Miss DEEDS
 by Jan Christensen

News items this week from Granville, Currituck, Polk, Cabarrus, Yadkin and Robeson counties.

BUSY WITH BERRIES
 Forty-two 4-H'ers in Granville County are busy nursing the strawberry plants they received through the 4-H strawberry chain, reports Barbara A. Langdon, assistant home economics extension agent.

Each 4-H'er attending the strawing meeting received 500 plants and was given instructions on how to plant and care for them.

"Chances are the strawberry yield in Granville County will be bigger and better than ever, due to the 4-H'ers efforts," Miss Langdon predicts.

CRAFTSMAN'S FAIR

HAILED SUCCESS
 "The Albemarle Craftsman's Fair, held in Elizabeth City on April 20 and 21 was a big success," reports Mrs. Elizabeth P. Sanderlin, home economics extension agent, Currituck County.

Over 1,719 people watched area craftsmen transform simple items into works of beauty and usefulness. In addition, visitors bought $1,306.65 worth of craft items from the demonstrators.

BETTER STUDY LAMPS

"There are 49 Polk County teenagers who now have better study lamps thanks to their enrollment in the 4-H electricity project," Eloise T. Johnson, assistant home economics extension agent, says.

Each 4-H member made his own lamp. Each lamp is 25 inches high, heavily weighted, and comes equipped with a white shade. To give his lamp an individual look, each 4-H member was encouraged to make his own lampshade and to paint the lamp base a color that would harmonize with the color scheme in his study room.

PIONEER SPIRIT

Ever attend a meeting where another guest left suddenly, without explanation? If so, you've had the same experience as Peggy Burke, home economics extension agent, Cabarrus County.

According to Miss Burke, the meeting of the Rimer Home Demonstration Club was progressing quietly and smoothly when the telephone rang. With a signal from the hostess, Mrs. Paige Bost darted out the front door, jumped into her car, and was gone like a streak of lightning. The meeting continued without interruption. Since most of the members seemed to know what was going on, no explanation was given. About 30 minutes later Mrs. Bost returned and reported there had been a brush fire about 4 miles down the road and everything was all right.

It seems most of the husbands in the Rimer Community work in town. If there is a fire during working hours, Mrs. Bost drives the fire engine and one of her lady friends operates the water wagon.

GOOD NEIGHBOR POLICY
 Mrs. Gray Casstevens, a member of the Jonesville Home Demonstration Club, Yadkin County, says she makes good use of the bulletins and pamphlets she receives at club meetings. She shares them with others.

Recently Mrs. Casstevens had a neighbor, a nonclub member, who was staying at the hospital with her husband. Mrs. Casstevens looked through her Extension bulletins, selected several, arranged them in a basket, and gave them to her neighbor. "The neighbor lady is telling everyone Mrs. Casstevens is the most thoughtful neighbor one could have," Irene Brown, home economics extension agent, notes.

OPEN HOUSE

"Open house at the newly renovated home of Mr. and Mrs. John Earl Cummings, Rowland, Rt. 1, was a delightful and educational experience for many of the 135 people that called," Mrs. Helen Sampson, associate home economics agent, Robeson County, reports. The house that once lacked adequate storage space, bathrooms and utility and study areas, now has all these — plus entrance hall, spacious kitchen with an eating area, and a double garage that is designed for a recreational area for their two daughters and friends.

Police Report Two Accidents

Kings Mountain police were called to the scenes of only two highway accidents during the past week.

No arrests were filed in either accident.

Officer Earl Stroupe, Jr., investigated both accidents, the first occurring at 9:00 Monday morning at the intersection of King Street and Piedmont Avenue.

Lee Roy Bailey was traveling north on Piedmont in a 1961 model Ford and struck a 1961 Mack driven by George Robinson of Indiana. Damages were reported at $150 to the Ford and $45 to Robinson's vehicle.

Dan Boheler received minor injuries in an accident around 12:10 p.m. Monday when the 1958 Ford he was driving struck the rear of a 1959 Chevrolet operated by Lawrence Owensby, also of Route 2.

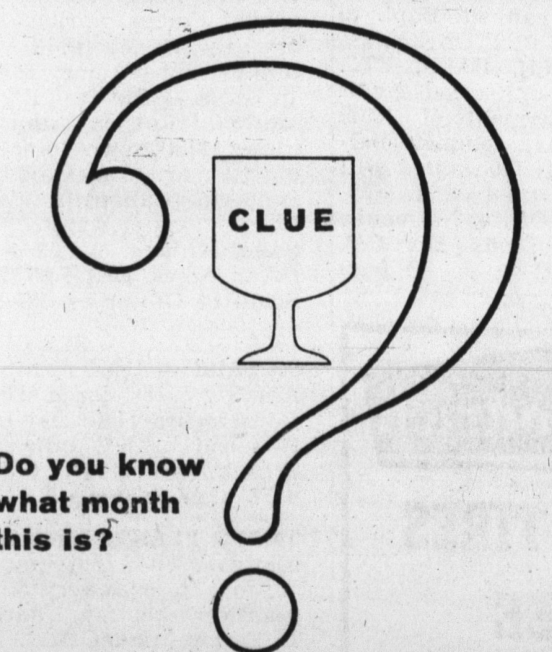

The accident occurred on Battleground Avenue, about 600 feet north of its intersection with Wells Street.

Damages were listed at $500 to the Ford and $200 to the Chevy.

Do you know what month this is?

MAY IS NATIONAL TAVERN MONTH

This is National Tavern Month—the time when America's brewers pay special tribute to the friendly folk who serve the friendly brew. So why not stop by your favorite tavern, enjoy the great refreshing flavor of a nice cool beer, and mention casually to the tavern-keeper that you're glad he's there. We are.
