

Society News

Kings Mountain Herald
Thursday, February 24, 1966

Section B

MRS. TRAVIS RAY HAWKINS
(Barbara Lou Cable)

Miss Barbara Lou Cable, Travis Hawkins Pledge Vows In Double-Ring Ceremony

Miss Barbara Lou Cable became the bride of Travis Ray Hawkins Sunday in a 3 p.m. wedding in First Wesleyan Methodist church.

Rev. John Harris heard the couple pledge their vows before an altar banked with white chrysanthemums and greenery interspersed by groupings of cathedral candles in wrought-iron candelabra.

Mrs. Macy Jenkins was organist for the program of traditional music and Miss Carolyn Stewart college roommate of the bride, was vocalist. Miss Stewart sang "O Perfect Love" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" as the benediction.

The bride's gown was a formal-length design of white satin peau de soie featuring long sleeves, a princess neckline and bell skirt with detachable cathedral-length train. Her bouffant silk illusion veil was attached to a modified tiara of seed pearls and sequins, and she carried a white Bible topped with a yellow throated white orchid.

Miss Phyllis Cable attended her sister as maid of honor and only attendant. Her street-length gown of emerald green velvet had a scoop neckline and long sleeves. Her illusion veil was attached to a green velvet band and she carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Bill Hawkins was best man for his brother, and the list of ushers included A. R. Hawkins, Jr. brother of the bridegroom; Tommy Hawkins, cousin of the bridegroom; and Glenn Cable of Gastonia, the bride's brother.

The bride's mother wore a navy jacket dress with matching accessories and a shoulder bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom's mother chose a three-piece navy suit with matching accessories and a shoulder corsage of white chrysanthemums.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Ross, aunt and uncle of the bride, were hosts for the reception held after the ceremony in the Grace Methodist church fellowship hall. Overlaid with imported Irish linen, the bride's table was high light of decoration. A five-tier wedding cake, made by Mrs. Ross, was cut and served from one end of the table. Punch was served from a crystal service at the opposite end.

Centerpiece for the table was a candelabra of white, tapered flowers and ivy. Reception helpers were Mrs. Sammy Crawford, Mrs. Bob Propst, both of Gastonia, and Mrs. Gene Patterson and Mrs. Tommy Hawkins, both of Kings Mountain. Mrs. Bill Hawkins kept a guest register.

For a trip to Gatlinburg, Tennessee the new Mrs. Hawkins chose a green tweed suit with brown skin accessories and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM
Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Cable of Kings Mountain are parents of the bride. A graduate of Kings Mountain high school and Charlotte Memorial Hospital School of X-Ray Technology, she is employed by Gaston Memorial hospital.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hawkins, Sr. of Kings Mountain. A graduate of Kings Mountain high school, he is employed by Harris-Teeter Stores in Belmont. He has been a member of the Army Reserves for seven years.

The newlyweds will be at home at 202 West Second Avenue in Gastonia.

Crawfords In Columbia For Saturday Nuptials

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crawford, Sr., their daughter, Jane, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crawford, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. William B. Crawford spent the weekend in Columbia, S. C., going especially for the Saturday evening wedding of their cousin, Miss Nancy McRae Bird and William Carolye Patterson in Columbia's Park View Baptist church. A church reception followed.

On Sunday, the Kings Mountain party toured numerous historical places in Columbia, including the State Capitol, Governor's Mansion and the University of South Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bird of Columbia, S. C., spent Tuesday here with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crawford, Sr. and family.

MISS MABLE MARLENE WEIR is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sylvester Weir. They announce her engagement to Arthur Allen, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen, Sr. Both families are of Kings Mountain. The bride-elect attended St. Andrews college at Laurinburg and will graduate March 24th from Fashion Institute of America in Atlanta, Ga. The prospective bridegroom attended Eastern Carolina college. The wedding will be an event of May 15th in First Presbyterian church.

MRS. THOMAS OLIN HUFFMAN
(Diane Marie Norville)

Miss Diane Norville, T. Olin Huffman Wed In Boone Church Ceremony Feb. 12

Boone's First Baptist Church Chapel provided the setting February 12th for the wedding of Miss Diane Marie Norville of Forest City and Thomas Olin Huffman of Kings Mountain. Both the bride and bridegroom are students at Appalachian State Teacher's college.

Rev. J. Boyce Brooks officiated

MRS. JAKE EUGENE ROSS
(Anita Cornell Roark)

Double-Ring Church Rites On Saturday Unite Anita Roark, Jake Eugene Ross

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Eugene Ross, wed Saturday, are at home in Grover following a wedding trip to the North Carolina mountains.

Miss Anita Cornell Roark became the bride of Mr. Ross Saturday in a 7 p.m. double-ring ceremony in Grover's First Baptist church. Rev. Fred Crisp was the officiating minister.

Miss Sally McGill, organist, and Wayne Brown, both of Blacksburg, S. C., presented the nuptial music. Mr. Brown sang "I Love You Truly" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" as the benediction.

The church altar was banked by greenery, centered by two at the 3:30 p.m. ceremony performed in the presence of members of the two families and college friends.

Miss Sylvia Southard of Dalton, Ga., was soloist for the program of wedding music and Miss Ann Horton of Gaffney, S. C. was at the organ. The altar candles were lighted by Russell Pitchford of Bostic, cousin of the baskets of white glads and mums and lighted by cathedral tapers in wrought-iron candelabra.

(Continued On Page Two)

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white tulle and Chantilly lace over bridal satin. The fitted bodice was trimmed with sequins and pearls, and the gown had long, traditional sleeves. A satin petal hat trimmed with pearls and crystals held her bouffant illusion veil. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible.

Miss Jeannie Blacklock of Blacksburg, S. C. was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Linda Roark, Miss Sandra Wilburn and Mrs. Dean Wisler, all of Blacksburg, and Miss Ellen McDaniel of Grover.

All the attendants wore waltz-length gowns of mint green satin designed along empire lines with long sleeves. They wore matching satin veiled hats and carried bouquets of yellow mums.

Susie Ross, cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a white organdie dress and carried a yellow flower basket filled with yellow mum petals.

Eddie Troublemfield of Blacksburg was best man. Ushers were Joe Ross of Blacksburg, the bridegroom's brother, Billy Roark of Grover, the bride's brother, Steve Jenkins of Bessemer City, and Wayne Phillips of Gaffney. Billy Beason of Gaffney was ringbearer.

Mrs. Wendell White of Grover kept a guest register in the vestibule of the church.

The bride's mother wore a blue crepe street-length dress featuring a lace bodice with a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother chose blue brocade with a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. H. G. Pheagin of Kings Mountain, grandmother of the bride, wore an aqua dress with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

For a wedding trip the new Mrs. Ross wore a navy blue dress with cutaway jacket, patent accessories and the orchid lifted from her bouquet.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM
Mrs. Ross is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Roark of Grover. A Blacksburg high school graduate, she attended Winthrop college and now is employed as a clerk-typist by Massachusetts Mohair Plush Company.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Whitney W. Ross of Blacksburg. A Blacksburg high school graduate, he is employed as a laboratory technician at Gaffney Manufacturing Co.

Parties Honor Bride-Elect; Young Folk Celebrate Western Style

Bride-elect Janie Trammell was honored at two bridal parties recently.

Mrs. Kenneth Davis, entertained Saturday at her home at dessert-bridge. Tables were laid for refreshments at the beginning of the party, and Mrs. Davis, assisted by Mrs. Coman Falls, served a dessert course. A color note of pink and white was carried out in decorations.

High score went to Miss Kay Mauney and low was held by Mrs. Jimmy Littlejohn.

Miss Trammell was remembered with a corsage from the hostess and a gift of crystal in her bridal pattern. Miss Kay Mauney, bride-elect, was also remembered with a gift from the hostess.

A lingerie shower February 12th at the home of Mrs. James E. Littlejohn honored Miss Trammell, whose wedding to Joseph Bruce Summey takes place March 4th.

Entertaining together were Mrs. Littlejohn's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Jimmy Littlejohn, and Mrs. Jeff Adams of Columbia, S. C., the former Linda Bennett of Kings Mountain.

Twenty guests attended.

Miss Trammell was given a corsage of pink roses which she pinned to her white wool party dress.

A pink and green color theme was carried out in decorations and refreshments.

About This N' That

Cynthia Ann Jolly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Jolly, celebrated her 16th birthday at a dance attended by over 100 young people Saturday night at the Woman's club.

The ballroom of the clubhouse was gay with records and pink musical notes along the walls. Overlaid with a pink cloth, the refreshment table held a pink and white three-tier cake as decorative highlight. Petit-fours were served with cake, potato chips and pink punch.

Cindy's paternal grandmother, Mrs. Clarence L. Jolly; her aunt, Mrs. Ken Kiser of Bessemer City; and Mrs. James Bell assisted in serving and entertaining.

Musical dancing was provided by "The Dantes." Miss Jolly's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James Rob-

Jane Elizabeth Kincaid, daughter of Mrs. Lossie Lynch Kincaid of Charlotte, was honored on her fourth birthday at a party Friday at the home of her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Lynch, on Ridge street.

Jane's birthday was Sunday.

The pink decorated cake was topped with a ballerina doll and centered the refreshment table. The cake was served with ice cream. Party favors were whistles, candy canes, books and balloons.

Children present for the party were Carla Mauney, Ann Thomasson, Pat, Sally and Julie Durham, Rick and Bonnie Hinnant, Virginia, Robert and David Herndon, John, Carl and Ashley Plonk, Darrell Austin, Jr. and Melissa Neisler.

Out-of-town guests were from Shelby and Gastonia.

A post-rehearsal party Saturday night in the fellowship hall of First Wesleyan Methodist church honored Miss Barbara Cable and Travis Hawkins, whose marriage took place Sunday.

Sharing hostess duties were Mrs. Bill Hawkins and Mrs. James Rushing.

A green and white motif was featured in decorations and refreshments. The couple took the occasion to present their gifts to their wedding attendants.

Troop 155 Girl Scouts held a Valentine party Thursday to highlight their regular meeting at First Presbyterian church. Members of the Star Patrol, of which Martha Weiss is leader, were hostesses.

Cupcakes and cookies were served. The Patrol gave candy hearts, valentines, and other refreshments to members of the Peddler Patrol as a Valentine Day project. Mrs. Sam Robinson is troop leader and Nancy Wiesener is troop scribe.

Young folk attending young Darrell Austin's fifth birthday party Saturday morning came dressed in western duds and played western-style games and contests in a large chuckwagon constructed in the fellowship hall of First Presbyterian church.

The party was arranged by Darrell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Austin.

The horseshoe-shaped birthday cake was centerpiece for the refreshment table from which hotdogs, baked beans and potato chips were served. Favors were cowboy neckerchiefs, and the western theme was repeated in totem poles, brands on the walls, and signs pointing to "Snake Lake", "Hangman's Tree" and "Shady Canyon".

Grandparents of Darrell are Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Falls of Charlotte and Mrs. Wister Walker of Gastonia. Mrs. Paul Ware, Sandy and Steve Southwell and Lynn Walker assisting in entertaining.

The youngsters pinned the badge on the sheriff and held a shootin' contest, among other fun games.

Attending were Jean and June Ware, Pat and Sallee Durham, Jeff Moss, Hayne and David Neisler, John David Reed, Melissa Neisler, Chip Harmon, Jimmy Fulton, Barbara Rhea, Robert and David Herndon, Sarah Maner, Kelley and Mary Adams, Greg McGinnis, David Barreff, Ann Thomasson, Chuck and Brad Austin, Douglas and Kathy Sincox, John Plonk, Elizabeth Herndon, Nancy Lee, Jane Kincaid of Charlotte and Suzanne Hartsell and Kelley Walker, both of Gastonia.

It's A Girl

Mr. and Mrs. Sal Moreno of Columbia, S. C. announce the arrival of a daughter, Saturday, February 19. Mrs. Moreno is the former Janice Stogner, daughter of Mrs. Joe Goforth of Kings Mountain.

Miss Anita Roark and Jake Ross cut their wedding cake Friday night at an after-rehearsal party held at the Roark home in Grover.

Mrs. Nina Westmoreland, aunt of the bride-elect, was hostess to members of the wedding party and close friends of the couple.

The wedding theme of mint green and yellow was carried out in decorative details. Overlaid with mint green brocade and yellow net, the bride's table held a three-tier white, yellow and green cake as central decoration.

Mrs. O. D. Jenkins, aunt of the bride-elect, served the cake. Mrs. David Herndon served lime punch. An arrangement of yellow mums and white tapers was also used on the table.

Miss Roark wore a yellow brocade party dress.

Mr. Ross took the occasion to present his gifts to groomsmen.