MRS. ROBERT NATHAN SYKES, JR.
(Felma Ruth Lynn)

MRS. WILLIAM CURTIS PADGETT
(Dianne Keeter)

Church Rites Unite Sykes, Padgetts

Macedonia Baptist church provided the setting Saturday for a 3 p.m. wedding uniting Miss Felma (Pettie) Ruth Lynn and Robert Nathan Sykes, Jr. in marriage. Vows of the double-ring ceremony were heard by the Rev. Wayne Ashe, minister of the church.

The church altar was arranged with green palms and wrought-iron candelabra holding cathedral tapers. The couple knelt on a prayer bench, which centered the setting, for the benediction. Wayne L. Ware, Jr. was organist for a program of nuptial music which included the traditional marches by Wagner and Mendelssohn.

G. C. Smith escorted his niece to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's formal wedding gown was designed by the bride's mother of silk organza over tulle taffeta, fashioned in A-line empire silhouette. A-line lace appliques adorned the bodice, bell sleeves and skirt. Her cathedral length silk illusion veil, draped from a crown of pearls, was appliqued with Alencon lace. She wore drop pearl earrings, gift of the bridegroom, and carried a bouquet of white split carnations centered by a white orchid.

Mrs. Buddy W. Connor of Warrenton, Ga. was her sister's matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. R. Stephen Blake of Charlotte, sister of the bride; Mrs. Bob Myers of Kings Mountain; Miss Candace Sykes of Smithfield, sister of the bridegroom; and Miss Cathy Hawkins of Shelby, cousin of the bride.

All the attendants wore formal-length gowns of light pink silk shantung with empire waistlines accented by pink-centered white daisies, scoop necklines and bell sleeves. They wore headpieces of pink ribbon puffs with floor-length tulle veils attached and carried cascades of pink daisies.

John Ryberg of Smithfield was best man for the bridegroom. Ushers were Douglas Wilson of Mebane, cousin of the bridegroom; Grover Wiggs of Smithfield; R. Stephen Blake of Charlotte, college roommate of the bridegroom and brother-in-law of the bride; and Buddy W. Connor of Warrenton, Ga., brother-in-law of the bride.

The bride's mother was gowned in Ciel blue lace with matching hat and slippers. She wore a corsage of white cymbidium orchids. The bridegroom's mother chose aqua silk organza with matching hat and slippers. She wore at her shoulder a corsage of white cymbidium orchids. The bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. W. A. Hawkins, chose aqua silk with matching hat. She wore a corsage of white gladiolus. Miss Pam McDaniel of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., college classmate of the bride, kept a guest register in the vestibule of the church.

The bride's mother and the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Smith, entertained after the ceremony at a reception in the church fellowship hall.

The pink and white color theme of the wedding was beautifully carried out in decorative details and in refreshments. Overlaid with white tulle, the bride's table, highlight of decoration, held a three-tiered wedding cake topped with wedding bells. Centerpiece for the table was an arrangement of pink and white daisies arranged with a candelabrum of white tapers. Punch was served with the cake.

Assisting in receiving and entertaining were Mrs. Buford Ware, Miss Dutch Cloninger, Mrs. Gene Hoyle, Mrs. James Cloninger, all of Kings Mountain, and Mrs. Joe Hawkins and Mrs. Robert Weatherford, both of Shelby.

For a trip to the North Carolina mountains the bride wore a navy blue and white dress with matching accessories and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet. Wilmington, North Carolina will be home for the newlyweds. They will reside at 16-F Cypress Grove Apartments.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

The bride is daughter of Mrs. Ruth Lynn of Kings Mountain and the late Felmer Lonzo Lynn. A graduate of Kings Mountain high school, she was a Pittsburg Plate Glass Scholar to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She graduated this month from the UNC School of Pharmacy. At UNC she was among seven pharmacy students this year initiated into Rho Chi, national pharmacy honor society. She is granddaughter of Mrs. C. C. Lynn and Mrs. W. A. Hawkins, both of Kings Mountain. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nathan Sykes, Sr. of Smithfield are parents of the bridegroom. A 1962 graduate of Smithfield high school and a 1967 graduate of the University of North Carolina School of Pharmacy at Chapel Hill, he is employed as a pharmacist at Walgreen Drug Company in Wilmington.

Miss Dianne Keeter and William Curtis Padgett were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in a double-ring ceremony in First Baptist church.

The Rev. Robert C. Mann heard the exchange of vows. Mrs. F. R. McCurdy, organist, and E. Allen Jolley, vocal soloist, provided a program of nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white satin styled along princess lines, and featuring a sheer lace yoke and Chapel length train. Her veil was attached to a pearl tiara and she carried a white lace-covered Bible topped with an orchid. The bride's gown was worn by her mother at her wedding. Mrs. Walter J. Keeter, Jr. of Kings Mountain, was graduated from Kings Mountain high school and attended Appalachian State University at Boone. The bridegroom's parents are (Continued On Page Two)

Ushers were Walter J. Keeter, 111 of Kings Mountain, brother of the bride, and Mike Aull of Leesville, S. C. Following the ceremony the bride's parents were hosts at their home, 108 East Ridge street, at a reception honoring the bridal couple. The bride's table was spread with white Brussels linen and centered with the wedding cake flanked by silver candelabra holding white tapers. The epergnette cups were filled with arrangements of white chrysanthemums and greenery. After a trip to the coast, the newlyweds will make their home on route two, Batesburg, South Carolina. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Keeter, Jr. of Kings Mountain, was graduated from Kings Mountain high school and attended Appalachian State University at Boone. Fashions '68... Year Of Diversity

COAT-DRESS—The coat dress takes on after-five elegance in richly woven cotton brocade. Worn by Maid of Cotton Susan Holder, the Gino Charles design is set off with sparkling rhinestone buttons.

VICTORIAN AIR—Delicate lace cuffs lend a Victorian air to this body-skimming pleid cotton created by Jeunesse. Styled with fly-front closing and mandarin collar, it's one of many fashionable designs in Maid of Cotton Susan Holder's wardrobe.

SUMMER'S PRETTIEST BLOOM—Little girls take naturally to fashion's "pretty girl" look. Here's a classic example in ivory-colored cotton leno. Dainty lace example ruffles edge the bib front, three quarter sleeves and full skirt of this miniature smock style by Canderella.

July 4th Events At Country Club Includes Parent-Child Scotch Foursome

A Parent-Child Scotch Foursome is among July 4th events set by Country Clubbers for members, their families and guests. A full-day of activities is planned for Independence Day next Thursday.

Mrs. Charles Mauney, president of the Kings Mountain Women's Golf Association, said all club members are invited to participate in a July 4th golfing event. Teams are to be composed of an adult and child and tee-off times begin at 10 a.m. with a nine hole round to be completed by 5 p.m., said Mrs. Mauney. Entrance fee is 50 cents per person.

Mrs. Mauney said that score cards should be turned in to the Kings Mountain Country club pro shop and that golfing prizes will be awarded at poolside events that evening. Teams may choose their own starting times and foursomes and partner's names should be entered at the club by Wednesday, July 3. (Continued on Page Two)
