Miss Sarah Biddix Wed November 27th To C. L. Earley, Jr. In Church Rites

Miss Sarah Biddix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick William Biddix, of Spruce Pine, and Clarence Lee Earley, Sr., son of Mrs. Clarence Lee Earley, Sr., of Kings Mountain, and the late Mr. Earley, were married Saturday evening, November 27, in Spruce Pine's First Presbyterian church.

The Rev. Robert H. Jordan, pastor of the bride, and Rev. Augustus R. Craig, pastor of Rutherford's First Presbyterian church, were the officiating ministers.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. John F. Roth of Spruce Pine, organist, and Miss Louise Hobson of Piedmont, S. C., and John F. Roth, soloists.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of imported lace over satin, featuring a shirred basque bodice with high round tulle yoke and draped off-shoulder fishnet. Her fingertip-length veil of imported silk illusion was draped from a half-hat of lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis centered with white orchids and showered with white satin streamers.

Miss Joyce Tucker, of Concord, and Miss Louise Hobson of Piedmont, S. C., were the bridesmaids. Miss Elizabeth Ann Hennessee, of Marion, cousin of the bride, Miss Ann Whitesell, of Ramseur, Mrs. Glenn McCulley, of Winston-Salem, and Miss Louise Hobson, of Piedmont, S. C., William Richard Harper, of Atlanta, Ga., were the groom's best man, and usher-groomsmen were Frederick William Biddix, Jr., of Spruce Pine, the bride's brother; William A. Farrington and Edwar H. Smith, both of Kings Mountain, and Wood B. Rawles, of Shelby.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception at their home.

Mrs. Earley was graduated from Harris high school, Spruce Pine, and Queen's college, Charlotte, where she was a member of Phi Mu National Sorority. She holds the position of secretary at Spruce Pine Lumber Co.

Mr. Earley attended Wofford college, Spartanburg, S. C., and is directory advertising salesman for Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co.

After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will make their home in Spruce Pine.
