

"Won't Be Back If You Let Me Go," Negro Says

"I won't be back in here for nothing else if you'll let me go", appealed a 22-year-old Negro youth who was in City Recorder's court Monday on a larceny charge for the second time within three months.

Robert Lee Moore, of route 3, this time was accused by Jack Kale of taking a tire, battery and radio from a 1939 Chevrolet, property of Ed Falls Used Car Lot.

Kale testified the articles were taken from the car by Moore after the defendant had been granted permission to repair the vehicle at his home.

Moore admitted taking the articles from the car, but contended that Kale "knewed I had 'em".

With a warning "this is your last chance", Judge White gave Moore a six months road sentence, suspended on condition that he be of good behavior for six months, pay a $15 fine, and costs of court. The defendant was also instructed to report to the Chief of Police monthly for eighteen months.

Failure to appear by the prosecuting witness and to bring the case under the jurisdiction of the court accounted for Judge Jack White's amending a warrant to a lesser charge against Jack Blanton, of Shelby.

Blanton, haled to court to answer a charge of breaking and entering, was given a six months road sentence for forcible trespass after prosecuting witness James Graham failed to appear to testify. The defendant was alleged to have broken into a room in the Morrison Building occupied by Graham.

Arresting Officers P. A. Hawkins, Jack Stone and Paul Sanders stated the defendant was arrested in Graham's room and also was drunk on "canned heat". The officers further testified that evidence showed the glass in the door had been broken from the outside.

Blanton testified that he had only recently come to town and had been invited by Graham to share the room until other quarters could be found.

The defendant's sentence was suspended on condition that he be of good behavior for six months, pay owner of building cost of broken door, pay a $10 fine and costs of court.

A 20-year-old Negro youth was given a consolidated judgment of 90-days on the roads on charges of reckless driving, speeding and driving a car with improper muffler.

Robert Lee Curry, of route 3, was arrested in the yard of his home. Officer Laymon Cornwell testified, following a chase which began at Davidson High school. The Negro youth stated that he was aware the officer was giving chase but was "waiting for Officer Cornwell to blow his siren for me to stop". Curry's sentence was suspended on payment of a $15 fine and costs of court.

Bill Bush received a four month

HAS DRAMA ROLE — Hal England, former Kings Mountain citizen, will play the role of Cheever in "The Crucible", a drama of witchcraft opening in New York November 17. It will be Mr. England's first New York stage appearance.

England In Cast Of Gotham Drama

Hal England, formerly of Kings Mountain, will make his first New York stage appearance on November 17 in an off-Broadway production of Arthur Miller's "The Crucible". Young England will portray the role of Cheever, a man torn between love and duty, in a drama of witchcraft in the fifteenth century.

This Showcase Theatre production is sponsored by the Hunter College of New York, and under the direction of Miss Charlotte Perry.

England is a recent graduate of the University of North Carolina where he was active with the Carolina Playmakers. The past summer, as a member of the Vagabond Players in Western North Carolina, he played feature roles in "Family Portrait", "Pink String", and "Sealing Wax".

This sentence after pleading guilty to assaulting his wife, Ethel Bush, Bush's sentence was suspended on condition that he be of good behavior for four months, and pay costs of court. The defendant's wife testified that she was struck on the face by the defendant after an argument had ensued between the two.

Two cases were not prosed, that of Robert Proctor, charged with non-compliance with North Carolina school laws, and Margie Farris, charged with driving without operator's license.

Three cases, those of Jonnie Sanders Oates, charged with carrying a concealed weapon, John Adams, charged with driving a vehicle without operator's license, and one defendant charged with public drunkenness, were continued.

A capias was issued for Robert Lee Bell charged with passing a worthless check.

Two defendants were found guilty on charges of public drunkenness.

Grocery Burglarized Tuesday Night

S & T Grocery at Mauney Mill was burglarized sometime during Tuesday night, Chief Hugh A. Logan, Jr., reported Wednesday morning.

Entry to the building, Chief Logan said, was made on the north side and was gained by breaking a windowpane of the store supply room and raising the window. From the supply room, Chief Logan stated, the thief made his way to the bathroom, prized several planks from the ceiling and from there entered the main part of the building by crawling through the attic.

The thief left the way he entered, Logan stated, with all doors and windows found locked from the inside Wednesday morning.

Approximately $50 was reported missing from the cash register.

The break-in, the officer stated, was thought to have been committed by a person of small stature, since the ceiling opening of the bathroom was only 14 inches wide. Chief Logan stated that an arrest is "expected shortly".

Officers investigating the break-in other than Chief Logan were P. A. Hawkins and Ralph Carrigan.

The S & T Grocery is owned by Sam and Ted Weir.

Chief Logan pointed out that crime is on the up-swing throughout the nation and warned all merchants to take extra precautions against burglars.
