

Librarian Attends Convention; Spring Weather Takes Local Folk To Golf Course

Mrs. E. W. Neal attended a three-day state convention of Delta Kappa Gamma International Friday through Sunday at Sir Walter Hotel in Raleigh.

ne Memorial Library.

Mrs. O. Max Gardner, Sr. of Shelby was recognized as an honorary member of the society during the convention.

A memorial service at Sunday's closing session paid tribute to deceased members, including Dr. Laura Plonk of Asheville, Kipps Mountain native.

Dr. Eugenia Hunter of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, state president of DKG, presided.

A former teacher, Mrs. Neal is a member of the library staff of Jacob S. Mauney Memorial Library.

Thirty-six local golfers played a Scotch Foursome Sunday afternoon at Kings Mountain Country Club golf course.

Top Duffers trophy for the day went to Audrey (Mrs. Jimmy) Dickey and H. O. (Toby) Williams.

Other prizes were awarded: Jack Arnette and Bobbie (Mrs. Walter) Harmon, lowest putts. Clinton Jolly and Ann (Mrs. Fred) Withers, surprise hole. Darrell Austin and Marion

(Mrs. George) Thomasson, lowest scores. Tolly Shuford and Sylvia (Mrs. Ray) Holmes, closest to hole. In a Scotch Foursome both partners tee off. They select the best drive, if it's the man's drive the partner takes the next shot. Each partner takes each alternate stroke. The accompanying photographs were made by Lem Lynch. Seated and standing around a reservations table are Mrs. Charles

Carpenter, Mrs. H. D. McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. Coman Falls, Jim Lybrand, Jim Dickey, Mrs. Charles Adams and George B. Thomasson. Jack Arnette is teeing off in the second picture and other golfers are Mrs. Carl Mayes, Chuck Adams and Mrs. Walter Harmon. Following golf, buffet supper was served in the club dining room. The Scotch Foursome was planned by Women's Golf Association.

About This N' That

A surprise party Sunday at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Parker here honored Mr. and Mrs. John Paul Parker of Lincolnton on their 25th wedding anniversary. John Paul Parker is son of the host couple.

Dinner was served to family members, including Mrs. Annabelle Blaylock, mother of Mrs. John Paul Parker, and children of the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Parker and son, Jamie, and Rev. and Mrs. Robert Parker and sons, Bobby and Joey, all of Lincolnton.

Two cakes provided central decoration for the buffet table. A three-tier anniversary cake was topped with bride and bridegroom figurine and a blue and white cake was topped with a doll in a blue dress. Bridal wreath and spring flowers were used in an arrangement at the center of the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker, brother and sister-in-law of the guests-of-honor, also attended with family members.

Clyde Blaylock, father of Mrs. John Paul Parker, was unable to attend because of illness. Mr. Parker is recuperating from surgery.

Sigma Chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa met at the home of Mrs. A. E. Yarbro Thursday evening.

President Minnie Ann Forney presided. Miss Jacqueline Blanton presented Mrs. Martin Harmon, piano teacher, and Miss Linda Walker, Queens college student, who presented a musical program.

During the social hour Mrs. Annie Lee Driver and Miss Helen Logan, hostesses, served homemade cake with salted nuts, cheese puffs, mints and strawberry punch.

Miss Carolyn Heavner and her ASTC roommates, Lyndall Wood of Union Grove and Rebecca Wright of Dallas, spent the weekend with Miss Heavner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Plato Heavner.

Sunday dinner guests of the Heavners, in addition to their house-guests, were Bill Rhyne of Cherryville, Michael Campbell of Union Grove and Phil Warlick of Shelby.

Donald Lee Parker, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lee Parker, Jr. of Wichita Falls, Texas, celebrated his second birthday Monday, May 2.

A small family birthday party was held at the home of young Parker's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Henry, in Wichita Falls. A decorated birthday cake was served with other party refreshments.

Young Parker is grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Parker of Kings Mountain.

The Parkers reside in Wichita Falls at 2103 Jones street.

Comings And Goings

Chief Warrant Officer Charles Wright and his wife, Andrea, are here from Seneca, New York for a 10-day leave with Wright's mother, Mrs. Rosa Wright.

Wright will be leaving in June for Korea where he is being assigned for one year.

Dr. and Mrs. Herman Easom of Wilson visited during the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Mauney.

Six area representatives of Liberty Life Insurance Company and their wives left yesterday for a five-day stay in Hollywood Beach, Fla., compliments of the company honoring them for top sales performance in 1965.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Roark, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Beam, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morehead, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hamrick, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Black and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Shipman. Shipman will report for a tour of Army duty following the trip.

Mrs. Randolph Carter of Elberton, Ga. spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Smith. The Carters are moving this week to Atlanta.

Misses Armittie Farris, Elizabeth Stewart, Gale Farris, Linda Ross and Paul Farris spent Sunday at Sumter AFB, S. C., where they visited Sgt. and Mrs. Ray Carroll and sons, Edwin and Timmy. Mrs. Carroll is sister of the Farris.

They attended morning church services at Hickory Road Baptist church and visited the Air Force Base during the afternoon.

(Continued On Page Two, Section B)

Society News

Kings Mountain Herald

Thursday, May 5, 1966

Section B

Local Girls To Make Debut; Girl Scouts Held Skill-O-Rama

MISS MCDANIEL

MISS MOSS

MISS PLONK

Three Kings Mountain young women will be among the 99 presented to Western North Carolina society at the Shelby Junior Charity League's 1966 Sub-Debutante Ball June 10-11 in Shelby.

To make their debut will be: Sheryl Atwood McDaniel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Atwood McDaniel, Jr.; Sara Nell Moss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wingfield Moss.

Linda Ellen Plonk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wray Augustus Plonk, Sr.

Jones is assistant chairman. Mrs. L. W. Short is debutante secretary and her assistant is Mrs. Ralph Gilbert. Mrs. Harvey Hamrick is League president.

The Sub-Debutante ball had its beginning 21 years ago when the late Mrs. Dan Paul, the former Miss Isabel Hoey, initiated the occasion. Since that time the gala event is anticipated by young ladies of high school graduating age throughout Western North Carolina as the highlight of a glamorous social season.

Invitations are issued each year to a select group of young women who are members of senior classes in Cleveland and surrounding counties. Date of the Ball is scheduled each year on the weekend following one of the most significant weeks in their lives in which they have been awarded high school diplomas. Shedding their caps and gowns for party dresses and social whirls, the young debs and their escorts begin a round of events prior to the Ball which leads to the formal presentation on Saturday night, June 11. Each deb wears a long white formal gown, long white gloves and carries a tied with red satin bows and streamers.

Following the presentation, debs and their escorts in black tails, will form a figure to music by Lounis McGlohon. Ballroom dancing will be enjoyed by all until midnight.

Fifty-seven Girl Scouts representing 11 patrols of three Junior troops and one Cadette troop from the Kings Mountain area participated in a Skill-O-Rama Saturday on the grounds of Bethware school.

They pitched tents, built fires, practiced first aid and conducted numerous activities during a busy five-hour schedule. Prizes were awarded to top Scouts who also displayed their woodcarving abilities, musicianship, and excellence in athletics. The troop leaders' event provided most popular with the girls and Mrs. Sam Robinson, Troop 155 leader at First Presbyterian church, was voted the winner.

Judges in the girls' event were all Scout leaders from the Piedmont Girl Scout Council and in-

GIRL SCOUTS PITCH TENTS — Kings Mountain Girl Scouts took part in a Skill-O-Rama Saturday at Bethware school. From left, Libby Dye, Terry Wells, Cynthia Robinson, Jan Willis and Stella Lee Neisler exhibit their skills. They are all Troop 155 Junior Girl Scouts. (Photo by David Gladden)

Continued On Page 2 Section B