Hear It Now
The San Francisco attorney eloquently pleaded with the Board of Permit Appeals to restore the liquor license of a billiard parlor operated by two elderly brothers, whom he said were deaf.

The board, apparently swayed by the persuasive plea of the lawyer, unanimously granted the request of the brothers, who had stood mute during the hearing. "But," added chairman James Harvey, "if you ever come back here, you're out of luck. Understand?" "Yes, sir," the "deaf" brothers replied. The board members chuckled and granted the request anyway.

Millennium
In the Christian religion, the millennium is a period of 1,000 years preceding the final judgment, during which Christ will rule this earth in person.
