

Back-To-School Dance Wednesday

Dawn Denise Champion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Champion, will celebrate her first birthday Thursday, August 26.

A family party for De De was held Saturday at the Champion home at 1206 Shelby road.

De De's decorated birthday cake was cut and served with ice cream and fruit punch.

Young Miss Champion is granddaughter of Mrs. Fred Champion and the late Mr. Champion and Mrs. Austin Bumgardner and the late

Mr. Bumgardner. Her mother is the former Phyllis Bumgardner.

About This N' That

Mrs. Martin Harmon entertained last Wednesday at her home at a luncheon.

Guests were two of her former Winthrop college schoolmates, Mrs. Nelle Olive of Woodruff, S. C., a cousin, Mrs. Martin Hall of Clover, S. C., her cousins, Mrs. L. J. Morris of Signal Mountain, Tennessee, Mrs. John Sutton of La Grange, Mrs. Demetrious Politis of Ann Arbor, Michigan, and Mrs. Tom Harper of Mountain Home, Idaho. Also Mrs. William Lawrence Plonk, Mrs. John C. McGill, Mrs. N. F. McGill, Jr. and rs. Eugene McCarter, all of Kings Mountain.

A three-course meal was served.

Kings Mountain Council of Churchwomen will open its nursery for Negro children Thursday morning at 8 a.m., a spokesman for the interdenominational organization said this week.

The nursery will be operated for the second year in the Parker Street Masonic Building and instructors for the four and five-year-old groups will be Misses Lillian McClure and Janet Parker.

The nursery service will be provided nine months from 8 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

A back-to-school dance for high school and college-age students will be held Wednesday night from 9 until midnight at Kings Mountain Country Club.

A dance band will provide music for dancing. Refreshments will be served by a host and hostess committee including Mr. and Mrs. Scarr Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. John Plonk, and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. McDaniel, Jr.

Tickets are $2 per person and each student may invite a date and a couple. Reservations are asked by noon Wednesday.

Sarah Rose Lennon, rising senior at Hollins college in Roanoke, Va., was guest speaker at Thursday night's Kiwanis club meeting at the Woman's club.

Daughter of Kiwanian R. S. Lennon and Mrs. Lennon, Miss Lennon reviewed highlights of her year abroad last year under the Hollins Abroad program in which she studied at the Sorbonne in Paris.

Miss Lennon toured 18 countries in Europe and gave some of her experiences and impressions of life abroad.

Comings And Goings

Recent guests in the home of Mrs. J. Boyce McGill were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones of Roanoke, Va. and Mrs. R. E. Overcash of Charlotte.

Mrs. Sally Davis and children, Michael and Jennifer, arrived Wednesday from College Park, Ga. to spend the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Davis. Mrs. Davis is daughter-in-law of the Davises.

Rev. and Mrs. Marion DuBose and sons, James and Clyde, are moving this week to Gloucester, Va. where Mr. DuBose will become pastor of Newington Baptist church. Mr. DuBose was discharged from the hospital Friday after a week's stay for treatment of a heart ailment.

Mrs. DuBose was honor guest at a drop-in party given Thursday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Hamrick and Miss Brenda Gail Hamrick at "Rosemount", their Roxford road home.

Mrs. Charles Fisher spent the weekend in Orlando, Fla. with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fisher, going especially to attend a party given in their honor Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ware, Karen and Randy, spent Saturday night in Orlando, Fla. with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ware and Donald. They were enroute to their home in Miami, Fla. after spending the past three weeks in Kings Moun with Mrs. Ware's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Harmon.

Chief Petty Officer J. B. Ruff and Mrs. Ruff returned Monday to Maine after spending a 10-day leave with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ruff and family and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ruff and family.

It had been 12 years since Petty Officer Ruff had been here for a visit with his brothers and other relatives.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Saturday: 2:30-5:30—Mrs. Ernest Hayes and Mrs. Fred McDaniel, Jr. are entertaining at the latter's home at 804 Williams street honoring Miss Elizabeth Lael Morrison, bride-elect.

4:30—The wedding of Miss Mary Ann Brown and Richard Gregg Singer in Lexington's First Presbyterian church, reception following in the fellowship hall of the church.

10 a.m.—Circle 6 of First Presbyterian church at the home of Mrs. Conan Falls, 201 N. Goforth street.

8-12 p.m.—Back-to-school dance for ninth graders through college-age students at Kings Mountain Country Club. Mr. and Mrs. Scarr Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. John Plonk, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. McDaniel, Jr., hosts and hostesses.

Party Honors Bride-Elect

Miss Angela Ruff, bride-elect of September, was honor guest Saturday night at a drop-in bridal shower given by Mrs. Henry Oliver and Mrs. John Hughes at the home of Mrs. Conrad Hughes on Dixon road.

Mrs. John B. Barber, mother of the prospective bridegroom Johnny Barber, Jr., also assisted in details of entertaining.

The refreshment table was highlight of decoration. Overlaid with yellow cloth, the table was centered by an arrangement of yellow and white summer flowers. Wedding cakes topped with green and white lily-of-the-valley were served with punch and nuts.

Gifts were opened in the living room and displayed on a table covered with a white cloth.

The bride-to-be wore a full-skirted party dress in shades of pink and yellow with corsage of pink carnations, gift of the hostesses.

Guests showered Miss Ruff with miscellaneous household gifts.

Couple Honored After Rehearsal

Miss Linda Bennett and Jeff Adams cut their wedding cake at an after-rehearsal party held Saturday evening at the Woman's club. Hosts for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bennett, parents of the bride-to-be.

The bride's table was highlight of decoration and was overlaid with floor-length cloth of white brocade taffeta with a drape of green net and caught up at each corner with bouquets of gypsophila and ribbon. Centering the table was a tall three-tier pedestal cake decorated in white and green and topped with a bride and bridegroom figurine. Green sherbet punch was served from a crystal bowl at one end of the table, and at the opposite end was a five-branched candelabrum holding white tapers and arranged with pink, white and green flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. John Van Dyke and Mrs. Jim Littlejohn assisted the hosts in entertaining.

Miss Bennett wore a cocktail dress of pink and white with pink cummerbund and pink carnation corsage.

The bride-elect and prospective bridegroom took the occasion to present their gifts to their wedding attendants.

Members of the wedding party and close friends of the two families made up the guest list.

Also assisting in details of entertaining were Mrs. Etta Bennett, grandmother of the bride-elect; Miss Maggie Bennett and Mrs. Woody London who directed the wedding.

Birth Announcements

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Croom, 316 S. Landing St., announce the birth of a daughter, August 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Warren, Rt. 1, announce the birth of a daughter, August 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hamrick, P. O. Box 152, announce the birth of a son, August 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Brown, Rt. 2, Box 412, announce the birth of a son, August 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas M. Leftwich, P. O. Box 203, announce the birth of a daughter, August 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gene Shope, 222 E. Boston Ave., Bessemer City, announce the birth of a son, August 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Furman L. Sprouse, 2100 Parkdale Circle, announce the birth of a son, August 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Hicks, 220 Sunset Dr., Gastonia, announce the birth of twin boys, August 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Donald McNeely, Rt. 1, announce the birth of a son, August 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Farris, Rt. 2, announce the birth of a son, August 25.

Society

Miss Elizabeth Stewart Editor

Miss Linda Bennett, Jeffrey Lee Adams Pledge Vows In Sunday Church Rites

A Sunday 4 o'clock wedding in First Presbyterian church united Miss Linda Bennett and Jeffrey Lee Adams in marriage. Rev. B. L. Raines, pastor of First Baptist church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The vows were pledged before a background of potted palms, altar baskets of white glads and cathedral tapers in wrought-iron candelabra. A white kneeling bench centered the setting.

Mrs. Darrell Austin was organizer for the program of nuptial music and vocal numbers were rendered by Mrs. Robert Ware who sang "Because" before the ceremony and "Wedding Prayer" as the benediction. Organ numbers included "I Love Thee" by Grieg, "Andantino" by Lemare, "Arioso" by Handel, "My Heart Ever Faithful" by Bach, "Dreams" by McAmis and "Romance Sans Parole" by Bonnet.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal wedding gown of white peau de soie. The Chantilly lace bodice was fashioned with brief sleeves and scalloped neckline. The A-line skirt was enhanced by a detachable aisle-wide Chapel train highlighted by a panel of Chantilly lace. Her floor-length mantilla veil, paneled with lace, was draped from a satin pillbox, and she carried yellow roses and a white orchid on a white Bible.

Mrs. Mary Helen Leigh of Grover attended the bride as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Cookie Miller of Inman, S. C., Mrs. Charles Patrick of Blacksburg, S. C. and Mrs. Maurice Pace of Spartanburg, S. C. The bridegroom's two sisters, Cathy and Cindy Siple, were junior attendants.

All the attendants wore street-length dresses of antique gold peau de soie with matching prayer caps and slippers to match. The honor attendant, carried two long-stemmed white roses with streamers attached and the other attendants carried a single long-stemmed rose with white streamers.

Deedra Dale Stroup, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stroup, and Liza Lee Hubbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hubbard and cousin of the bride, were flower girls. They wore white organza dresses with matching headpieces and carried white baskets filled with white and yellow flower petals.

Shan London, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woody London, was ring bearer. He wore a white suit and carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Best man for the bridegroom

Deedra Dale Stroup, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stroup, and Liza Lee Hubbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hubbard and cousin of the bride, were flower girls. They wore white organza dresses with matching headpieces and carried white baskets filled with white and yellow flower petals.

Shan London, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woody London, was ring bearer. He wore a white suit and carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Best man for the bridegroom

Deedra Dale Stroup, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stroup, and Liza Lee Hubbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hubbard and cousin of the bride, were flower girls. They wore white organza dresses with matching headpieces and carried white baskets filled with white and yellow flower petals.

Shan London, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woody London, was ring bearer. He wore a white suit and carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Best man for the bridegroom

Deedra Dale Stroup, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stroup, and Liza Lee Hubbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hubbard and cousin of the bride, were flower girls. They wore white organza dresses with matching headpieces and carried white baskets filled with white and yellow flower petals.

Shan London, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woody London, was ring bearer. He wore a white suit and carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Best man for the bridegroom

Deedra Dale Stroup, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stroup, and Liza Lee Hubbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hubbard and cousin of the bride, were flower girls. They wore white organza dresses with matching headpieces and carried white baskets filled with white and yellow flower petals.

Shan London, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woody London, was ring bearer. He wore a white suit and carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Best man for the bridegroom

Deedra Dale Stroup, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stroup, and Liza Lee Hubbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hubbard and cousin of the bride, were flower girls. They wore white organza dresses with matching headpieces and carried white baskets filled with white and yellow flower petals.

Shan London, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woody London, was ring bearer. He wore a white suit and carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Best man for the bridegroom

Deedra Dale Stroup, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stroup, and Liza Lee Hubbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hubbard and cousin of the bride, were flower girls. They wore white organza dresses with matching headpieces and carried white baskets filled with white and yellow flower petals.

Shan London, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woody London, was ring bearer. He wore a white suit and carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Best man for the bridegroom

was Charles Patrick of Blacksburg, S. C. Ushers were John Van Dyke, Noel Webster, cousin of the bride, and Maurlee Pace of Spartanburg, S. C.

The bride's mother was gowning in aqua chiffon with matching headpiece and slippers. She wore a corsage of white orchids.

The bridegroom's mother chose pale blue brocade with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's stepmother was gowning in beige and brown with matching hat and accessories and a white orchid shoulder corsage.

Mrs. Rena Bennett, grandmother of the bride, wore a blue dress with matching accessories and a white carnation shoulder corsage. Mrs. Harold Bauer of McLean, Va., grandmother of the bridegroom, chose a blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Miss Bennie Joyce Poole of Gaffney, S. C. kept the bride's book.

For a trip to the mountains of Western North Carolina the new Mrs. Adams chose a two-piece navy blue suit with beige accessories and the orchid lifted from her bouquet.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM
Mr. and Mrs. W. D. (Bill) Bennett of Kings Mountain are parents of the bride. A graduate of Kings Mountain high school and Charlotte Presbyterian Hospital School of Histology, she has been employed by Cherokee County Memorial hospital as chief histologist. She will be employed at Columbia hospital in Columbia.

The bridegroom is the son of Lt. Col. Dwight Lee Adams of Brookings, South Dakota, and Mrs. George E. Siple of Columbia, S. C. He attended Dreher high school in Stuttgart, Germany. A USAF veteran, he is employed in the quality control department of Argus Camera Company in Columbia.

Columbia, South Carolina will be home for the newlyweds.

Out-of-town wedding guests included: Lt. Col. and Mrs. Dwight Lee Adams of Brookings, South Dakota; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bauer of McLean, Va.; General and Mrs. James C. Dozier of Columbia, S. C.; Stanley Spears of Columbia, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Gurganious of Columbia, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Benham Cox of Roanoke, Va.; Miss Jane Cannon and Miss Mary Alyce Cox of Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Poole of Gaffney, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Bud Gregory of Gastonia; and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Walls of Gastonia.

Miss Virginia (Ginger) Dee Critchfield became Mr. Rountree's bride in an 8 p.m. wedding Saturday, August 14th, in Everglades Presbyterian church of Belle Glade, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rountree of Grover, parents of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Critchfield of South Bay, Fla., parents of the bride, met in Clinton, S. C. last weekend to "christen" the newlyweds' new mobile home. Mrs. Rountree and daughter, Holly, accompanied the newlyweds from Grover to Clinton Monday where the bride and bridegroom will continue their studies at Presbyterian College. Mr. Rountree is a senior sociology major.

Rev. J. Paul Vondraecq officiated at the double-ring ceremony for which wedding music was presented by Miss Sharon Motes at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional gown of white magnolia satin with a redingote-styled skirt and full cathedral train. Her silk illusion veil was attached to a princess crown of seed pearls and she carried a bride's bouquet centered by a white orchid.

Miss Janet Critchfield was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Jaquitha Rountree, the bridegroom's sister; Miss Paula Evans of Luluwici, Ga. and Miss Rebecca Mathis of South Bay.

The attendants wore long gowns of American Beauty rose satin with matching rosette hats sprinkled with crystals. They carried cascades of pink roses.

Holly Rountree, sister of the bridegroom, was junior attendant.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Ushers, all of Grover, were Joel Rountree, the bridegroom's brother; Tommy Hope, Larry Morgan and Lowrance Harry.

The bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church educational building. A flower-topped wedding cake was served with punch from a table overlaid with organza and satin and decorated in pink and white.

Attending the wedding from Grover, in addition to the Rountree family, were Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Harry, Robert Harry, Maynard Pierce, Tommy Hope, and Larry Morgan.

Westover Baptist church was the setting Sunday for a high noon wedding uniting Miss Gail White and Kenneth Moss in marriage.

Vows of the double-ring ceremony were pledged before the Rev. Floyd Willis, pastor of the church. Pat Butler was at the organ for the program of wedding music and Willis Anthony was vocal soloist.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. White of Kings Creek, S. C., was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal gown of white bridal satin and imported lace fashioned with lace bodice, bell-shaped skirt and chapel train. A satin cap held her fingertip veil and she carried a Bible topped with white roses. The gown was made and designed by the bride.

Mrs. Clyde Bush of Kings Mountain was the bride's matron of honor and only attendant. She wore a floor-length dress of pale yellow peau de soie, matching headpiece and carried a bouquet of yellow mums.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Moss of Kings Mountain, chose his father as best man. Ushers were Richard White, brother of the bride, and Miss Judy Nichols and Hal Falls were honored after their wedding rehearsal Friday night at a cake cutting held in the fellowship hall of Unity Baptist church of Gastonia.

Hosts for the affair were the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert C. Nichols.

Overlaid with pink satin and lace, the bride's table was highlight of decoration and the cloth was caught up with pink pompons and white ribbon. A three-tier cake was cut and served from one end of the table and punch was served from a crystal bowl at the opposite end. Party pick-ups were served with the cake and punch. Pink and white flowers were featured in arrangements.

Miss Brown's Plans Given

Miss Mary Ann Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lawson Brown of Lexington, former Kings Mountain resident, has completed plans for her marriage to Richard Gregg Singer, son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Gregg Singer of Salisbury, and announces them today.

The wedding will take place Saturday, August 28th, at 4:30 p.m. in Lexington First Presbyterian church. Rev. Robert T. Haynes, Jr. will officiate and Stephen Shoemaker will be organist.

Mr. Brown will give his daughter in marriage. Best man for the prospective bridegroom will be his father.

Miss Pamela Ann Grandoff will attend the bride-to-be as maid of honor and Mrs. Carlton Keith Leonard of Lexington will be matron of honor. Bridesmaids will include Miss Minna Combs of Shelby and Miss Barbara Louise Hoffman of Greensboro, college classmates of the bride-elect at Peace college, Miss Terri Elizabeth Singer of Salisbury, sister of the bridegroom-elect, and Miss Catherine Wells Brown, of Greensboro, cousin of the bride-elect.

Flower girl will be Holly Brook Brown, sister of the bride-elect, and ringbearer will be Taylor Harrison Hood of Lexington.

Ushers will include Michael Alvin Goodman, Jerry Lamar Satterwhite, brother-in-law of the bridegroom-to-be, Charles Brooks Gueldige of Hamlet, Ernest Lawson Brown, Jr., brother of the bride-to-be, and Arthur Gregg Singer, III, of Toccoa, Ga.

The bride-elect's parents will entertain after the ceremony at a reception in the church fellowship hall.

Spangler Entertains At Bachelor Supper

Arthur Neal Spangler, Jr. entertained for male attendants in the Spangler-Alen wedding party at a bachelor supper Friday night at B & J Restaurant in Bolling Springs.

Menu for the 7 o'clock supper included charcoal broiled steak, potatoes and a salad.

Guests attending were A. Neal Spangler, Sr., the father of the host; George H. Allen, father of Neal Spangler, Jr.'s, bride-to-be; Douglas Leon Leonard, James Edward Spangler, William Craig Spangler, cousins of the host, and William Albert Weathers.

Mr. Spangler took the occasion to present his groomsmen with monogrammed tie tacks.

Rountrees Are At Home In Clinton Following Church Wedding In Florida

Mr. and Mrs. William Harry (Bubba) Rountree are at home in Clinton, S. C. following a wedding trip to Blowing Rock.

Miss Virginia (Ginger) Dee Critchfield became Mr. Rountree's bride in an 8 p.m. wedding Saturday, August 14th, in Everglades Presbyterian church of Belle Glade, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rountree of Grover, parents of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Critchfield of South Bay, Fla., parents of the bride, met in Clinton, S. C. last weekend to "christen" the newlyweds' new mobile home. Mrs. Rountree and daughter, Holly, accompanied the newlyweds from Grover to Clinton Monday where the bride and bridegroom will continue their studies at Presbyterian College. Mr. Rountree is a senior sociology major.

Rev. J. Paul Vondraecq officiated at the double-ring ceremony for which wedding music was presented by Miss Sharon Motes at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional gown of white magnolia satin with a redingote-styled skirt and full cathedral train. Her silk illusion veil was attached to a princess crown of seed pearls and she carried a bride's bouquet centered by a white orchid.

Miss Janet Critchfield was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Jaquitha Rountree, the bridegroom's sister; Miss Paula Evans of Luluwici, Ga. and Miss Rebecca Mathis of South Bay.

The attendants wore long gowns of American Beauty rose satin with matching rosette hats sprinkled with crystals. They carried cascades of pink roses.

Holly Rountree, sister of the bridegroom, was junior attendant.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Ushers, all of Grover, were Joel Rountree, the bridegroom's brother; Tommy Hope, Larry Morgan and Lowrance Harry.

The bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church educational building. A flower-topped wedding cake was served with punch from a table overlaid with organza and satin and decorated in pink and white.

Attending the wedding from Grover, in addition to the Rountree family, were Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Harry, Robert Harry, Maynard Pierce, Tommy Hope, and Larry Morgan.

Westover Church Was Setting Sunday For White-Moss Double-Ring Ceremony

Westover Baptist church was the setting Sunday for a high noon wedding uniting Miss Gail White and Kenneth Moss in marriage.

Vows of the double-ring ceremony were pledged before the Rev. Floyd Willis, pastor of the church. Pat Butler was at the organ for the program of wedding music and Willis Anthony was vocal soloist.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. White of Kings Creek, S. C., was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal gown of white bridal satin and imported lace fashioned with lace bodice, bell-shaped skirt and chapel train. A satin cap held her fingertip veil and she carried a Bible topped with white roses. The gown was made and designed by the bride.

Mrs. Clyde Bush of Kings Mountain was the bride's matron of honor and only attendant. She wore a floor-length dress of pale yellow peau de soie, matching headpiece and carried a bouquet of yellow mums.

Spanglers To Make Home In Chapel Hill Following David Church Wedding Sunday

Chapel Hill will be home for Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Neal Spangler, Jr., married Sunday in a 4 p.m. wedding in David Baptist church.

Miss Marian Joyce Allen became Mr. Spangler's bride in a double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. N. S. Hardin. Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Emmett Moss at the organ and Mrs. Bo-by Ware, vocalist.

Palms and seven-branched candelabra formed an arch at the front of the sanctuary. Brass tree candelabra were used at either side of the setting and centerpiece was a large basket of white mums and glads.

George H. Allen gave his daughter in marriage. The bride's gown was a formal design of white peau de soie and was fashioned with lace bodice with scoop neckline and elbow sleeves. The controlled skirt had a detachable trumpet train which was overlaid with a floating panel trimmed in lace matching the bodice. She wore a crown of lace, crystals and seed pearls with fingertip veil attached by lace butterfly wings. Her bouquet was a cascade of white royal bouquet orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Rebecca Kiser attended the bride as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Carolyn Spangler, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Ann Williams, cousin of the bride, Miss Teresa Martin and Mrs. Hugh Hamrick. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Kim Harmon, cousin of the bride.

All the attendants wore long dresses of crystal pink organza over taffeta trimmed with white lace. Their headpieces were matching organza petals and they carried headpieces of Garza mums and carnations in shades of light pink and deeper pink matching their dresses.

The bridegroom's father was best man and the list of ushers included Douglas Leon Leonard, James Edward Spangler, William Craig Spangler, all cousins of the bridegroom, and William Albert Weathers. Brian Hawkins, cousin of the bride, was junior groomsmen.

The bride's mother was gowning in aqua lace with matching hat and accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

The bridegroom's mother chose a street-length dress of mauve lace. She wore matching accessories and a white orchid shoulder corsage.

Miss Linda Allen kept a guest register.

The couple's wedding trip will take them to Cherry Grove Beach, S. C.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM
Mr. and Mrs. George H. Allen of Shelby are parents of the bride. A 1961 graduate of Shelby high school, she was graduated a year later from Howard Business college. For three years she has been employed by Shelby's First National Bank. In Chapel Hill she will be employed by Central Carolina Bank & Trust Company.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Neal Spangler, Sr. of Lattimore. A 1961 graduate of Shelby high school, he was graduated this spring from the University of North Carolina with AB in chemistry. He will enter the School of Dentistry at UNC, Chapel Hill, this fall.

Miss Judy Anne Nichols, Hal Falls Wed In Double-Ring Church Rites Saturday

Four o'clock rites Saturday in Gastonia's Unity Baptist church united Miss Judy Anne Nichols and Leonidas Hal Falls in marriage.

Rev. Wilbur F. Woodall officiated at the double-ring ceremony for which nuptial music was presented by Jimmy Busby at the organ and Russell Wilson, vocalist.

Hubert Clinton Nichols gave his daughter in marriage. The bride's gown was a formal design of silk organza and imported Alencon lace posed over faille taffeta. The basque bodice was styled with bateau neckline and caught at the back with miniature self-covered buttons. Long sleeves tapered to deep points over the hands. A lace plastron traced with pearls accented the waistline and extended in a wide panel down the front of the bell skirt. A bow at the back topped the Chapel length train which was accented with lace motifs. Her triple-tier veil of imported illusion was attached to a lace pillbox trimmed with pearls and she carried a prayerbook topped with a white orchid and showered with white lilies and