

Presbytery Women

trict chairman; Mrs. E. D. Witherspoon of Belmont is vice-president; Mrs. B. I. Alexander of Gastonia is recording secretary; Mrs. Tommy Clemmer of Gastonia is historian and Mrs. W. B. Garrison of Gastonia is treasurer. Chairman of ecumenical missions is Mrs. Numa Carter of Shelby. Chairman of white cross is Mrs. Harvey Hamrick of Shelby.

No Opposition

to my election. Many of the members of the Senate will be new, as many incumbents are not running. I shall make the appointments on a basis of finding the best person for each assignment.

Except for two appearances each in Charlotte and Greensboro, Mrs. Harper's campaign thus far has been centered chiefly in eastern North Carolina with full days spent in Smithfield, Wilson, Kinston, and Fuquay and meetings in Chapel Hill, Durham, and Raleigh. This week, she will be in Raleigh, Montgomery County, and Chapel Hill.

Society

Senior Club Names Officers

Three new officers of the Senior Woman's club were elected at the regular Monday night meeting of the organization.

Mrs. D. W. Blanton, president, presided.

Mrs. Raymond Holmes was elected first vice-president, Mrs. D. W. Blanton was elected second vice-president, and Mrs. Baxter Payseur was elected corresponding secretary.

Dyke Is Candidate For Scholarship

Joseph Allen Dyke, Kings Mountain high school senior, is among 50 candidates for a University of North Carolina distinguished scholarship award and will participate in a weekend of interviews and student activities on the campus at Chapel Hill March 29-30.

Dyke is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dyke of Kings Mountain.

Clubwomen To Sponsor CD School

Cleveland County Civil Defense Director Don Shields of Shelby made the address at Monday night's meeting of the Senior Woman's club at the Woman's club.

Mr. Shields announced plans to conduct a Civil Defense school on the subject, "Nuclear Age" and up to 20 persons are eligible to attend. Woman's club members present at Monday night's meeting signed up for the course. Other interested citizens are invited to enroll, said Mrs. Don W. Blanton, club president.

A flag presentation was made by members of the Public Affairs Department who are presenting an American flag to the club for use in club programs.

Members of the Public Affairs Department will hold a public discussion program Thursday (tonight) at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Morrison, Edgemont Drive. City Commissioner W. S. Biddix will discuss, "City Government and Kings Mountain's Plans for the Future."

The Public Affairs group will hear Mrs. Margaret Harper of Southport, candidate for lieutenant governor of North Carolina, at a meeting April 4th at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Mauney.

Mrs. R. S. Lennon, Mrs. Dorothy P. Etheridge and Mrs. Haywood E. Lynch were hostesses. Refreshments were served tea-style from a table decorated in the St. Patrick's Day motif. Spring flowers decorated the lounge and foyer of the clubhouse.

Juanita Dellinger

attached at the shoulders and fell to cathedral length. Her bouffant shoulder-length veil of illusion was draped from a seed pearl crown and she carried a bouquet of yellow rosebuds and white valley lilies centered by a white yellow-throated orchid.

Miss Judy Dellinger attended her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. James Scarborough of Charlotte, Miss Dianne Dellinger of Fort Mill, S. C., cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Jerry Bumgardner and Mrs. Johnny Putnam, both of Kings Mountain.

Junior bridesmaids were Elaine Hullender and Kim Smith, both of Kings Mountain.

The seven attendants wore floor-length gowns of gold velvet designed along empire lines with lowered, round necklines and elbow-length sleeves. Self-fabric bias trim was caught under the bustlines with matching bows. They wore gold velvet pillboxes with yellow nylon tulle circular veils attached and dyed-to-match peau de sole slippers. They carried nosegays of yellow mums.

Ruth Hullender, who attended the bride as flower girl, wore a floor-length gown of white velvet with crushed cummerbund and bow of gold velvet accenting the high empire waistline. She carried a white basket of white rose petals.

Ringbearers were Trent Hullender and Robbie Lovelace, the latter nephew of the bridegroom. They wore collarless coats and short pants of gold velvet with white lace-trimmed shirts and white bowties. White slippers and white socks completed their ensembles.

Best man for the bridegroom was his brother, Robert Lovelace.

The list of ushers included James Scarborough of Charlotte, Jerry Bumgardner, Jay Powell, Jr. and Pat Layton, all of Kings Mountain.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Dellinger wore a two-piece beige suit with matching accessories and a white orchid shoulder corsage.

The bridegroom's mother chose a dress and matching coat of mint green with matching accessories and a white orchid shoulder corsage.

Mrs. Robert Hullender directed the wedding.

For a wedding trip the new Mrs. Van Dyke wore a two-piece white wool ensemble featuring an A-line dress with matching coat, red patent accessories and the orchid lifted from her bouquet.

The newlyweds will be at home at 812 Rhodes avenue.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Dellinger of 108 Stowe Acres are parents of the bride. A graduate of Kings Mountain high school, the bride is a teller at First Union National Bank.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John David Van Dyke, Sr. of 511 West Gold street. A graduate of Kings Mountain high school, he attended Hartford Airline Personnel School in Hartford, Connecticut. He is employed by Wix Corporation of Gastonia.

Among out-of-town wedding guests was the bride's brother, Sgt. Wayne Dellinger, of Okinawa. Other guests were from Gaffney, Spartanburg, Fort Mill, and Rock Hill, South Carolina and from Charlotte.

LENTEN SERIES

"Suffering" will be the sermon topic at Wednesday evening Lenten services at St. Matthew's Lutheran church. Rev. Charles Easley will continue the topic, "Dynamic Words Lost In Christian Museums."

Local Students On G-W Tour With Ensemble

Miss Linda Roberts and Miss Donna Hardest of Kings Mountain will appear as members of the Gardner-Webb College Choral Ensemble on its Spring Tour. The group will tour the first week of April into Virginia, Maryland, and Washington, D. C.

The Ensemble was founded in 1963 by its present director, Professor Jerry R. Hill. Since then the group has performed concerts in all adjacent states, produced several television shows, and represented the Colleges of America in the World's Fair last year at Expo '67.

Hash Sandwiches Are Easy-To Serve

Hash... with a dash... For those hectic days when you've done nothing but dash—reach for a can of hash, season with tangy horseradish, chili sauce and sweet pickle relish. Spread dashingly on slices of toasted bread, frost with cheese, pop in the oven and make plenty! It's good!

CHEESE FROSTED HASH TRIANGLES

- 1/2 Cup margarine
- 8 Slices Merita Sandwich Bread
- 2 Cups (1-lb. can) corned beef hash
- 1 Cup grated Cheddar Cheese
- 1/2 cup well-drained sweet pickle relish
- 2 Tablespoons chili sauce
- 2 Teaspoons horseradish
- Dash each of salt and pepper
- 1. Butter toast slices.
- 2. Combine hash, pickle relish, chili sauce, horseradish, salt and pepper. Mix thoroughly. Spread over buttered toast slices; arrange on baking sheet. Sprinkle with cheese.
- 3. Place under broiler about 4 inches from heat until cheese is melted and lightly browned about 4 minutes. Cut in triangles and serve hot. Makes 8 sandwiches.

COMINGS AND GOINGS

Miss Armittie Farris is spending several weeks in Sumter, S. C. with her sister, Mrs. Ray Carroll and sons, Edwin and Timmy. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Farris, Miss Gale Farris and Miss Debbie Stewart accompanied Miss Farris to Sumter Sunday morning, returning Sunday evening to their homes here.

* * * *

Mrs. Charles D. Blanton, Jr., Miss Elizabeth Stewart, both of Kings Mountain, and Mrs. P. A. Francis of Grover went to Lincolnton Sunday to attend a meeting of officers of Women of Kings Mountain Presbytery. Mrs. Blanton is completing a two-year term as president and Miss Stewart as corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Francis is chairman of Central district of Presbyterial.

* * * *

Kim Collins, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Collins, celebrated her fifth birthday Saturday, March 16th.

Kim's birthday cake was decorated in green and yellow and topped with a yellow doll.

Refreshments were served and favors were given to each child.

Attending were Marc and Niki Costner, Beth and Neil Kincaid, Tony and Mercedes Smith, Todd Randall, Kenneth Babb and Penny and David Homesley.

* * * *

Mrs. Frank Thomson of Laurens, S. C., Kings Mountain native, is recuperating temporarily at Laurens Nursing Center from a broken hip.

Brenda Kay and Linda

Gay Warlick, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warlick of route three, will celebrate their fourth birthdays Saturday.

A family birthday party will be held at the Warlick home.

Brenda Kay and Linda Gay's mother is the former Beatrice Bridges.

Terry Guinn, age twelve, and Theresa Lynn Guinn, age nine, celebrated birthdays at a recent party at their home.

They are children of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Guinn and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Will Pryor and Mr. and Mrs. Adams McDaniel, all of Kings Mountain.

Thirty friends of the two young people attended the party. A decorated birthday cake was cut and served with party refreshments.

Enjoy RCA VICTOR Color TV Today!

Colonial Cabinetry to Grace a Lovely Home

- Glare-proof rectangular RCA Hi-Lite Color Tube with Perma-Chrome
- New Vista 25,000-volt chassis
- New Vista VHF, Solid State UHF tuners
- RCA Automatic Color Purifier

$5 weekly

The RANDOLPH Series GH-672 29 1/2 sq. in. picture

Turns for better viewing

- Glare-proof rectangular RCA Hi-Lite Color Tube shows the picture the way the camera sees it
- Super powerful New Vista 25,000-volt chassis
- New Vista VHF and Solid State UHF tuners
- Simplified color-quick tuning
- RCA Automatic Color Purifier "cancels" impurities caused by external magnetism
- Lighted VHF and UHF channel numbers

$5 weekly

The ENDICOTT Series GH-692 29 1/2 sq. in. picture

RCA THE MOST TRUSTED NAME IN ELECTRONICS

RCA VICTOR COLOR TV PRICES BEGIN AT $329⁹⁵

TIMMS furniture

Herman Marcus
1709 North Market
Dallas, Texas

$24.50

Style: 4660

It doesn't take daring to look dynamic in this clean cut Herman Marcus skimmer. Special interests on the side with buttons and loops and a split on the roll collar. This dress also features buttons on mock pocket tabs. Comes in a host of colors.

Sizes: 10-20 — 90% Rayon, 10% Silk — Colors: Navy, Mortar

McGINNIS
DEPARTMENT STORE

S. Battleground — Phone 739-3116