Spook-N-Goblin Time

Chestnut Ridge Baptist church will sponsor a Hallo- Friday, October 22, Kings Mountain hospital. we'en party Saturday for benefit of the church's building fund, Rev. Mitchell Pruitt, pastor has announced.

Hotdogs and cakes will be on sale beginning at 11 a.m. with delivery service obtainable by telephoning 739-4015. Cake is 10 cents per slice and hotdogs are 20 cents or six for $1.

Halloween fun and games will begin at 7 o'clock in Grigg and George Grigg. the church recreation building.

The Primary Sunday School class of Dixon Presbyterian church will hold a Halloween party Friday beginning at 7 p. m. in the church fellowship hall. Mrs. Calvin Humphries is the class teacher.

Youngsters will come in costume and there will be Mrs. Tate is sister of Miss Robbs and was matron of honor party games and refreshments.

FORD 2-DR. HARDTOP — Quiet quality . . .

powered by Ford. New styling, new luxury.

Ford's total performance proved in open com-

1963 Ford Galaxie 500 4-Dr. $1795

V-8 engine, Cruise-O-Matic, radio, new tires.

1964 Fairlane 500 2-Dr. HT $1895

1964 Ford Fastback 2-Dr. HT $1995

1964 Cadallic 4-Dr. HT$4495

1959 Ford Dr. V-8 $ 495

V-8, straight drive, wsw tires, all vinyl interior.

V-8, Cruise-O-Matic, radio, all vinyl trim, new wsw

Air conditioning, power steering, good tires, low petition.

Stork Notes

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Lee announce the birth of a son, To Margrace Clubwomen

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Grigg, Jr. of Raleigh, formerly of members of the Margrace Wom-Kings Mountain, announce the arrival of a daughter, Laura an's club.

Susan, born Sunday, October 17, Wake County hospital. Kings Mountain grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George W. Moss and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Grigg, Sr. Other Barber, president, presided. members of the Glenn Grigg, Jr. family are sons, David

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Tate and daughter returned Monday to Tampa, Fla. after spending sev-eral weeks with Mrs. Tate's mother, Mrs. J. H. Robbs. They came especially for the wedding of Jewel Robbs and John War-lick and its attendant festivities. in the Sunday wedding.

SEE WHAT TOTAL-PERFORMANCE REALLY IS:

Southwell Ford

'66 FORD today!

ROTARY CLUB Walter Hobbs and Harold Muse, representing Pritchard Paint & Glass Co. of Charlotte, will present the program at Thursday night's Rotary club meeting at 12 noon at the Country Club. Tom Tate is program chairman.

For a real deal on a 1966 FORD see us now. We can trade your way with only $199 dn., $65 mo.

1955 Ford 4-Dr. $125

1965 Falcon Futura 4-Dr. SPECIAL

1953 Chevrolet ½-Ton Pick-up $295

Still in good shape. Worth lots more than $295.

Looks bad but runs good.

Automatic drive, good tires, one owner, clean inside.

Cruise-O-Matic drive, dark blue, can be bought at cost

FAIRLANE G T HARDTOP — 390 V-8

335 HP standard on this one. New optional sports shift — either a straight drive or automatic. We can sell you one for only $199 dn., $71 mo.

Mrs. Gantt Hostess

Mrs. Carl Gantt was hostess Saturday night at her home to

Miss Grace Blanton conducted the devotions and Mrs. J. Otis

Hallowe'en decorations were used in the Gantt living room and the Hallowe'en motif was also featured in party refreshments which were served after the meeting.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL Future Homemakers of Amer ica all over the United States and territories are celebrating FHA Week this week October 31-November 4

DISTRICT MEETING HELD HERE SATURDAY — District VII of Delta Kappa Gamma held its district meeting here Saturday at Kings Mountain Woman's club with members of Rho Chapter from 10 area towns and cities as hostesses. Participating on the program were these DKG officers and officials from the Seventh District. F. rom left above, Mrs. Myrtis Mackey of Charlotte, Mrs. Vera Lawrence of Charlotte, Miss Margie Barringer of Hickory, district president, Mrs. Margaret Ware Davenport of Mount Holly, Rho president, Mrs. Odessa Cooper of Forest City and (Photo by Bill Jackson)

DKG Notes 31st Birthday

Rho Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma was hostess Saturday to the 7th District meeting of DKG which celebrated the society's 31st birthday and honored the national founder, the late Nora Blanton of Austin, Texas, and the 12 state founders.

The 10 chapters from Gaston and Lincoln Counties joined with members from the Kings Mountain area in planning a coffee hour from 10 until 11 a.m. and a 12:30 lunch at Kings Mountain Woman's club. The luncheon was served by the Woman's club. Forest City's Epsilon chapter was in charge of the ceremonial during the program. Kings Mountain and Lincolnton chapters entertained at the coffee hour.

Hickory is disrict president. Both participated on the program. Charlotte members, Mrs. Vera Lawrence and Mrs. Myrtis Mackey, were program consultants. foyer, lounge and dining hall of tapers in spiral candelabra.

Seventy members from the dis-

Luncheon Honors Miss Robbs

maids luncheon given by Mrs. E.
R. Roberts, her daughter, Miss Diane Roberts, and Miss Sandra Spangler at the Roberts home on

N. Piedmont Avenue. Miss Linda Roberts assisted the hostesses in serving a three-course luncheon to the 16 bridal attendants and mothers of the bride-elect and bridegroom-to-be.

Miss Robbs was given a white shoulder corsage which she pinned to the shoulder of her blue ing their niece, Miss Jewel Robbs. party dress. The hostesses gave her gifts of china in her pattern and a bedspread. The bride-to-be ding party were served a three-course meal in the private dings and the course meal in the private dings are course meal in the pattern and the pattern are course meal in the pattern are course means are considered and the pattern a and petal pink was featured in decorations in the living room. A wers and foliage. white and green motif was car-ried out in the dining room where white cutwork cloths covered the bride's table and two smaller ta-

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Vernon Tate of Tampa, Fla., Miss Grace Ledford of Mars Hill, Miss Laura Page of Raleigh, Miss Pattie Howard of Greensboro, Miss Dianne McDan iel of Cullowhee and Mrs. Hunter Warlick of Hickory.

Golf Events Are On Tap

Kings Mountain women golfers who plan to attend the final Foothills League Tourney for '65 next Thursday, Nov. 4th, at Lincoln Country Club are invited to register thei rnames with Mrs. Charles Mauney as soon as pos sible.

Tee-off time at the Lincolnton club is 9:30 a.m.

Also on the calendar for golfers is next Friday's Golf Day at the Gaston Country Club sponsored by the Women's Golf Association. Pattie Berg, nationally known golf pro, will play a ninehole exhibition golf match and conduct a free 30-minute golf clinic. She will also speak at the dutch luncheon to be held at 12 noon in the club dining room. Reservations for this event should also be made with Mrs.

Warlicks On Wedding Trip To Florida, Following 4:30 p.m. Rites On Sunday

Florida and afterwards make their new home at 502 cess crown of seed Crescent Hill came Mr. Warlick's bride Sunday in a 4:30 p.m. ceremony in day in a 4:30 pair. Ceremon. Rev. Fla. attended her sister as an according to the second Baptist church. Rev. Fla. attended her sister as an according to the tron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Oliver Tate, the trong rites.

Mrs. J. N. McClure was at the organ for the program of nuptial music and vocal selections were v Burlie S. Peeler, baritone, Mr. Peeler sang "Sweetest Story Ever lina college. Told" before the ceremony, "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee" after the bridal party had enterport is president of Rho chapter and Miss Margie Barringer of Hickory is disrign president. ed the sanctuary and before the the benediction.

awrence and Mrs. Myrtis Mack-y, were program consultants of all-white chrysanthemums and the society colors of red and gladioli and greenery interspers. gold were combined with autumn ed with background of Kentia foliage and arrangements in the palms and groupings of lighted the Woman's club. Arrangements of chrysanthemums were used as centerpieces for the tables.

Guests-of-honor were presented corsages of mums and boutonnieres marked the places of muns McClure played "O profession of the places of must be placed by the places of must be placed by the places of must be placed by the placed by Perfect Love" during the mony and the traditional march-Lyman Robbs escorted his sister to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of white peau de soie and bridal satin. Fashioned along empire Miss Jewel Robbs, whose wedding to John Warlick was an event of Sunday, was honor guest Saturday at a 12:30 bridesmalds luncheon given by Mrs. Is added to saturday at a more dinest fixed by the saturday at a more

Mr. and Mrs. Buford Robbs, took the occasion to present her course meal in the private din-attendants their headpieces for ing room of Holiday Inn in Gas-she pinned to the shoulder of her blue wool dress. She wore a matching hat and black accessorand Mr. Warlick was an event of Sunday afternoon in Second Baptist church.

add to GIRL SCOUTS ettes from Rutherfordton, Forest more Cadettes registered for this weekend than could be ac commodated. The Program Com-mittee has cheduled a repeat ses-sion for the weekend of Novem ber 13, according to Mrs. J. C. Little, Jr., chairman of the Pro-gram Committee. Leaders of Cadette troops are urged to register immediately at the Pioneer Council office.

American Legion Post 155 will sponsor a dance for members and guests Saturday night from 9 until 12 p.m. at the Legion Hall, York road. Buddy Estes and Band will provide lick are on a wedding trip to skirt. Her bouffant-length veil of

Miss Jewel Diane Robbs be-

Breakfast Fetes Engaged Pair

attendants their headpieces for the wedding and white shortie tonia.

The U shape tables were tonia with white banquet cloths.

Miss Robbs was presented a white glamellia corsage which

The wedding of Miss Robbs

Brownie

City, Ellenboro, Cherryville, Bel-mont, Mount Holly, Kings Moun tain, and Gastonia.

More Cadettes registered for

LEGION DANCE

Mr. and Mrs. John David War- ed from the back of the bell will illusion was draped from a prinsequins and she carried a cascade of white orchids surrounded by white feathered carnations.

Mrs. Vernon Tate of Tampa, bride's sister; Mrs. Tony Stone, Miss Diane Roberts, all of Kings Mountain, and Miss Grace Ledford of Mars Hill, the bride's sorority sister at Western Caro-

All the attendants wore formal-length gowns of Azalea Venice lace and petal pink featuring lace bodices with scoop necklines and ellow sleeves and sheath skirts. Cords of matching Azalea satin underscored the bod-The altar of the church was the backs. They were matching ter Times roses and light pink carnations. Flower girls were the bride's two nieces, Lynn Tate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Tate, and Karen Robbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Robbs. They were long dresses of white or ganza with empire waistlines accented by pink velvet bows with streamers. They wore white headdresses with circular tulle veils attached and carried bas-kets of pink flower petals.

David McDaniel, son of Mr.
and Mrs. Bill McDaniel, was ringbearer.

The bridegroom's brother. Hunter Warlick, of Hickory, was best man. The list of ushers in-cluded the bride's two brothers, Johnny and Buford Robbs: Donn Freeman, cousin of the groom and Jacob Dixon, all of Kings Mountain.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Robbs wore a street-length dress of green brocade with matching hat and veil and a corsage of white orchids.

The bridegroom's mother was gowned in beige wool with roll-ed brim hat of matching beige and a corsage of white orchids.

The bridegroom's grandmother chose cranberry with pink and cranberry accessories and a white glamellia shoulder corsage. Participating in the wedding as honorary bridesmaids were three sorority sisters of the bride, Misses Diane McDaniel, Trudy Cauthen and Marcia Kay Olsom, all students at Western Carolina college, and Misses Diane McDaniel, the college and Misses Diane McDaniel, and Students and Western Carolina college, and Misses Diane Misses D all students at Western Carolina college, and Misses Pattie How-ard, Laura Page and Sandr Spangler, all of Kings Mountai Mrs. Hunter Warlick, the bridegroom's sister-in-law, kept a guest register in the church ves-tibule where the bridal party formed a receiving line to greet wedding guests after the ceremony. For a wedding trip the new Mrs. Warlick chose a three-piece green knit suit featuring a multi-print blouse with green hat, prown skin accessories, kid gloves and the orchid lifted from her

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM
Mrs. Warlick is a daughter of Mrs. James Howard Robbs of Kings Mountain and the late Mr.
Robbs. A graduate of Kings Mountain high school, she has completed two years of study at Western Carolina college in Cullowhee where she was president of Sigma Kappa sorority.

Prior to her marriage she was employed in the accounting department of Fiber Industries at Earl. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. C. E. Warlick of Kings Mountain and the late Mr. Warlick. A graduate of Kings Mountain high school and Davidson college, he is a member of Sigma Epsilon fraternity. Active in the Kings Mountain Junior Chamber Estes and Band will provide music for dancing.

Waters from a hot spring at Palm Springs, Calif., are said to have curative powers.

Kings Mountain Junior Chamber of Commerce, he is associated with his family in the operatio of C. E. Warlick Insurance Age cy. He is grandson of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hunter Patterson of Kings Mountain.

SOUTHWELL

SEE WHAT TOTAL-PERFORMANCE REALLY ST. TEST DRIVE A

Southwell Ford

USED CAR