Mrs. Plonk Hostess Thursday To Book Club

On January 9, Mrs. R. S. Plonk was hostess to the members of the Thursday Afternoon Book club at her home in Bessemer City.

Mrs. F. G. Padgett, who had the program for the afternoon, used as her subject "Cherries Are Royal." She brought out that the cherry as a court favorite reaches back to Tudor times. Treating people with cherries was a means of bestowing honor on them.

During the reign of Elizabeth I, cherry tarts appeared on the menus of the court, and preserved cherries became a favorite gift she stated. Cherry fairs were held and poems were written about this luscious fruit. Cherry orchards became places where royal lovers romanced.

At the close of the program Mrs. Plonk presided over a short business session.

During the social period of route two. She is a 1969 graduate of Kings Mountain high school with Russian tea and a dessert.

Miss Kathy Yarbro flew by jet to Homestead, Fla. Monday for a week's visit with her sister and brother-in-law, S/Sgt. and Mrs. Ronald Di Sabato, Mrs. Di Sabato is the former Grace Yarbro.

Favorite Recipes Are Just That—Poultry, Egg Cookbook Off Press

The North Carolina Poultry Federation has just released a booklet of favorite American recipes containing chicken, turkey, and eggs. The booklet is entitled "Look What We've Cooked Up" and contains recipes of some of America's most prominent hostesses.

Included in the booklet is a Chicken Salad Recipe from Mrs. Richard Nixon, America's First Lady, Chicken and Rice Soup from Mrs. Spiro T. Agnew, wife of N. C. Vice President of the United States, Basque Chicken from Mrs. Frank Church, wife of United States Senator from Idaho, Sweet Chocolate Cake from Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, and Friscassed Chicken, once a favorite of Mrs. Abraham Lincoln, wife of the 16th President of the United States.

The recipe booklet also includes Lynda Bird Johnson's Wedding Cake recipe, recipes from the National Turkey Federation, from the Ambassador Hotel, New York, New York, Roast Turkey from Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the 28th President of the United States, Boned Chicken Breast from Mrs. George McGovern, wife of the U. S. Senator from S. Dakota, Wild Rice with Chicken Livers from Mrs. Eugene J. McCarthy, wife of U. S. Senator from Minnesota, Angel Lemon Cake from Mrs. Charles R. Jonas, wife of U. S. Congressman 8th District of North Carolina, Chocolate Roll from Mrs. Robert F. Kennedy, Florida Orange Bread from Mrs. Claude R. Kirk, Jr., wife of Governor of Florida, and many other favorites from prominent American women and prominent hotels throughout the country.

The recipe booklet has been distributed throughout many areas of North Carolina and a limited number of copies are available to the public. Copies may be obtained through the mail for 25c each which covers postage and handling charges. Housewives of North Carolina interested in copies may write directly to the North Carolina Poultry Federation, P. O. Box 2431, Raleigh, N. C.

Mrs. Richard Nixon's recipe for chicken salad follows:

- 1 cup diced cooked chicken
- 1 cup diced celery
- 1/2 cup halved, seeded grapes
- 1/3 cup roasted almonds, diced
- 1/3 cup mayonnaise
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice
- 1/2 teaspoon grated onion
- Salt to taste
- Solad greens

Combine chicken, celery, grapes and almonds. Blend mayonnaise, lemon juice, onion and salt, and mix lightly with chicken mixture. Serve on crisp salad greens. Makes four servings.

Lynda Bird Johnson's Wedding Cake

- 1 pound powdered sugar
- 1 pound butter
- 1 pound cake flour
- 12 eggs
- Mace
- Lemon rind

Whip butter until light, add sugar and mix for three minutes. Add eggs—two at a time—continue to mix. Finally, add flour and mix lightly but fully. Bake in paper-lined pans at 275 degrees for approximately one hour.

Dimes Drive $50 Donation From Junior Club

The Junior Woman's club voted a $50 contribution to the Kings Mountain March of Dimes campaign against birth defects Monday night.

The club is leading the drive in Kings Mountain and No. 4 township with Mrs. Cal Fisher, club president, as chairman.

Mrs. Fisher, reporting on progress of the campaign, said Scouts from the area are conducting door-to-door solicitations under the leadership of Scout leaders. Junior clubwomen are also "working" several areas in town and Bennett Masters is contacting industry officials.
