Eddie Adams At Summer Theatre In Comedy "Born Yesterday"

Exciting Eddie Adams is coming to the Charlotte Summer Theatre to star in Garson Kanin's prize-winning comedy, "Born Yesterday" starting Tuesday evening August 23 in Ovens Auditorium.

Eddie, who has been described by no less a critic than Brooks Atkinson as "absolutely perfect" comes to the Charlotte Summer Theatre at the peak of her career. She has proved her talents as a comedienne, superb mimic, singer, and dramatic actress. This accomplishment is well accepted in show business and has resulted in Eddie being one of the busiest members of the profession. During a three-year period, she will have completed eight motion pictures, ("Anyone For Venice?", "The Oscar", "Made In Paris", "It's A Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World", "The Best Man", "Love With The Proper Stranger", "Under The Yum-Yum Tree" and "Call Me Bwana"), countless television appearances, several legitimate theatre engagements, innumerable nightclub stands, and a record album. All of this is in addition to her schedule as television spokeswoman for Muriel Cigars.

When she was just starting out, Eddie's talents as a singer and comedienne created increasing comment on the part of the press. As a result, she landed the prized role of Eileen in the Broadway production of "Wonderful Town" for which she received rave reviews and two Donaldson Awards. Following this success she became a regular on the Ernie Kovacs' CBS-TV show until she was signed to star in her second Broadway show as Daisy Mae in the musical version of Al Capp's "Lil' Abner". She received the coveted Tony Award for her performance.

In "Born Yesterday", Miss Adams will be able to display her abundant ability as an actress and a comedienne. Eddie will play the role that Judy Holliday created in the highly successful Broadway production—the role of the beautiful, but dumb blonde who turns out not to be so dumb—Billie Dawn. Billie Dawn becomes involved with the wealthy Harry Brock who takes Billie with him when he goes to Washington on business. The relationship of blonde Billie to Harry Brock evokes many, many laughs.

The part of Harry Brock will be played by Harold Gary whose career has encompassed over forty Broadway shows and three hundred plus television shows. Mr. Gary has essayed such disparate roles as Nathan Detroit in "Guys and Dolls", Ali Hakim (the Persian Peddler) in Oklahoma which he played for four years in the United States and Australia.

"Born Yesterday" will have eight performances. There will be evening performances Tuesday through Saturday evenings at 8:30 P.M. Saturday and Sunday there will be matinees at 2:30 P.M. with a special 7:30 P.M. performance Sunday evening.

There is still time to see Earl Wrightson and Lois Hunt in Cole Porter's witty musical "Kiss Me Kate" which plays through Sunday, August 21, with a special Sunday evening performance at 7:30 P.M.

The Charlotte Summer Theatre box-office is open daily and Sundays from 10 A.M. to 10 P.M. in Ovens Auditorium. Tickets are available at the box office, by mail, or by phoning 376-4821 for a reservation.

SERMON TOPIC Charles Easley, pastor of St. Matthews Lutheran church, will present his sermon Sunday entitled "This Is No Way To Earn A Living". Sunday School will begin at 8:45 and the morning worship service at 10 a.m.

North Carolina wheat production in 1965 was set at 5.8 million bushels, down 25 per cent from the 1964 level

METHODIST TOPIC

Rev. Howard R. Jordan's sermon topic Sunday morning at Central Methodist church will be "Our Worries and Christ's Peace."
