

Clubwomen To Hear White

State Senator Jack White will address members of the Kings Mountain Woman's club at their Monday night meeting at 7:45 p.m. at the clubhouse.

Prior to the Senator's address, members of the executive board will gather for a business meeting at 7 p.m. in the club lounge, Mrs. John Cheshire, president, reported.

Senator White, a Kings Mountain lawyer, who is completing his first term in the North Carolina Senate, has filed for re-election for one of two senatorships in the 27th state senatorial district in the May Democratic primary.

Educated at Wake Forest college undergraduate school and law school, he has served as solicitor and recorder's court judge here. He spent two years as an army sergeant 1944-46, and is a teacher of a Bible class at Kings Mountain Baptist church. His wife is the former Dorcas Cline of Fallston.

Party Honors Bride-Elect

Mrs. Leonard Smith and Mrs. Emmett Ross entertained together last Monday night at a bridal shower paying compliment to their niece, Miss Barbara Cable.

Miss Cable and Travis Hawkins were married Sunday.

Overlaid with white cutwork cloth, the refreshment table held a centerpiece of white glads and snapdragons. Cake squares, punch and potato chips were served tea-fashion.

Miss Cable wore a red lace and satin party dress and was given a corsage of white carnations and red Valentine hearts from the hostesses. The 20 guests showered the bride-elect with miscellaneous household gifts.

Miss Roark Honors Bridal Attendants

Bride-elect Anita Roark entertained February 13th at her home in Grover at a tea for her wedding attendants. She took the occasion to present gifts to members of the wedding party.

A color motif of pink and blue was featured in decorations. The tea table, overlaid with a blue cloth over white lace, held a center arrangement of pink flowers and pink candles. Pink punch was served with cake, mints and nuts.

Mrs. W. L. Roark, mother of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Nina Westmoreland, aunt of the bride-elect, assisted in entertaining.

The bride wore an ivory wool A-line dress featuring a jeweled neckline, short sleeves and street-length skirt. Her veil of illusion was attached to a bow of ivory wool and she carried a bouquet of white carnations atop a white Bible.

A reception was given by the bride's mother, an aunt, Mrs. Floyd Biggerstaff and a cousin, Mrs. Russell Piteford, in the church parlor immediately following the ceremony.

Assisting were Mrs. J. Boyce Brooks, Miss Trudy Shuford, Miss Mary Jo Griffin and Miss Sandra Lowery, all of Boone. Misses Lowery and Griffin were college roommates of the bride.

A color note of green and white was carried out in decorations. The bride's table held a central arrangement of white chrysanthemums flanked by white candles in silver holders. Wedding cake, mints and nuts were served.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM
The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Glenda Kiser Norville of Forest City and Robert Glen Norville of Mars Hill. She is majoring in Elementary Education and English at ASTC where her husband is a physics major. Mr. Huffman is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Huffman, Sr. of Kings Mountain.

Among wedding guests were the bridegroom's three brothers, Clyde and Ted Huffman, both of Kings Mountain, and Houston Huffman, student at Wofford college in Spartanburg, S. C.
