American Education Week Begins November 7; Proclamation Issued

To highlight activities of American Education Week Nov. 7-13, Mayor John Henry Moss Monday issued a proclamation designating the week of November 7-13 as a week for emphasizing the need for closer communication between schools and patrons and publicizing the activities of the various local schools as embodied in their curriculum.

Theme of the week's program is "Investment in Learning" and the mayor took the opportunity to indicate his interest in the public education available to local citizens. Citing the need for a continued and strengthened bond of support for quality education, the mayor issued the following proclamation:

A PROCLAMATION WHEREAS, Education for the children of all the people constitutes one of America's noblest contributions to civilization;

WHEREAS, Time and experience have demonstrated that universal education is essential to national progress;

WHEREAS, Education contributes not only to the development of a fuller and more useful life for the individual citizen but also to the safeguarding of the freedoms and ideals which we cherish as Americans;

AND WHEREAS, The setting aside of a special education week each year provides a fitting opportunity for the public generally to visit schools, colleges, and other educational institutions, to express their appreciation of the work of our teachers and school officials, and to exchange views upon educational problems and progress;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John Henry Moss, Mayor of Kings Mountain do hereby designate November 7-13 as American Education Week and urge all citizens to enter fully into its observance in order to demonstrate their appreciation of the work of our teachers, and to show their active support for every program designed to improve our schools and colleges, and to think of education not only in terms of its cost but also as the means to develop the greatest abilities of all our citizens.

Parker On Duty At Vietnam Base U. S. ARMY, VIETNAM (AHT-NC) - For the past several days combat-ready soldiers of the 1st Infantry Division have been landing in Vietnam.

One of the most recent arrivals is Specialist Four Billy D. Parker, whose wife, Janet, lives at 510 W. Gold St., Kings Mountain, N. C. Specialist Parker is a gunner with the division which was sent to Vietnam as a result of President Johnson's announced troop build-up there.

Of Parker and the rest of the men, Maj. Gen. Jonathan O. Seaman, commander of the division, recently said, "These men of the 1st Division are good, and they know it. They are trained and ready to meet the new face of war."

Specialist Parker entered the Army in February 1964 and received basic training at Fort Gordon, Ga. The 24-year-old soldier was graduated from Murphy High School in 1959 and was employed by the A & P Food Store, Shelby, before entering the Army. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius V. Parker, live on Route 1, Box 74, Marble.

PRESBYTERIAN Dr. Paul Ausley's sermon topic Sunday at First Presbyterian church will be on the theme, "Pay What You Vow".
