MRS. JACKY LAMONT RHEA
(Sandra Jean Lynn)

Miss Sandra Jean Lynn, Jacky L. Rhea Wed Sunday In Double-Ring Ceremony

Bethlehem Baptist church provided the setting Sunday for a 3 p.m. wedding uniting Miss Sandra Jean Lynn and Jacky Lamont Rhea in marriage.

The Rev. James F. Graham, minister of the church, officiated using the double-ring ceremony. Wayne L. Ware was organist for the program of traditional music and Kenneth Smith was soloist. Mr. Smith sang "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee" before the ceremony and "Wedding Prayer" as the benediction.

The church altar was arranged with palms and candelabra holding cathedral tapers. Baskets of white glads were used at either side of the altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown designed by her mother of white peau de soie and Chantilly lace. Fashioned along empire lines, the dress had a lace bodice, long lace sleeves and a sheath skirt highlighted by a full-length lace train. Her fingertip-length veil was draped from a tiara of pearls and aurora crystals and she carried cymbidium orchids and valley lilies atop a white lace-covered Bible. The pearl necklace she wore was a wedding gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Ginger Lynn attended her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids included Miss June Marlowe, Miss Donna Eaker, Miss Susan Lowery and Miss Hilda Lowery, cousins of the bride.

All the attendants wore formal gowns of pale orchid peau de soie styled along empire lines with cap sleeves and scoop necklines. Their matching bandeaus were worn with circular tulle veils and they carried bouquets of pink Shasta daisies and gypsophila.

Kim Herndon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herndon and cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a long dress of pale pink styled like those worn by the adult attendants and carried a basket of pink flower petals.

David Lynn, brother of the bride, carried the rings. Buddy Lynn, the bride's brother, and Mickey Rhea, brother of the bridegroom, were acolytes.

Best man for the bridegroom was his father. The list of ushers included Steve Moss, Vernon Morgan, Don Bumgardner and Alfred Queen.

The bride's mother was gowned in mist blue crepe with matching accessories and a corsage of orchids.

The bridegroom's mother chose a beige dress with green tulle hat and a corsage of green cymbidium orchids.

Miss Gloria McCarter kept a guest register in the vestibule of the church.

Mrs. Grady McCarter directed the wedding.

For a wedding trip to Washington, D. C. the new Mrs. Rhea chose an aqua blue suit with matching accessories and the orchids lifted from her bouquet.

Wedding guests included those from Charlotte, Shelby, Grover, and Kings Mountain. Attending from Marion were Mrs. Guy Nanney and Charles Parker, Gary and Joey Parker. Also attending was Miss Sandra Whitworth of Belmont.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM
Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy S. Lynn, the bride is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and Southeastern College of Beauty Culture. She is a member of the staff of Knox-Kurtz on Shelby road.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rhea of Grover. A graduate of Kings Mountain high school and Gastonia Industrial Education Center, he is employed by Hammett Machine Company in Grover.

The newlyweds will occupy a mobile home on Shelby road.

MRS. JERRY DIXON HUFFSTETLER
(Barbara Lynn Schweizer)

Huffstetlers At Home In Savannah, Ga. Following Alabama Wedding Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dixon Huffstetler are at home in Savannah, Ga. following their wedding March 12th in Lakewood Presbyterian church of Huntsville, Ala.

The bride is the former Barbara Lynn Schweizer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Schweizer of Huntsville. A/C Huffstetler is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Theodore Huffstetler of Kings Mountain.

Rev. Francis Perrin heard the 7 p.m. vows for which music was provided by Curley Mann, soloist, and Mrs. Jack Lail of Kings Mountain, organist. Mrs. Lail is sister of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of peau de soie and hand-clipped lace. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a scooped neckline edged in petals of Alencon lace and long fitted sleeves ending in calla points. The oval wattleau train was encrusted with medallions of lace. A pearl crown held her fingertip bouffant veil of illusion and she carried a bouquet of white roses and orchids.

Maid of honor was Miss Dorothy Wedell of Huntsville. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Henry Ratajczak of Satellite Beach, Fla., Miss Margie Huffstetler of Kings Mountain, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Ann Brown of Huntsville. Miss Nancy Thompson of Huntsville was flower girl.

The attendants wore floor-length gowns of jonquil silk organza. A softly pleated panel of matching organza was attached with tiny bows at the neck. Their headpieces were pale yellow and green crushed silk flowers with pale yellow veils. Each carried a long-stemmed yellow rose.

The flower girl wore a long dress of jonquil yellow chiffon with a yellow lace bodice and a yellow satin sash. She carried a white basket with yellow rose petals.

Mr. Huffstetler was his son's best man. Ushers were Charles M. Schweizer, brother of the bride, Bruce Huffstetler of Huntsville and Bobby Huffstetler of Charlotte, brothers of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother was gowned in apricot lace and silk organza with matching hat and gloves and an orchid shoulder corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose turquoise crepe with matching hat and patent accessories and an orchid shoulder corsage.

A reception was held after the ceremony in the Azalea Room of the Albert Pick Motel. The yellow and white and green wedding theme was predominant in the decorations. Overlaid with white cutwork, the bride's table held a four-tier cake as central decoration. Mrs. Bruce Huffstetler cut and served the cake, and Mrs. J. D. Moss, Jr. served punch. At the center of the table was a candelabrum of tapers and white flowers.

For a wedding trip the new Mrs. Huffstetler chose a navy blue and white suit with a navy and white hat, red accessories and the orchids lifted from her bouquet.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM
The bride is a graduate of Jones Business college of Jacksonville, Fla. and is a stenographer for Boeing Company in Huntsville.

The bridegroom, now in the USAF at Hunter AFB, Ga., is a graduate of Grover high school and attended Appalachian State Teacher's college.

Attending the wedding from this area were the bridegroom's parents; his sisters, Mrs. J. D. Moss, Jr. of Charlotte, Mrs. Jack Lail, Mrs. Jack Hardin, Mrs. Clyde McDaniel, all of Kings Mountain; Mrs. Johnny Thomas of Spartanburg, S. C.; Mrs. Mitchell Robinson of Gastonia; and Miss Margie Huffstetler, student at ASTC, Boone. Also, his brother, Bobby Huffstetler of Charlotte and his brother-in-law, J. D. Moss, Jr. of Charlotte.

Shower Fetes Barbara Miller

A drop-in shower last Saturday evening at Temple Baptist church honored Barbara Miller, whose wedding to Robert Yarbrough takes place April 8. Sharing hostess duties were Mrs. Jane Morehead and Mrs. Linda Yarbrough.

A color note of green and white was used in decorations and refreshments. A lace cloth over green taffeta covered the refreshment table.

Miss Miller was given a novelty corsage which she pinned to the shoulder of her white and navy dress.

A large number of guests showered Miss Miller with miscellaneous gifts between the hours of 7 and 9 p.m.

Baitys Note Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Baity celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Tuesday.

The Baitys and their five children and grandchildren gathered at their home at 804 Fourth street for a small family party.

An anniversary cake was cut and served with other refreshments.

Pair Feted After Rehearsal

Miss Sandra Lynn and Jacky Rhea were honored after their wedding rehearsal Saturday night at a cake cutting in the fellowship hall of Bethlehem Baptist church.

Hosts for the party were the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Lynn; Mr. and Mrs. Hill Lowery and Mr. and Mrs. Kelly McCarter.

Overlaid with white cutwork over pink, the refreshment table was highlight of decoration. A candelabrum of pink tapers and flowers centered the table. Pink punch was served from a punch service at one end. At the opposite end of the table was a three-tier cake iced in pale pink.

Mrs. Tommy Carlisle cut and served the cake and Mrs. Phil Roark served punch. Also assisting in details of entertaining were Mrs. Grady McCarter, who directed the Sunday wedding; Miss Margaret Ledford and Miss Vickie Moss.

The bride-to-be wore a pink and white lace dress with patent accessories.

Lowerys Honor Sandra Lynn

Mrs. Hill Lowery and her daughter, Miss Hilda Lowery, entertained together Saturday at a 1 o'clock bridesmaids luncheon at their home paying compliment to Miss Sandra Lynn, bride-elect.

Miss Lynn and Jacky Rhea were wed Sunday in Bethlehem Baptist church rites.

The bride-elect took the occasion to present her gifts to her attendants—white shortie gloves and their headpieces for the wedding. Miss Lynn wore a pink linen suit and was given a bouquet of violets and miniature Easter lilies on a lace handkerchief. The Lowerys also gave Miss Lynn gifts of silver in her pattern.

The wedding theme of pink was carried out in decorations. Pansies and carnations were used on the tables and throughout the house.

A three-course luncheon was served to members of the bridal party, including mothers of the bride-elect and prospective bridegroom.

Miss Mauney Party Honoree

Miss Kay Mauney, whose wedding to William Berkeley will be an event of Saturday, was honor guest at two parties Saturday.

In Charlotte at Tulip Terrace of Ivey's Miss Dottie McDougale and her mother entertained at a luncheon for 14 guests.

Attending from Kings Mountain were the bride-to-be; her mother, Mrs. Carl F. Mauney; Mrs. P. G. Padgett; Mrs. H. Carl Mayes; and Mrs. John Warlick.

The honoree received a carnation shoulder corsage and a gift of crystal from the hostesses.

Guests were 18 of the bride-to-be's college friends.

Miss Mauney was given a corsage of pink camellias matching her rose sheath dress.

The table was covered with a linen cutwork cloth centered by a pedestal container of pink camellias. The foyer and living room were decorative with camellias, violets, white daffodils and other spring flowers.

A four-course dinner was served by Mrs. W. L. Ramseur, Mrs. Harry E. Page and Mrs. Harold Hunicutt, mothers of the hostesses.

Following dinner the hostesses gave Miss Mauney a set of linen place mats.

Local Students Receive Honors

Laura Jean Page, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Page, was elected this week to serve as president of the Philaretian Society of Meredith College for the 1966-67 school term.

The Philaretian Society is one of two service organizations at Meredith. The Phil work with handicapped children in the Raleigh area, treating them to a Christmas party each year. The society also plans freshman rush week which is climaxed by the pledging of freshmen into one of the societies.

While at Meredith, Miss Page, a rising senior, has served as vice-president of the Philaretian Society, and class editor of The Oak Leaves. She has also been on the council of the Meredith Christian Association and the Student Activities Board.

Miss Page, a 1963 graduate of Kings Mountain high school, is a history major and she plans to teach after graduation.

Children of Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. McDaniel, Jr. celebrated birthdays in March.

Ricky McDaniel, age seven on March 18th, and Cathy McDaniel, age four on March 21st, held a double celebration on Cathy's birthday.

A birthday cake was cut and served with other party refreshments at a small family party.

The McDaniel children are grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Murphy Hill. Their great-grandmother is Mrs. W. F. Styers.

Anne Trott, Kings Mountain freshman student at LeNoir Rhyne college in Hickory, has been formally initiated into Sigma Kappa sorority. The newly-initiated members were honored at a presentation ball in the L-R Student Center recently.

Attending the festivities from Kings Mountain were Miss Trott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Trott, and her sister, Miss Libby Trott.

At the initiation ceremonies Miss Trott received the scholarship award given in her pledge class. An education major, she was listed on the dean's list the past semester.

Miss Trott spent the past weekend with her parents.

Party Time

Spring holidays from Queen's college at Charlotte have been a round of parties in Coral Gables, Fla. for Linda Walker, Kings Mountain junior, and her roommate, Jo Anne Hendricks of Coral Gables.

The two girls spent from Thursday until Sunday with Jo Ann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hendricks.

Thursday they attended a luncheon given in honor of Nancy McCleod Hooper, recent bride and a Queen's college classmate. Friday evening they and their dates were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. George Ramsh, Jr. at Coral Reed Yacht Club. Saturday they attended a tea in honor of a former North Carolinian and Miami debutante Elizabeth Blackwell. Miss Blackwell's aunt, Mrs. Thomas Blackwell, entertained in North Miami.

Miss Walker also toured the Biscaya Estate of the late James Deering and attended the annual charity fair of the Biscaya Museum Guild.

Bridal parties are in full swing here as numerous Kings Mountain couples plan spring weddings.

Sue Welch and Scott Horton, who will wed April 9th, were honored Sunday at a White Bible ceremony held at Youth Sunday services at Macedonia Baptist church.
