Cleveland County Native Starring In "Killers Three" Playing Here

(Ed. Note) "Killers Three" plays Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Joy Theatre.

By NANCY YOUNG
Shelby Daily Star Writer

A Cleveland County native, Mrs. Fairy Hancock Sykes, is beginning to make it big in movies. Mrs. Sykes of Asheboro portrays Diane Varsi's mother in "Killers Three" which was filmed this summer in Ramseur.

The movie, produced by Dick Clark, stars Clark, Miss Varsi, Robert Walker and a lot of Randolph County people in the story of a group of bootleggers.

Not only does Mrs. Sykes act in the film, she also wrote one part of it. Miss Varsi needed a monologue for an almost dream sequence in which she was remembering the past. Mrs. Sykes went off during the film and wrote the poetry-prose speech.

Berlin Mitchem In New Post

Berlin Mitchem, formerly of Kings Mountain, has recently been appointed to the office of Asst. District Manager for Columbus Service International, at Charlotte.

Columbus employs some 1200 people and has its main office in New Costel, Penn.

Mitchem, 28 years old is a graduate of Compact high school in Kings Mountain and now makes his home at 2818 Parkmont Drive in Charlotte. He has been with Columbus for three months.

A Christmas tree adds beauty and spirit to the happy holiday season, but proper care of the evergreen is important to avoid needless tragedy, cautions Liberty Mutual Insurance Companies.

A tree should be stored in water which is checked every day, especially if it is near a heating system. Two weeks is the maximum a tree should remain up.

state to visit a sister. While there, she was married and eventually ended up in Asheboro.

Besides her acting, Mrs. Sykes has been busy with other things. She has had poems, songs, articles and columns published. Her son, "I Went To Your Church Last Sunday" is in the song Hall of Fame and has brought her letters of approval from President Johnson and many members of congress.

Mrs. Sykes once had a band and has helped many local groups get started.

Mrs. Sykes got the role in "Killers Three" when local people were given a chance to try out for some of the more minor roles.

However, one reviewer said that the local people were the ones who gave the film depth.

Clark decided to use Ramseur for his location because the town hasn't changed too much since the days when bootleggers drove through.

2 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
3 cups regular all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon baking soda
1/4 teaspoon cloves
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg, optional
1 cup applesauce

Line two loaf pans, 9x5x2 1/2-inch with waxed paper. In a bowl combine gumdrops, pecans and raisins with 1/2 cup flour; toss to coat. In a large mixing bowl cream butter; gradually add sugar and beat until light and fluffy. Beat in eggs, one at a time; add vanilla. Sift together 3 cups flour, baking powder, cinnamon, baking soda, cloves and nutmeg. Add to creamed mixture alternately with applesauce, beginning and ending with dry ingredients. Stir in gumdrop-nut mixture. Divide evenly into pans. Bake in a preheated 275 F. oven 2 1/2 - 3 hours or until done. (Have pan of hot water on bottom shelf of oven. Cakes will have greater volume and more moist
