

Society News

MRS. JAMES SHERWOOD FORREST
(Joyce Eleanor Plonk)

MISS ANGELA LEE RUFF is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ruff who announce her engagement to John B. Barber, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Barber. Both families are of Kings Mountain. The bride-elect is a rising senior at Kings Mountain high school. The prospective bridegroom is a KMHS graduate and is employed by Goforth Brothers in Shelby. The wedding will take place September 19.

MRS. JERRY LAWRENCE ADAMS
(Edith Jane Kincaid)

Country Club Luau; Lohrs To Europe; Sally McGill In Beauty Show

Sally McGill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl McGill of Blacksburg, S.C. and granddaughter of Mrs. T. P. McGill of Kings Mountain, was first runner-up to Miss Cherokee County in the recent beauty pageant held in Fullerton Auditorium on the campus of Limestone college.

The crown went to Miss Babs McDowell of Gaffney.

Miss McGill played a piano concerto as an exhibition of her talent. She was also presented a trophy for being the most photogenic of the group of 12 contestants.

A 1965 graduate of Blacksburg high school, Miss McGill has just been notified she is recipient of a music scholarship to Winthrop college for the coming year. Miss McGill competed with 21 other students for the scholarship, one of four given and the only one given to a piano student.

Comings And Goings

Mrs. Carrie Pryor has returned from a visit with her niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Morgan, in Manassas, Va. and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Guin, in Alexandria. She flew to Charlotte Sunday from Washington, D. C. where she was met by her son, Bobby Guin, who accompanied her home.

The C. E. Morgans had visited here last week and Mrs. Pryor returned home with them.

Mrs. Leonard G. Fulford and children are here from Fort Lauderdale, Fla. for a visit with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. P. Baker. Mrs. Fulford is the former Peggy Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Moomaw returned Thursday after spending a week at their new home in Tilghmans Estates at Ocean Drive Beach. They had as their guests Mr. Moomaw's family from Roanoke, Richmond and Culpeper, Va. Ben Moomaw IV is spending the summer there.

Mrs. W. B. Logan, Mrs. Joe Hord and children, Lisa and Larry, returned Monday to Myrtle Beach, S. C. where Mrs. Logan is spending the summer. Mrs. Logan came home for the Sunday wedding of Edith Jane Kincaid and Jerry Adams.

Martha Herndon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Herndon of Grover and a rising senior at Kings Mountain high school, has completed her duties as assistant recreation director in the summer recreation program in Grover.

The program was under sponsorship of the Grover Woman's club and Grover Lions club.

Active in Grover's First Baptist church Miss Herndon is president of Future Homemakers at KMHS, she is also a member of the National Honor Society, is vice president of Future Teachers, and is vice-president of the Cleveland County 4-H Council. She is treasurer of the Grover community club.

The summer program closed Friday and those participating took a trip to the Charlotte Children's Nature Museum. Miss Jaquitha Rountree, director, Miss Herndon, Mrs. Reggie Wood and Mrs. Jackie Rountree accompanied the young folk.

Miss Herndon is also a school bus driver.

Mr. Hord will spend the weekend at the beach and accompany his family home.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Haden are vacationing this week in Jacksonville, Fla. Mr. Haden is minister of Trinity Episcopal church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Moomaw and Frank Pridemore left Monday on a business trip to Richmond, Va. Mr. Moomaw is superintendent and Mr. Pridemore is historian of Kings Mountain Military Park.

Mrs. Paul Whitley and sons, Wayne and Ricky, are in Taylorsville visiting Mrs. Whitley's brother, Richard White and family.

Two daughters of Dr. and Mrs. John C. McGill are away on camping trips.

Mrs. McGill, son John Knox and small daughter Elizabeth, accompanied Meredith McGill to Camp Bonclarken at Hendersonville Sunday where Meredith will be at the ARP church camp for a week.

Alan Tate, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tate, celebrated his birthday Saturday at a gala Mickey Mouse party at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Lawrence Logan. Mrs. B. D. Herndon assisted her sister in entertaining.

The birthday cake was topped with china figurines of Mickey Mouse, Pluto and Goofy. Cake was served with fruit punch and ice cream at refreshment time. Favours were balloons and party honors and noisemakers.

Those attending included Alan's great-aunt, Mrs. Percy Dilling; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Tate; Lisa and Laura Herndon, Gina Patterson, Carol, Mary and Mike Bennett, Laura King, Kim Herndon, Terry Yarbrow, Sarah DeBrunner, Dennis and Sheila Ledbetter, Mike Murphree, Lynn and Brad Tate, Leigh Anne Blanton and Cherrie Fite.

Dr. McGill accompanied daughter Frances to Camp Rotary on Sunday where she will be at Girl Scout camp for two weeks.

Mrs. W. O. Weir and son, Bill, are here from Jacksonville, Fla. to visit Mrs. Weir's mother, Mrs. T. P. McGill. Mr. Weir joined his family Tuesday and they will remain here until after the McGill Family Reunion to be held Sunday at Bethel Church Arbor.

The Weirs will return home Monday.

About This N' That

American Legion Auxiliary members will gather Thursday night at 6:30 p.m. for a covered dish supper at the home of Mrs. C. L. Jolly on Fulton road.

Mrs. Ben Long will preside over a short business meeting following supper.

A luau is planned as highlight of Club Night Saturday at Kings Mountain Country Club.

Mrs. Margaret Ward, club manager, said that hosts and hostesses will be Mr. and Mrs. Jack Arnette, Mr. and Mrs. Jack White and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Timms. Music for dancing will be provided by the Keys Orchestra of Gas-

Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lohr, Jr. are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lohr this week.

Sunday, August 8th, they sail from New York for a six weeks visit to Europe.

While in Copenhagen, Denmark, Dr. Lohr will speak at an International Physics and Chemistry meeting.

When Dr. and Mrs. Lohr return to the United States, they will move to Dearborn Michigan, where Mr. Lohr will be doing chemistry research for the Ford Scientific Laboratories.

Reservations should be made for the 8 p.m. dinner by Saturday noon.

Junior Woman's Clubbers conducted a calendar canvass Monday night as part of their annual fund-raising project to sell birthday calendars and anniversary listings.

They gathered after the canvass for homemade peach ice cream and cookies at the Woman's club. Mrs. Bob Morris and Mrs. Robert Champion, Jr. were hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Greene and sons, Bruce, Jr. and Michael, are here from Woodlawn, New York, for a visit with Greene's foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Summitt. The Greens expect to return home about August 14th.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lybrand and two children returned home Sunday after a trip to the beach.

Dennis Connor left Monday for St. Petersburg, Fla., where he will visit Tommy Gerberding, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Gerberding.

Dr. Gerberding is a former pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran church. Dennis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Connor.