

Pair Notes 50th Anniversary

REV. AND MRS. C. C. PARKER

Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Parker repeated their wedding vows on their 50th anniversary Sunday at Piedmont Baptist church.

Members of their family— their seven children and their families—were members of the wedding party and the 300 guests represented congregations they had served in Kings Mountain, Marion, Spruce Pine, Asheville, Landrum, S. C. and Mount Airy, Ga.

Rev. Harold Sprinkle and Rev. P. L. McMahan both of Marion, officiated at the 2 p.m. double-ring ceremony. Gold wedding bands which the couple exchanged were gifts of their seven children, daughters-in-law and sons-in-law.

Mrs. Sprinkle was pianist for the program of nuptial music and Mrs. Warren Wall of Marion was soloist. The benediction "Lord's Prayer" closed the ceremony. Three daughters wore pink summer dresses with matching hats and carried a white Bible topped with yellow carnations. Her three daughters work pink summer dresses and yellow carnation corsages. The Parker's sons and daughters stood at the altar with them for the ceremony.

The church sanctuary was decorated with palms, lighted tapers, and baskets of yellow mums.

Lloyd Cuthbertson, Jr., James Spears, Jr. and Robert Parker, grandsons of the Parkers, ushered.

A reception was held after the ceremony in the church fellowship hall.

The golden wedding anniversary

theme was beautifully carried out in decorations. Overlaid with floor-length cloth of lace and yellow net over yellow linen, the three-tier anniversary cake was table highlight. The top tier of the cake held a miniature bride and bridegroom and yellow roses. Yellow punch was served with the cake, mints and nuts.

Yellow and white Shasta daisies and yellow tapers centered the refreshment table. The register table, also done in yellow and white, held a yellow and white arrangement of daisies.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Parker introduced the receiving line which included the guests-of-honor and their family. Miss Sandra Spears of Shelby, granddaughter of the Parkers, was at the register. Mrs. Max Holland, another granddaughter of the Parkers, cut and served the cake and Mrs. Max Parker served punch. Presiding at the gift table were Mrs. Charles Parker and Mrs. G. M. Lankford.

Both Rev. and Mrs. Parker are natives of Marion. Mrs. Parker is the former Bessie Huffman. Pastor of Piedmont Baptist church since last August, Rev. Parker began his active ministry in Marion and came to the Kings Mountain pastorate from Mount Airy, Ga. He is also a former pastor of Kings Mountain's Second Baptist church which he served in the late 1930's and early 1940's.

Their seven children and their families were hosts for the anniversary celebration. They include: Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cuthbertson of Nebo; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker of High Shoals;

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Parker of Lincolnton; Mr. and Mrs. James Spears of Shelby; Mr. and Mrs. Howard McNeal of Marion; Mr. and Mrs. Max Parker of High Shoals; and M/Sgt. and Mrs. Clarence Parker of Great Falls, Montana.

McGinnis Back From Market

Furniture and department store buyers from throughout the Southeastern United States were in High Point last week for the 45th annual Summer Furniture Market.

Representing McGinnis Furniture Company was Dick McGinnis.

Making the significant style news at the High Point Market were various English influences, extensive bamboo treatments and fabrics that are bright and luxurious.

Still leading in popularity are the Italian and Spanish styles along with the traditional designs that include the perennial Early American. The Contemporary offerings are tending toward the elegant.

Moss Family Returns From Colorado Trip

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Moss have returned from a trip to Colorado Springs, Colorado, where they spent eight days with their son and daughter-in-law, S/Sgt. and Mrs. Karl R. Moss.

While in Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Moss visited the United States Air Force Academy, and many other scenic areas of the state.

Among these, were Cripple Creek, one of the greatest "boom towns" in gold in the 1890's, a trip to the Will Rogers Shrine on Cheyenne Mountain, a tour of the Broadmoor Zoo, and a tour of Denver.

MISS KAREN YVONNE WOOD

Party Honors Jerri Goforth

Miss Jerri Goforth, whose wedding to Bill Stinnett takes place July 31, was honor-guest Monday night at a bridal shower given by Miss Anne Trott, Miss Carolyn Heavner and Miss Roxie Sellers.

The party was held at the Trott cabin at Lake Montonia. A color note of yellow and white was carried out in decorations and refreshments. Center-piece for the refreshment table was an arrangement of daisies. Refreshments were served tea-style from a festive table. Miss Goforth was given a corsage of yellow and white mums from the hostesses. They also presented her a three-piece negligee set for her trousseau.

The 40 guests also showered the bride-elect with lingerie gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. King, Sr. and their daughters, Carol Patrice and Mary Anne, are expected to arrive Saturday from their home in Sarasota, Fla. for a visit with Mrs. King's father, A. J. Gallant, and her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Morrison.

Karen Wood, Pvt. Phillip Grau Set Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. William Clinton Wood of Spartanburg, S. C., formerly of Kings Mountain, announce the engagement of their daughter, Karen Yvonne, to Pvt. Phillip David Grau, son of the late Gustav Jacob Grau, III of Spartanburg.

The wedding will take place November 19th in Spartanburg's Morningside Baptist church.

Miss Wood is a graduate of Spartanburg high school and is employed by Oilmen Equipment Corporation.

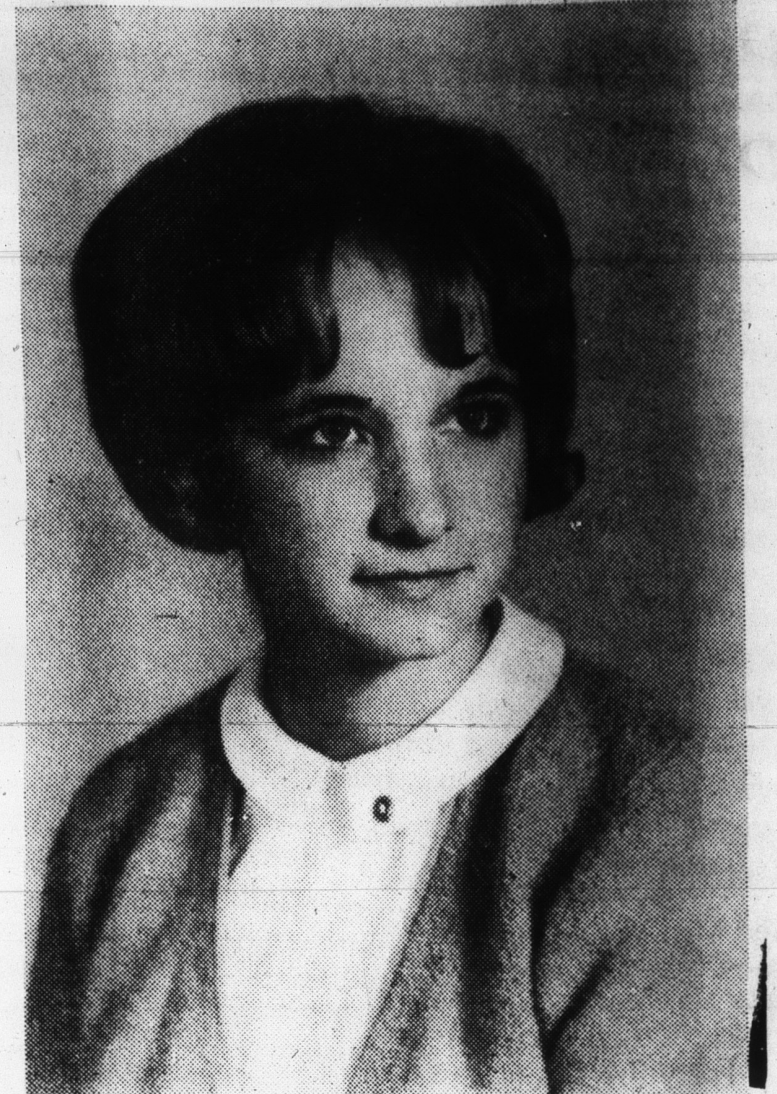

The prospective bridegroom, now stationed at Fort Jackson, S. C., has made his home with his grandmother, Mrs. Gustav Jacob Grau, II at 246 S. Converse street in Spartanburg. He will complete his tour of duty with the Army in October.

A graduate of Spartanburg high school, the prospective bridegroom attended Clemson University and graduated from Spartanburg County Technical Education Center.

Girl Scouts Back From Trip

Miss Patsy Brison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brison of Gastonia, has returned from Washington, D. C., where she was the delegate and representative of Girl Scouts of the State of North Carolina to the National Mouth Conference on Natural Beauty and Conservation.

Patsy, a Senior Girl Scout in Troop 39 in Gastonia, under the leadership of Mrs. J. Y. Todd, Jr., and a rising junior at Ashley High School, was chosen from many applicants from all counties in North Carolina as the lone Girl Scout representative from our state. Gastonia is in the Pioneer Girl Scout Area Council which covers Gaston County, Lincoln County, Rutherford County, and part of Cleveland County.

MRS. ROBERT STEPHEN LEDFORD (Abigail Spangler)

Miss Abigail Spangler, Robert S. Ledford Pledge Vows In Groyer Rites July 8th

Miss Abigail Spangler and Robert Stephen Ledford were married Friday, July 8 at 7:30 p.m. in the parsonage of the First Baptist church of Grover. Rev. Fred C. Crisp officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Gilmore Byers, organist, and Harold Ellis, brother-in-law of the bride, vocalist.

The bride wore two-piece suit of white lace over blue and matching veiled headpiece. She carried a white Bible topped with a removable corsage of white orchids.

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Spangler of Grover. She graduated from Kings Mountain high school.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ledford of 406 S. Thompson street, Shelby, graduated from Shelby high school and now is serving a tour of duty with the United States Air Force at Pope Air Force Base in Fayetteville. Before entering the service, he was employed by Sears-Roebuck Company.

The newlyweds will make their home in Fayetteville.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The table, covered with a white net cloth over yellow, was decorated with greenery and pale yellow candles. A three-tiered wedding cake was placed at one end of the table with a crystal punch bowl at the opposite end. Mrs. Jack Herndon and Mrs. Bob Hambright assisted in serving.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Saturday:

12:30—Officers of Women of Kings Mountain Presbytery are meeting for summer council meeting and luncheon at First Presbyterian church.

3:30—Dessert-bridge and rook party at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Davis honoring Miss Diane Roberts, bride-elect. Mrs. Coman Falls, co-hostess.

8:00—Buffet supper and dance at the Country Club for members and guests.

It's A Boy For Bob Husseys

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hussey of 909 Sharon Drive announce the birth of their first child—a son, Friday, July 15, Kings Mountain hospital.

The child has been named Bobby Wayne Hussey, Jr. and will be called "Bq".

He is grandson of Marvin Dwiggins of Kannapolis and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hussey of Seagrove, N. C.

Society News

KINGS MOUNTAIN HERALD Thursday, July 21, 1966 Section B

Parties Honor August Bride-Elect; Birthday Celebrations Planned; Visitors Here

Miss Diane Roberts, August bride-elect of Sammy Houston, was honored at a miscellaneous drop-in shower Thursday evening.

Hostesses were Mrs. Jerry Adams and her mother, Mrs. Arnold Kincaid, who entertained at the Kincaid home.

The refreshment table was covered with white cutwork cloth and centered with silver candelabrum set with white tapers, the epergnette cups filled with white snapdragons, roses and mums. Punch and fancy party pick-ups were served.

More than 50 guests called between 7:30 and 9 p.m.

The hostesses gave Miss Roberts a corsage of white mums which she pinned to the shoulder of her yellow party dress.

Birthday Party Planned

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ormand will honor their son, Alex, on his sixth birthday Saturday at a party at the home of Alex's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Gibbons, on Waco road.

The 20 children in young Ormand's pre-school class at Trinity Day School are invited to attend from 4 until 5:30 p.m.

Mrs. R. E. King and her daughter, Miss Theresa King, were hostesses at a luncheon Sunday at their home. The 17 guests were members of the bridegroom-to-be's family and Miss Watterson and her mother.

A white floral arrangement centered the luncheon table. Miss Watterson's place was marked by the King's wedding gift, a place setting in her chosen china pattern.

The Kings Mountain bride-to-be was also entertained recently at two bridal showers in Durham. Mrs. Carvie Oldham and Miss Judy Oldham were hostesses at a dessert-bridge party and kitchen shower at their home.

August bride-elect Judy Watterson was honored at four parties in Durham during the weekend. Miss Watterson and her mother, Mrs. J. W. Watterson, were house-guests of the bridegroom-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Woody, Sr.

Mrs. Henry Schultz entertained Friday night at two tables of cannasta honoring Miss Watterson. The hostess gave the bride-elect a corsage of sweetheart roses and gifts of linen.

Tables were decorated in sweetheart roses.

A drop-in tea Saturday afternoon from 3 until 5 p.m. was held at the home of Mrs. H. H. Crabtree with Mrs. R. D. Elliott co-hostess.

A yellow color note was carried out in decorative details. A white linen cutwork cloth covered the refreshment table which was decorated with yellow mums and candles. Punch and party refreshments were served.

The hostesses presented Miss Watterson a corsage of carnations and baby's breath and a silver bread tray. Saturday evening Miss Watterson and her fiancé, John Woody, Jr., were honor guests at a dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Petty, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Nelson, Jr. at Blair House. Other guests were the bride-elect's mother and the bridegroom-elect's parents.

Pink and white flowers decorated the table from which dinner was served.

Miss Watterson was given a cymbidium orchid corsage and both Mrs. Watterson and Mrs. Woody, Sr. were given white carnation corsages. The engaged pair were presented a radio.

Mrs. David Neal and Miss Brenda Bruce entertained at a "family shower" at the Neal home. Members of the bridegroom-to-be's family showered the bride-elect with miscellaneous household gifts.

Lisa Anne Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Crawford, Jr., celebrated her second birthday Sunday.

A small family party was held at the Crawford home and Lisa's pink and white birthday cake was cut and served with ice cream.

Lisa is granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Crawford, Sr. of Kings Mountain and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Palmer of York, S. C., formerly of Kings Mountain. Her great-grandparents are Mrs. W. J. Crawford and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stewart, all of Kings Mountain. Lisa's mother is the former Judy Palmer.

Ben Dixon Carpenter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Carpenter, will celebrate his second birthday Saturday, July 23.

A small family party will be held at the Carpenter home in the Bethlehem community.

The decorated birthday cake will be cut and served with ice cream.

Young Carpenter is grandson of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lail and Mrs. Jesse Carpenter and the late Mr. Carpenter, all of Kings Mountain. Ben's mother is the former Phyllis Lail.

Richard Carver, Ronnie Carver and Miss Linda Cartee of Greenville, S. C. spent Saturday with Mrs. Quinn Wells, grandmother of the Carver brothers.

Mrs. Wells has just returned home after a visit with the Floyd Carver family in Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hughes and Mr. Hughes' mother, Mrs. Conrad Hughes, spent Saturday and Sunday at Myrtle Beach, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Erskine Watterson and family are vacationing this week at the beach.

Miss Elaine Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Dixon, has returned from Greenville where she attended a pre-college counseling program on the campus of East Carolina college. Miss Dixon will be a freshman in September.

A dessert-bridge and rook party Saturday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Davis will pay compliment to Miss Roberts. Entertaining with Mrs. Davis will be her stepmother, Mrs. Coman Falls.