Summer Rites Unite Goforths, Hilsmans; Engagements Are Announced

Fort Belvoir, Virginia will be home for Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ashecraft Goforth who were wed Saturday, July 13th, in Lincoln's First Baptist church.

Miss Victoria Ann Caskey of Lincoln became Mr. Goforth's bride in a 3 p.m. double-ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Robert A. Cantwell.

Mr. Goforth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman A. Goforth of Kings Mountain, and his bride met while students at Western Carolina University at Cullowhee. The bride, who received her B.S. in business education, was president of Sigma Kappa sorority and a member of the marshal's club. She is granddaughter of Mrs. Minnie Lee Caskey of Concord and Calvin P. Sigmon of Maiden.

The bride taught at East Mecklenburg high school in Charlotte last year. This summer she has been employed at Celanese Corporation in Charlotte.

The bridegroom, who earned his B.S. degree in business administration, was vice-president of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity, vice-president of Men's House Government and a Senior Senator. Prior to entering the Army, he was employed by Caskey Paper Company in Charlotte. He is grandson of Mrs. Manda Barber of Kings Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Thurman Caskey of Lincoln are parents of the bride.

Mrs. Robert A. Cantwell was organist for the program of nuptial music. The altar of the church was arranged with Oregon fern and three seven-branched candelabra holding cathedral candles.

Floyd Thurman Caskey escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's formal gown of imported French lace was re-embroidered with lace motifs. The empire bodice was styled with short sleeves edged in lace flowers and the skirt ended in a Chapel train. Her shoulder-length veil of silk illusion was attached to a lace headpiece and she carried a cascade of Marguerite daisies.

Miss Anne Lovelle Davis of Charlotte was maid of honor. She wore a floorlength empire dress of tangerine Serrano linen with matching headdress and carried a matching bouquet of carnations.

Honorary bridesmaids were Miss Evelyn Morton and Miss Charlotte Wise, both of Charlotte, college roommates of the bride, and Miss Sandra Lackey of Thomasville, the bride's cousin. They wore pastel dresses and wore carnation shoulder corsages.

The bridegroom's father was best man, Jerry Scott Caskey of Charlotte, brother of the bride, ushered with John Jennings of Scranton, Pa.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother wore a mint green linen dress trimmed with white embroidery, matching accessories and a white orchid shoulder corsage.

The bridegroom's mother chose powder blue linen overlaid with lace with dark blue accessories and a white orchid shoulder corsage.

Miss Pamela Whitley, cousin of the bride, kept the guest register in the vestibule of the church.

For a wedding trip to the mountains of Western North Carolina the bride wore a white linen A line dress with red and white coat, white accessories and the orchid her mother wore in the wedding.

TWO PARTIES
The bride and bridegroom were honored at a Friday night post-rehearsal party given by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Thurman Caskey at home.

For the cake cutting the bride-to-be wore a white dress of imported French lace with short sleeves edged in lace flowers and the
