of the nerica. staff l pub-

PATRIOTIC THEME — The Kings Mountain Chamber of Commerce float in Saturday's parade employs the Liberty Bell and United States flag to emphasize the patriotic - historical theme of Saturday's 186th anniversary celebration of the Battle of Kings Mountain. The float is graced by Miss Reta Vollbracht, newly - crowned Miss Kings Mountain, who will represent the city in the 1967 North Carolina beauty contest.

TO REVIEWING STAND — Secretary of the Navy Paul H. Nitze, left foreground, is escorted to the reviewing stand at Saturday's parade by Lieutenant - Commander Glee E. Bridges USNR. In background, left to right, are Rear Admiral E. H. Batcheller, Mrs. John Henry Moss, Captain William Thompson, and Mayor

REVIEWING STAND — Secretary of the Navy Paul H. Nitze smiles and waves to a unit of Saturday's anniversary parade. In foreground, left to right, are Mayor John Henry Moss, Mrs. Claude T. Bowers and Major-General Bowers, parade marshal. At far right, is Representative Basil L. Whitener. Behind Mayor Moss, left to right, are Commander William Thompson, aide to the Secretary, Mrs. Eugene Poston, and Dr. Poston, president of Gardner-Webb college.

Population

Greater Kings Mountain City Limits

This figure for Greater Kings Mountain is derived from the 1955 Kings Mountain city directory census. The city

No. 38

Established 1889

Kings Mountain, N. C., Thursday, October 13, 1966

Kings Mountain's Reliable Newspaper

Seventy-Seventh Year

Estimated 45,000 Were Here For Celebration Parade

Alexander Heads Immunization For Tetanus President's Club

PRESIDENT - Kings Mountain Postmaster Charles L. Alexander has been elected president of the President's Club of the National League of

Low Water Tank Bid Is $88,175

Postmasters.

pany of Atlanta, Ga., is apparent er. low bidder on a two million gallon capacity water tank the city expects to let contract for on for the new tank to be erected on newly - acquired city properand Cherryville road.

rolet Company and Southwell further study. ment Company of Wilson; Quali- tial to general business. ed and awarded on October 27th. ered by the zoning code.

the commission, a 1967 police property is on the right.

The Mitchell College sophoromy and the matter tory Chevrolet Company, the low was on the agenda at Tuesday's the board approved property tap danced in a flame red control of what to do with the commission, a 1967 police property is on the right.

The Mitchell College sophoromy dazzled the judges as she flame red control of what to do with the commission, a 1967 police property is on the right.

The Mitchell College sophoromy dazzled the judges as she flame red control of what to do with the commission, a 1967 police property is on the right.

The Mitchell College sophoromy dazzled the judges as she flame red control of what to do with the property tap danced in a flame red control of what to do with the property tap danced in a flame red control of the property tap danced in a f Company's bid of $2,670.45.

Postmasters Of State Groups

Charles L. Alexander was elect. or attend clinics from 4 to 6 p.m. ed president of the President's at Casar school, Burns At Fall-Club of the National League of ston or Camp high school. Juan, Puerto Rico.

The club is composed of 50 club presidents, one from each state and including Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

Alexander is president of the North Carolina Chapter of the National League of Postmast-

The convention ended last Fri-

Fred Grenshaw, president of the Connecticutt Branch of Postmasters, was elected vice-president and Mrs. Eleanor Monson from the State of Washington Chicago Bridge & Iron Com- was elected secretary - treasur-

Is Drive Aim

The Cleveland County Medical Society will hold a countywide tetanus toxoid immuni-zation drive October 17-21 aimed at persons 28 or older who have never been immunized against Kings Mountain doctors are participating in the drive. Persons may visit a doctor's Name Alexander office or the county health department between 10 a.m. or 4 Kings Mountain Postmaster p.m. Monday through Thursday

Postmasters at the annual con- Cost of the vaccine is 50 cents. vention of the National League However, persons who are unable of Postmasters of the United to pay the nominal fee will re-United States last week in San ceive the vaccination at no cost, a spokesman for the society said.

CADETTE LEADER

A Cadette leader for Girl Scout Cadettes is needed in the Kings Mountain area. Interested women should contact Mrs. Raymond Holmes or Mrs. Charles Blanton. Cadette Scouts are seventh and eighth grad-

RESOLUTION

The city board of commissioners Tuesday night passed a resolution commending the 186th Anniversary Battle Celebration Committee for "the highly successful 186th Cele-

Zoning Requests Are 1) Honored; Meantime, workmen Wednesday were busy clearing the site 2) Denied; 3) Remanded By Board

The city commission Tuesday unanimously. Ward 1 Comm. Ray night honored one rezoning rety bounded by McGinnis street night honored one rezoning re- Cline was absent quest, declined a second because Bids were also received - but of objection by 20 property own- at the next meeting of this board not opened Tuesday night — on a remanded a third to the a remanded a third to the a new garbage truck, packer and zoning commission, which had attorney Lackey asked.

Motor Company made bids on Mr. and Mrs. Jonah B. Falls public hearing on the matter for sponsored beauty pageant replied, Understanding, which is the truck and five specialized of York road, through their at- October 27 and City Attorney Thursday night firms appeared to bid on the torney, Dick Lackey, of Shelby, Jack White said it would meet equipment. They were A. E. Fin- filed a petition for rezoning of legal requirements. ley & Associates; Simpson Equip- 21/2 acres from suburban residen- Mr. Lackey said Wednesday ner-up in the Miss Shelby 1965 First runner-up Joan King, bidder was Southwell Motor no one appeared to protest. U. S. 74 west to be rezoned from measurements in a black swim. Second runner up Sandi Mulliompany's bid of $2,670.45.

Attorney Lackey appeared on residential to general business suit. In the evening gown combehalf of Mr. and Mrs. Falls to and denied request by Johnny petition, she wore a crocade rite. She received an ovation

"Can we expect to be heard afternoon that his client has a pageants, the new beauty queen 20-year-old daughter of Mr. and ty Equipment Company of Char- The tract of land is outside the buyer for the York road property is a honey blonde with a vivaci- Mrs. Willis King, danced a jazz lotte; and E. Nelson O'Neal As- city limits but located within but only if the property is rezon- ous smile which she displayed number which she choreographsociates. The bids will be open- the one mile perimeter area cov- ed to business. He did not elab- as contestant No. 1 during the ed. She said the greatest probd and awarded on October 27th. ered by the zoning code.

In a third bidding action by Crossing I-85 at York road, the buyer plans to build on the propliminary in Central Auditorium. ability to "make up their der, at cost of $2,595.28. Other October city board meeting and owned by Charles E. Blalock on tume and displayed 35-24-35 her life.

MISS KINGS MOUNTAIN AND RUNNERS-UP - Reta Mae Vollbracht, Miss Kings Mountain 1966, was crowned Thursday night in a Jaycee-sponsored beauty pageant. Flanking the new queen are Joan King, first runner-up, and Sandi Mullinax, second runner-up. Miss Vollbracht, 19-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Vollbracht, was also named Miss Congeniality by the other contestants. (Photo by Paul Lemmons).

Reta Vollbracht

County of 1965 and first run- today."

Winning beauty honors is not do you feel is the greatest probnew to Reta Mae Vollbracht, 19, lem between teenagers and their sewing, including doll clothes refuse containers. Victory Chev- recommended the rezoning, for The Commission, on motion of who was crowned Miss Kings parents today," the daughter of Comm. King, granted a second Mountain 1966 in the Jaycee Mr. and Mrs. Dale Vollbracht the most important factors in Named Miss Upper Cleveland every family relationship to-

66th Floral Fair Next Wednesday

Public Invited To Participate In Floral Events

Woman's Clubbers were hard at work this week readying for next Wednesday's 66th annual community festival and floral

The festival will open at 11:30 a.m. at the Woman's club on East Mountain street and will feature the theme; "Sharing the Key to Happiness" in the flower show and crafts divisions. As customary, both lunch and dinner will be served in the club dining room. The noon meal will be served from 11:30 until p.m. The evening meal will be served from 5:30 until 7 p.m The show will be open until 9 Mrs. George Thomasson and Mrs. Aubrey Mauney, co-chairmen of the annual show, said that entries are invited from the community and should be en tered Tuesday from 1 until p.m. or Wednesday morning from 8 until 10 at the clubhouse

In addition to floral arrange ments, exhibits of shrubs, potte plants, vegetables and fruits and annuals and perennials are invited for the horticulture division of this year's fair. Arts and Crafts in Division III will feature drawings and paintings, sculpture, carvings, ceramics, weaving, antiquing, basketry, jewelry, and other home ty. A special section will feature needlework, including knitting, crocheting, embroidery, and Hobbies suitable for display, such as collections and photography, are also invited.

(Continued On Page 6)

PRESIDENT - Dr. Robert Benson, president of Gaston college at Dallas, will fill the pulpit on Laymen's Sunday this Sunday at First Presbyterian

Benson To Speak On Laymen's Day fighting another — one more difficult to understand, but one

Dr. C. Robert Benson, Jr., president of Gaston college, will fill the pulpit on Laymen's Sun- Everett Jordan introduced Secday this Sunday at First Pres- retary Nitze and 10th district byterian church.

Dr. Benson's subject for the 11 o'clock worship service will Mayor John Henry Moss gave an be, "Brotherhood", according to address of welcome, and Dr. crafts, all open to the communi- announcement by Dr. Paul Aus- Eugene Poston, president of ley, pastor.

Educated at Boyden high in Salisbury, Catawba college and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Dr. Benson Hill, of Gardner-Webb college. was president of the College of Albemarle before coming to Dal-Garden clubs of the city are las in 1963. He served from 1957in charge of a display of table 61 as professor of education and arrangements and a special sec- dean of students. He is a fortion is devoted to exhibits de mer principal of Granville Ele-(Continued On Page 6)

Saturday First Registration Day; Cut-Off Sunday General Election To Be November 8

Registration books open in [8. November 8 general election.

000 gallon capacity water tank request approval of the rezoning McConnell for poperty on East sheath gown with silver slipwhich was constructed in the request. Mr. and Mrs. Falls did Gold street to be regarded to b which was constructed in the request. Mr. and Mrs. Falls did appear. Gold street to be rezoned from not appear. Bids were received Tuesday might by the city commission might by the city commission at total of nine firms bidding on both a one and two million gallon capacity tank and Commission on both a one and two million gallon capacity tank and Commission on the second from pers.

When she quipped, "Parents sometime forget they were teens once themselves." She also once the general election. State of N. C. for one year and their parents is "understanding."

When she quipped, "Parents sometime forget they were teens once themselves." She also once the suspended for about three to vote in the general election. Citizens who were registered and voted in the precinct in which he seeks to register for 30 days by the other condition was seconded by Ward 5 (Commission of Master of Commission on the commission of the five pageant. Citizens who were registered and voted in the general election. The suspension is required in the eyes of the five pageant. Citizens who were registered and voted in the eyes of the five pageant. Citizens who were registered and voted in the eyes of the five pageant. Citizens who were registered and voted in the eyes of the five pageant. Citizens who were registered and voted in the eyes of the five pageant. Citizens who were registered and voted in the eyes of the five pageant. Citizens who were registered and voted in the eyes of the five pageant. The eyes of the five pageant to vote in the general election. State of N. C. for one year and their parents is "understanding."

The did the vote of the eyes of the five pageant to once the election of the eyes of the five pageant. The eyes of the five pageant inverted in the eyes of the five pageant. The eyes of the five pageant inverted in the eyes of the five pageant. The eyes of the five pageant inverted in the eyes of the five pageant. The eyes of out the county Saturday for the privilege of registering to vote works has anounced. in the general election are: 1) Areas to be effected are North Registrars will be at polling citizenship in the U.S., either Piedmont avenue, the Craftspun

Nitze Declares Battle Aims Remain Today

By MARTIN HARMON A crowd estimated by military and police officials at 45,000 were in Kings Mountain Sat day for the final events of the 186th anniversary celebration of the Battle of Kin tain which featured a 200-unit parade and an address by the Honorable Paul Henry Nitze, Secretary of the Navy. Secretary Nitze reviewed the history of both the Battle of Kings Mountain and of the overall strategy developed by General Washington following the alliance with France for aid from the French fleet.

TEXT OF ADDRESS

The text of the Secretary of the Navy's battle anniversary address appears on page 6, section 3 of today's edition.

"When we gather here each year," he declared, "we do more than commemorate that battle .. We look back to see our beginnings, to take stock, to see how well we have deserved the strengths we have inherited, and how well we have preserved our independence."

Reminding that the United States since the Revolution has fought and won four great wars "to preserve its freedom, its unity and its independence, the Secretary added, "Today it is that also involves the principle of freedom." United States Senator B. Representative Basil L. Whitener presented Snator Jordan. Gardner-Webb college said the invocation. The formal program concluded with the singing of "The Lord's Prayer" by Jerry Immediately following the program, the Golden Knights, US

Army parachute team, gave a performance — their sixth of (Continued On Page 6)

Water Service

Water service will be suspended in several areas of the city on Sunday morning, Grady Yel-Number 4 township and through- General qualifications for the ton, superintendent of public