The Veterans Corner

EDITOR'S NOTE: Below are authoritative answers by the Veterans Administration to some of the many current questions from former servicemen and their families. Further information on veterans benefits may be obtained at any VA office.

Q—Children of a deceased veteran may have some pension rights—do they forfeit these rights when their mothers (the veteran's widow) remarry?

A—Eligible children of a deceased veteran retain their pension rights after their mother remarries until they become 18, or 23 if they are going to school.

Q—Under the terms of the GI loan benefits, can a veteran mortgage his present home to obtain money for other expenses?

A—GI loans are not available.

to pay doctor bills, buy furniture, etc. Q—Is a member of the Reserve, injured while on inactive duty training, eligible for disability compensation through the VA? A—Yes. The law provides compensation for injuries incurred in line of duty by reservists during a drill or other period of authorized inactive duty training. Application should be filed with the nearest VA Regional Office, and should be accompanied by an official statement from the Unit Commander showing the date and nature of the inactive duty, and the date, circumstances, nature and line of duty status of the injury. A monument to Francis Scott Key, author of the Star Spangled Banner, stands at Frederick, Md.
