

DIGNITY, PATRIOTISM MARK MAY DAY PROGRAM

Miss Jackie Manning was crowned queen of May in ceremonies Friday night that were marked by dignity and patriotism at Kings Mountain High School when the theme was "This Is America".

Crowned by Marty Frederick, president of the Student Participation Organization, Miss Manning wore a white silk organza gown featuring scoop neckline, long full sleeves and empire waistline. The gown was adorned with lace appliques on the bodice and scalloped train and she carried an arm bouquet of iris and roses.

The queen's attendants were gowned in daffodil yellow silk linen dresses styled with long, full sleeves and empire waistlines. The waistlines were accented by embroidered white daisies on olive velvet ribbon and the skirts fell to formal length. They carried white baskets of yellow and white daisies and yellow iris with gypsophilla. Their yellow picture hats featured a band of white fresh daisies and olive velvet streamers.

Stage decorations included floor candelabra holding long white tapers, palms and yucca plants.

Attending the queen were Misses Janet Sue Bridges and Debra Ann Connor from the freshman class; Misses Gale Teresa Bess and Caroline Lorraine Mitchem, sophomores; Misses Doris Elaine Wilson and Patsy Lynn Cornwell, juniors; Misses Sylvia Jean Hurlender and Janice Marie Murphy, seniors; and Miss Edna Lenore Champion.

Prior to the program, the flag was presented by Seniors Ronnie Harrison and Frank Humphries.

The program, entitled "This Is America", was a musical presentation by the high school choir, highlight of which was a choral reading to the tune of "This Is America". Other program selections included "The Star Spangled Banner" by the choir; "Your Grand Old Flag" with Sandra Moore as soloist; "Yankee Doodle Boy" and "Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor" by the choir; "Battle Hymn of the Republic" with Mike Kiser as soloist; "America The Beautiful" with Vicki Turner, Fran Alexander and Mike Brown, soloists.

The choir was accompanied by Miss Andrea Huffstetter and Linda Ross.

Following the program, a semi-formal dance was held with the Kings Entertainers furnishing music between 9 o'clock and midnight.

The program which got underway at 8 o'clock, was under the direction of a faculty committee with Mrs. Myrtle McClure, director of the choir, in charge of the choral program.

I WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU MOMMA

My sincerest desire on this MOTHER'S DAY, 1970 . . .

That the Now Generation will turn off from their thing and turn on momentarily to Squaresville to let Mother know she is still loved.

Perhaps they will send her an inexpensive gift or simply give her a day to cherish forever, through an expression of love.

Is that asking too much, Momma? A lifetime of pleasure at a cost of only a few pennies or moments?

Momma, I wish you were still here but I know you are up there Listening when I say again, "I will always love you, Momma."
