

Class Gives Plaque For Gamble Stadium

A plaque memorializing the late high school football coach John H. Gamble has been presented to the schools as gift of the 1966 Kings Mountain high school graduating class.

The plaque will be placed in the new Gamble stadium.

Check for $300 was presented by class spokesman Larry Morgan to Schools Supt. B. N. Barnes at graduation exercises Friday night.

"I know of no more fitting gift your class can make," said Mr. Barnes in accepting the gift.

Agriculture In Action

PLEASE, PRESIDENT JOHNSON

Please, President Johnson, I'd rather do it myself!

I suppose it's some vestige of pride that makes me want to hold up my own shield and wield my own sword and build my own castles.

Somehow the protective wing you would spread over me seems more a hindrance than a help. If I depend on your wings, how will I ever learn to fly?

Don't try to spare me defeat or failure. No man can recognize the happiness except by contrast.

Don't rip the top rungs off the ladder. I'd lose the will to climb.

Don't paint our flag a somber grey. The beauty's in the colors.

Don't take the reins from the people. The driver also holds the whip.

Don't erase the boundaries of North Carolina. Our pride is on our own identity.

Don't strangle free enterprise. There's the nation's breath.

Don't condemn our poor to eternal despair. A man on the bed of welfare would sleep on.

Don't promise my children euphoria. Heaven is not administered by a federal agency.

Don't preach to me of frugality. I have learned to live within my own budget.

Don't ask me to join a pilgrimage for rights without responsibilities. Liberty must be its own bride.

Don't try to make love a law. Congress cannot improve on my conscience.

I know you mean well, Mr. President, but in your haste to

Health And Safety Tips

As the outdoor swimming season approaches once again, the safety experts predict with certainty that more than 6,000 Americans will drown in the coming months.

They will drown in swimming pools, in lakes and streams, at ocean beaches. Some will drown while in for a refreshing swim and others will fall out of boats or off docks and piers.

Many, if not most, of these drownings need not happen.

Today's Health, the family magazine of the American Medical Association, offers some basic safety rules that will help to avoid a tragic water accident for your family.

- * Learn to swim and to relax in the water.
- * Never swim alone.
- * Do not swim when overly tired or when the water is extremely cold.
- * Do not overestimate your ability and endurance.
- * Swim at protected pools or beaches under the supervision of a trained lifeguard.
- * If a boat overturns, stay with it and don't try to swim a long distance to shore.
- * Never dive into waters of unknown depth.
- * Try new activities, such as water skiing or scuba diving, only after learning the skills from qualified instructors.
- * Many families will do most of their swimming this season in private pools, in their own backyards or in those of a friend or neighbor. There also are some special safety precautions for private pools.
- * Make certain the pool is kept clean and the water chemically purified.
- * Walk, don't run, about the pool. Horseplay should be forbidden.
- * Fence the pool and keep the gate locked to keep out small children.

clear the path of progress, the trees you fell bar the way. You must remember that the people sharpened the axe you swing. And we'd rather swing it ourselves.

Charlotte Summer Theatre Opens Summer Season On Monday Evening

The Charlotte Summer Theatre will open its seventh consecutive season Tuesday, June 21 with Craig Stevens starring in "The Owl and the Pussycat."

This is the first of a glittering array of stars and Broadway hits—the best lineup in the Charlotte Summer Theatre's history. A recent Broadway success, "The Owl and the Pussycat," is a slyly naughty delight that brings the star of the popular TV series "Peter Gunn" to the Owens Auditorium stage. Appearing opposite Mr. Stevens will be movie actress Kathie Browne, who will be coming to Charlotte directly from Hollywood.

Following Craig Stevens will be the versatile TV and radio personality Durward Kirby in the hilarious comedy "The Impossible Years" which will open Tuesday, June 28. The Charlotte Summer Theatre is indeed fortunate to land this show since it is still being enjoyed by Broadway audiences. Opening July 5 is "The Boy Friend" which will feature well-known Marion Marlowe, a welcome addition to the Charlotte Summer Theatre's list of attractions.

Carolians will certainly be excited about the following three shows, "West Side Story," "How To Succeed In Business Without Really Trying," and "Annie Get Your Gun". Anna Maria Alberghetti will star as Maria in "West Side Story"—a perfect match. With this appealing show, Leonard Bernstein has given the world such hit songs as "Maria", "Tonight", "I Feel Pretty", and "Somewhere". This will be one of the highlights of the season and will run from July 12 to July 17.

Orson Bean, one of America's favorite comics, provides a change of pace with the hilarious spoof of big business, "How To Succeed In Business Without Really Trying", scheduled for July 19 to July 24. The lively lady of musical comedy, Dolores Gray, will be the straight-shooter in the ever popular "Annie Get Your Gun", July 26 to July 31 are the playing dates of this Irving Berlin show.

Perky Janis Paige adds glamour to the summer productions in yet another tremendous production "Celia Me Madam", which will open August 2. This is the delightful story of the experiences of a lady ambassador in Luxembourg—another Irving Berlin hit. Produced Stanley Warren is proud to announce that Carolina's Betty Johnson will be featured at the Charlotte Summer Theatre for the fourth consecutive season. The vehicle Miss Johnson has chosen is "Brigadoon". Joining her in this production is Ken Cantrell who has played opposite Miss Johnson in "South Pacific", "The Sound of Music", and "The King and I". "Brigadoon's" playing dates are August 9 to August 14.

Earl Wrightson and Lois Hunt who were so popular in "Camelet", last summer are back in 1966 with the tuneful "Kiss Me Kate" from August 16 to August 21.

This combination is one that all will want to see. To make this truly outstanding season complete, Producer Stanley Warren has signed none other than the lovely and talented Edie Adams to star in "Born Yesterday", the best closing attraction the Summer Theatre has ever offered.

The productions will open on Tuesdays at 8:30 P.M. and play nightly through Saturday with matinee performances on Saturday and Sunday. In addition, "The Owl and the Pussycat", "The Impossible Years", "Kiss Me Kate", and "Born Yesterday" will have a Sunday evening performance at 7:30 P.M. The box office is open daily from 10 to 10 at Owens Auditorium in Charlotte. Phone reservations are also available by calling 376-4321 in Charlotte. Season subscriptions and exchange coupons, both at discount prices, will be available until June 21, 1966.
