

Miss Marlene Weir, Arthur Allen, Jr. Reveal Plans For Sunday Wedding

Miss Marlene Weir, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Weir, Jr., has completed plans for her marriage to Arthur Allen, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen, Sr., and announces them this week.

The wedding will take place Sunday, May 15th, at 4 p.m. in First Presbyterian church. Dr. Paul Ausley will officiate at the double-ring ceremony for which music will be provided by Mrs. Darrell Austin, organist, and B. S. Peeler, Jr., vocalist.

Mrs. Fred Falls, Jr. of Fayetteville will attend her sister as matron of honor and the list of bridesmaids will include Miss Carole Powell of Hartsville, S. C., Miss Gail Bryan and Miss Sally Stagg, both of Augusta, Ga., roommates of the bride-to-be at Fashion Institute of America; and Miss Mary Lillian Lewis of Charlotte.

Miss Beverly Early of Lincolnton and Miss Susan Moss of Huntsville, Ala., cousins of the bride, will be junior attendants. Miss Lila Ann Moss of Huntsville, Ala. and Miss Mary Early of Lincolnton, cousins of the bride, will be flower girl.

The bride-elect will be given in marriage by her father. Best man for Mr. Allen will be his father.

Darrell Austin, Jr. will be ringbearer.

The list of ushers will include Jimmy Black of Clover, S. C., John Owens of Kings Mountain, cousins of the bridegroom-elect, Ray Botts of Midlothian, Va. and Rev. Fred Falls of Fayetteville, brother-in-law of the bride-to-be.

Honorary attendants will include Misses Janice Thornton of Manassas, Va., Sara Lennon, Jane Houser and Sue Hunnicutt, all of Kings Mountain.

Mrs. Paul Ausley will direct the wedding.

A reception will be given by the bride-elect's parents after the ceremony in the church fellowship hall.

Miss Miller, Ronney E. Cole Plan June Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Miller of Belmont announce the engagement of their daughter, Joy Priscilla, to Ronney E. Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Cole, Sr. of Kings Mountain.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Belmont high school and Belmont Textile School of Designing. She is Division Manager for Sears-Roebuck Stores in Gastonia.

Mr. Cole is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and Gardner Webb Junior college. He is employed by Smith Chevrolet Company in Gastonia.

The couple plan a June 26 wedding in Kings Mountain's First Baptist church.

Women Held Birthday Party

Annual Birthday Party of the Women of Dixon Presbyterian church was held Saturday.

A covered dish supper was served in the fellowship hall. Centering the main table was a yellow and white birthday cake decorated by Mrs. Tom Humphries. The cake was flanked by yellow tapers. An arrangement of yellow roses was also used on the table.

The invocation was offered by Rev. Claude Hinson of Dallas, brother-in-law of Mrs. Humphries. Mr. and Mrs. Hinson were present as visitors, along with Luther Cansler.

Mr. Cansler showed films detailing the 1966 Birthday Project as program highlight. This year's offering will go to poverty-stricken families in Kentucky.

Miss Gerry Humphries opened the program by reading scripture and giving a devotional. She also closed the program with prayer.

FIX-IT TIP

To remove linoleum, work one corner loose and pull it up in chunks. Then soak the felt paper base with wet newspapers.

After the old felt is soggy, scrape it off and wipe up the muddy remnants of cement and paper. If there isn't any felt base, you'll have to chisel old linoleum off in little chunks.

Mothers See New Look In Summerwear At FHA Mother-Daughter Banquet Here

Future Homemakers treated their mothers and guests to a fashion show at the annual FHA Mother-Daughter banquet Thursday night at Kings Mountain high school.

Eight FHA'ers modeled summerwear ranging from angelskin skirt and sweater sets to mix-match outfits for beach, home and travel in shorts, tops and skirts in buttercup yellow, prints, heatherspun, orange skimmers, burgundy Poor Boy tops and white slacks featuring stovepipe legs.

The skirts were longer and the dresses were of washable cotton featuring belted or blouse-type waistlines with easy skirts. Crowd favorites were several dresses by French designers in a price range of $25-$30. Kathy Plonk modeled a navy and yellow linen sleeveless cocktail dress which had a tiered look. Nancy Rayfield's white linen skimmer was accented at the hemline by bold green, white and black stripes. Sandy Rayfield's white linen A-line featured a rolled collar of green and two rows of green trimming at the hemline. Jane Morris modeled a two-tone yellow and orchid linen which was a sunback dress with spaghetti straps topped by a weskit-effect bolero.

Other models were June Frederick, Janet Spangler, Sharon Gold and Cathy Carroll. The clothing was furnished by The Closethorse of Shelby and Charles Logan was show commentator.

Entertainment feature was a novelty act, "The Hokey-Pokey", by Susan Lowery, Susan White, Donna Crawford, Vickie Lynn and Ginger Turner.

The opening ritual was led by Martha Herndon, president, Principal Harry E. Jaynes greeted guests, and Jane Morris gave the welcome. Donna Eaker, banquet chairman, introduced the program.

They are Susan Hutchins, Linda Costner, Charles Costner, Johnny Costner, Neil Hutchins, Randy and Ricky Childers and Debra Johnson.

Program for the evening was led by Mrs. Oscar Greene, who discussed 4-H Sunday to be held this month. Services will be held by the local group at Dixon Presbyterian and Midview Baptist churches.

Club President Michael Greene presided.

Party Honors Bride-Elect

Miss Linda Pruitt, bride-elect, was honored at a miscellaneous bridal shower Saturday evening at Second Baptist church fellowship hall. The honoree wore a yellow knit dress and was given a corsage of yellow rosebuds, gift of the hostesses.

Entertaining together were Mrs. A. L. Huffstetler of Shelby, Mrs. W. N. Abernathy and Mrs. Katie Pruitt, all aunts of the bride-to-be. They were assisted by Mrs. Roddy Cobb of Shelby, cousin of Miss Pruitt.

The hostesses gave the bride-elect an eight-piece setting in her silverware and the guests showered her with household gifts.

Overlaid with white lace, the refreshment table was highlight of decoration. A large bride doll centered the table and wedding ring punch was served with other party refreshments which carried a color scheme of mint green and white.

Yellow and White

A color note of yellow and white was carried out in the decorations. Large yellow and white flowers, the artwork by the students, were arranged on the glass windows of the student commons area leading into the cafeteria where a bulletin board display in yellow and white flowers carried out a theme, "The Flower of My Heart." Place cards were small flower pots of yellow and white handmade blossoms made by the students. Centering the speaker's table was a mass arrangement of white and yellow chrysanthemums and other spring flowers.

Mrs. Rorer's Pupils To Give Recital

Piano pupils of Mrs. James L. Rorer will be presented in a formal recital Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the Woman's club.

Twenty-four students are on the program.

G-E Porta-Color
Model M213BWD

Starting now, color television is for everybody. It's not too big. This new portable (we call it Porta-Color) has an 11" (diag. meas.) screen and weighs only 25 pounds.

It's not hard to tune. Magic Memory tuning makes G-E the easiest color set to tune! (All you do is turn the pre-tuned color dials until they point straight up.)

It doesn't need an outside antenna — (if your black and white set doesn't need one). It has its own set of rabbit ears, so you can have color wherever you have an outlet.

And it's not too expensive. Porta-Color costs just $239.95 with no extras tacked on. It even comes with a free 90-day service warranty.*

So starting now, there's nothing in the world between you and a color television set.

STOP IN AND SEE IT TODAY!

* The General Electric Company warrants to the purchaser of each "B" Line General Electric Portable Television Receiver . . .
