

Blue Devils

Forward Fred Lind (Highland Park) and guards Ron Wendelin (Peoria), Tony Barone (Chicago), Dave Golden (Pekin) and John Posen (Cicero) are the Illinoisans who'll be trying their best to make a good showing before the home folks.

Of this quintet, Barone and Wendelin were freshmen when the Blue Devils last visited Chicago in 1965. The Blue Devils won that one, 101-88, behind the shooting of All-America Jack Marin and 1966 ACC Player of the Year Steve Vacendak who combined for 68 points.

Barone will have an extra incentive in this game. Saturday will mark his mother's birthday and he's hopeful the Blue Devils can present her with a special present.

S. C. GAME SOLD OUT: Duke's Atlantic Coast Conference battle with South Carolina Saturday, Feb. 24, has been completely sold out.

Duke Business Manager of Athletics Red Lewis said that not even any singles remain for the second meeting of the season with the Gamecocks.

Duke will be seeking to even the score with the Gamecocks who defeated them 83-80 at Columbia.

Also, Duke's game March 2 with North Carolina has been completely sold out for months.

IRISH EYES: Duke will be meeting one of the nation's most improved teams when it takes on the Irish Saturday.

Bob Whitmore is averaging better than 16 rebounds per game and Bob Arzen returns from a 21.3 sophomore season.

The Irish won their first five games and took a 13-5 record into Saturday's game with Detroit.

Tryon, Bethlehem Take Pair Of Wins

First place Tryon took a pair of victories over the Celtics in Recreation League play this past week while Bethlehem Fire Dept. dumped Episcopal Church twice Thursday night but had a rougher time Monday in pulling out a 58-51 win.

Doug Smith's 27 points led Tryon Thursday while Henry Rudisill added 19. Doug Rathbone was high for the Celtics with 13. Monday, Smith bucketed 28 and Dennis Harrison added 18 for Tryon while Rathbone had 26 and Wayne Green 10 for the losers.

Ed Swink and Bobby Bolin scored 20 and 10 points respectively to lead Bethlehem's 58-39 win Thursday. Bill Spencer paced Episcopal with 16 points.

Saturday's game with Detroit. The Irish face DePaul Tuesday before meeting the Blue Devils.

Duke assistant coach Chuck Daly was impressed with the mobility of Whitmore. "He's a good shooter," said Daly, "and is definitely one of the better ones I've seen this season."

BOWLING RESULTS

Southpaw John Dilling won individual honors in the men's bowling league Monday night with a 397 set in leading Plunk Oil Co. to a 3-1 victory over Albert Brackett.

Plunk Oil won the first two games and total pins with Dilling rolling 117, 135 and 145 sets respectively. Steve Rathbone added a 337 set while Ronnie Culbertson was high scorer for the losers with a 133 line and 361 set.

All five of the Brackett bowlers topped the 300-set mark, but it was not enough to balance Dilling's individual performance.

Clyde Culbertson had a 149 line and 377 set in leading Stroupe's 66 to a 3-1 win over Richard Culbertson. Al Henderson and Richard Bridges added 365 and 349 sets respectively for the winners while Richard Culbertson had a 145-357 for the losers.

were in for a ride, as the Wolves outscored them 14 to four. Huskey led the Lincolnton lads in that period of play as he dumped in six points.

Going into the second, Lincolnton held a ten point lead, and at the end of that period of play, the margin remained the same. Both teams scored eight, and at intermission the score was Kings Mountain 12, Lincolnton 22.

The Little Mountaineers began to play basketball in the third as they rallied to outscore Lincolnton 16 to eight to cut the lead to two markers.

In the fourth the Mountaineers continued their rally and outscored Lincolnton 17 to 12 to pick up the win.

Gardner-Webb Eyes WCJCC Tournament

BOILING SPRINGS—Gardner-Webb College is ranked seventh in the nation as it begins its final two weeks of regular season action. The Bulldogs have four Western Carolinas Conference games remaining before the conference tournament by one week.

Awin Tuesday over Lees-McRae would have mathematically assured the Bulldogs at least a number one seeding into the Region 10 tournament at Lenoir. This tourney follows the conference tournament by one week.

Louise Dover's 115 line and 313 set led Griffin Drug to a 3-1 win over Drewes Tax. Pat Herndon had a 108 line and Margaret Wilson a 286 set for the losers.

Betty Fite had a 115 line and Dessie Loftin added a 305 set to lead Plunk's three-game win over the American Legion. Libault had a 129-309 for the losers.

In mixed league action last Thursday night, Clyde Culbertson took three games off Bob Herndon while Ronnie Culbertson posted a 3-1 win over Ranny Blanton.

Wimp Bowen had a 143 line and Bob Herndon had a 368 set in Herndon's victory while Clyde Culbertson was led by Rod Houser's 136-349. John Dilling had a 146 line and 376 set in leading Ronnie Culbertson's win while Ranny Blanton topped his team with a 138-362.

The 21-1 Bulldogs are one of three teams east of the Mississippi River ranked in the top 20 among junior college powers. The Mercer College unit in fifth place and the Puducah College of Kentucky squad are the other two.
