POLITICAL NOTICE:

It is my opinion John R. Auten, Jr. is not a lawyer and is not educationally qualified to be elected judge of this district on May 4th in Democratic primary; and he cannot properly rule on evidence and law; motions to strike, amendment of pleadings and demurrers, etc. in civil cases etc.
It is my humble opinion as an attorney-at-law, which otherwise would be impossible for any one but a lawyer to know, that lawyer William A. Mason of Belmont, N. C., a candidate for district judgeship, can not properly apply the facts to the law of the case or has proper judgement thereof to make a judge. If we can't get some one with proper qualifications as judge, it would be better to be under old system as beforehand. All other candidates are highly qualified for judgeship.
