"DECORATING TIPS" By GENE TIMMS

DOES YOUR HOME HAVE A FRIENDLY ATMOSPHERE?

One of the most important things for any home to have is a "friendly atmosphere".

But what can you do when you're decorating a room to help it have a friendly atmosphere? Here are some ideas.

The seating pieces — sofa and chairs — should be arranged or grouped to invite relaxed conversation.

Make sure your room is not too drab. Add a little color here and there and make it cheerful.

Little things such as colorful and serviceable ash trays are a help. Make sure your lamps furnish proper lighting aside from being decorative.

Shop for chairs that look inviting to sit in. Make sure you have some coffee and other tables that don't look too frail and unusable. Make sure there are table tops or other surfaces which can be used by guests without fear of causing damage.

It's an old custom to say "Make yourself at home" when your friends visit you, and if your home is decorated in a "friendly" way, you will help create that magic friendly atmosphere.

Speaking of friendly atmosphere — that's just what you'll find at our store. We are friendly and helpful and you're free to come in and browse around to your heart's content with no pressure or obligation. Come on in and see for yourself.

P. S. If you think you can't stand much more of this 90 degree weather, come in today, and choose the air conditioner that best fits your need, from only $119.95 with no special wiring needed. Easy terms on all home furnishings from our store, and you get the discounts too.
