Wright, Cleveland Yawn, Harold Henderson, David Roberts, Yehart Peal.

Negro Escapee Is Bound Over

A Negro escapee from city jail was bound over to Superior court on charge of larceny of a truck after probable cause was found against him by Judge Jack White at a preliminary hearing in City Recorder's court Monday.

The escapee, J. Hugh McClain, also charged with escaping from custody, plead guilty to escaping, and drew six months on the roads.

A third count, that of driving a vehicle without an operator's license, was not pressed after Judge White decided that McClain had already been convicted of this charge in Mecklenburg county.

According to Chief Hugh A. Logan, Jr., McClain, while working as a trustee around City Hall, escaped in a city maintenance truck September 5, 1953. In escaping, Logan said, McClain got as far as Charlotte, wrecked the truck and was arrested, convicted and sentenced to serve six months in Mecklenburg County roads on charges of driving drunk and driving without operator's license. The six months, Logan said, was served by the defendant in a criminal tuberculosis hospital.

Ezell Woods, Jr., Negro of South Shelby, pled guilty to a charge of driving while drunk, and received a four months road sentence, suspended on condition that he be of good behavior for six months, that his driving licence be revoked for a period of one year, that he pay a fine of $100 and costs of court. A second charge of reckless driving against Woods was dismissed by Judge White at the request of defense attorney, H. T. Falls, Jr., of Shelby.

Carnell Quinn, 16-year-old Negro youth of 101 Carpenter street, received a 30-day road sentence on a charge of participating in an affray. Quinn's sentence was suspended on condition that he pay costs of court.

According to testimony given, Quinn threw and hit Freddie Lee Gill, seven-year-old Negro boy, with a piece of pipe Saturday afternoon. The seven-year-old boy admitted to Judge White that he was hit with the pipe after he had first struck Quinn. In sentencing Quinn, Judge White stated that Quinn was too large to fight with a smaller child regardless of what had preceded.

Sentencing of Martha Melton, 16, on a charge of vagrancy, was reserved for one month by Judge White with instructions to the Melton girl to reappear in court at the end of the month.

Clarence Wade, Negro, received a 90-day road sentence on a charge of possessing non-tax paid liquor. Wade's sentence was suspended on condition that he be of good behavior for 90 days, pay a $5 fine, and costs of court.

The charge of using profanity in a public place against Bobby Biddix, 19, of Church street, was continued until next Monday to allow the state to produce witnesses. According to Officer Martin Ware, Biddix was arrested while in the yard of a resi-

Iron Lung Loaned To Gaston Hospital

A Gastonia ambulance made a rush trip through Kings Mountain Monday about 5 p. m. creating some excitement among local citizens.

The vehicle, a unit of the Gaston Life Saving Crew, was enroute Shelby hospital to secure one of Cleveland County's iron lungs.

Bill Ward, Gastonia funeral home owner, said the ambulance was pickin' up the lung for a three-year-old patient at Gaston Memorial hospital.

Cleveland County owns two iron lungs and, when neither is in use, loans one to other communities in emergencies, keeping one on hand at all times.

A capias was order issued for Erskine Thompson charged with disturbing the peace.

Three cases, those of Alexander Gordon, charged with driving while drunk, Fred McAbee, charged with passing a worthless check, and Carrie Thompson, charged with disturbing the peace, were continued.

Six defendants, each charged with public drunkenness, received 30 day road sentences, suspended on condition that each pay costs of court.

A nol pros was taken for a soldier stationed at Donaldson Air Force Base, Greenville, S. C., also charged with public drunkenness.

During the first five years of Wake Forest College, the average attendance in any term was seldom more than 50.

The School of Law was established at Wake Forest College in June, 1894, and the School of Medicine in May, 1902.
